Unit 6: Global Migrations of 1750-1900

Use THIS presentation to complete this handout.

Part 1: Topics

Instructions: Read through the Topic 6.6 on Global Migrations, paying special attention to key vocabulary and concepts.

1. After reading the topics, summarize some of the reasons that global migrations occurred in the 1750-1900 time period: Some of the reasons that global migrations occurred in the 1750-1900 time period were search for work, slavery and development of transoceanic empires and capitalism. The new global capitalist economy relied on coerced and semi-coerced labor which included slavery, indentured servitude and convict labor.
2. How do you think industrialization played a role in increased migrations in this time period? I think that industrialization played a role in increased migrations in this time period because factories were used for manufacturing goods at this time and employment was needed so it attracted many immigrants.
3. How did environmental factors play a role in increased migrations in this time period? Environmental factors played a role in increased migrations in this time period because of limited natural resources, pollution, temperature, disease, famine, availability of natural resources and suitable or favorable land for humans.
4. How do you think global capitalism played a role in increased migrations during this time period? I think that global capitalism played a role in increased migrations during this time period because new capitalist economies relied on coerced and semi-coerced labor resulting in many immigrants doing forced labor.

Part 2: Migration Factors

Fairlie,Zachary Kroff,Javier Miranda,Nikolas Zolas,2023-08-01 A clearer view of entrepreneurship based on new comprehensive data that upends what we know about job creation and survival among US startups Startups create jobs and power economic growth That s an article of faith in the United States but as The Promise and Peril of Entrepreneurship reveals our faith may be built on shaky ground Economists Robert Fairlie Zachary Kroff Javier Miranda and Nikolas Zolas working with Census Bureau microdata have developed a new data set the Comprehensive Startup Panel that tracks job creation and the survival of every startup in the country In doing so they recalibrate our understanding of how startups behave in the US economy Specifically their work seeks to answer three critical questions How many jobs does each entrepreneur create Do those jobs disappear quickly And how long do entrepreneurial enterprises survive Job creation and survival rates are the authors conclude much lower than those reported by official federal sources Such discrepancies emerge from the more comprehensive picture drawn from this new data set a picture that for instance highlights the important but understudied differences between employer firms startups that hire people and nonemployer firms startups that do not initially hire people but may do so in later years as they grow This reframing captures the vast number of businesses that start with no employees a number largely missing from the statistics underpinning the mythos of the riskiness of entrepreneurship The book also explores who owns startups focusing on differences by race and ethnicity With its new wider view of the realities of job creation and survival among startups The Promise and Peril of Entrepreneurship has significant implications for economic policymaking and research and for the billions of dollars that the government and the private sector invest in promoting entrepreneurship CBSE Class 12 - Entrepreneurship Question Bank Mocktime Publication,101-01-01 CBSE 12 Question Bank Entrepreneurship Digital Entrepreneurship in Africa Nicolas Friederici,Michel Wahome,Mark Graham,2020-07-28 The hope and hype about African digital entrepreneurship contrasted with the reality on the ground in local ecosystems In recent years Africa has seen a digital entrepreneurship boom with hundreds of millions of dollars poured into tech cities entrepreneurship trainings

coworking spaces innovation prizes and investment funds Politicians and technologists have offered Silicon Valley influenced narratives of boundless opportunity and exponential growth in which internet enabled entrepreneurship allows Africa to leapfrog developmental stages to take a leading role in the digital revolution This book contrasts these aspirations with empirical research about what is actually happening on the ground The authors find that although the digital revolution has empowered local entrepreneurs it does not untether local economies from the continent's structural legacies Drawing on a five year research project the authors show how entrepreneurs creatively and productively adapt digital technologies to local markets rather than dreaming of global dominance achieving sustainable businesses by scaling based on relationships and customizing digital platform business models for African infrastructure challenge The authors examine African entrepreneurial ecosystems show that African digital entrepreneurs have begun to form a new professional class becoming part of a relatively exclusive cultural and economic elite and discuss the impact of Silicon Valley's mythologies and expectations Finally they consider the implications of their findings and offer recommendations to policymakers and others
