The Art of Survival Joseph Chikowero, Anna Chitando, Angeline M. Madongonda, Government Phiri, 2015-11-25 The Art of Survival Depictions of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean in Crisis offers a fresh interdisciplinary examination of a period against which development in Zimbabwe is often measured one epitomized by the severe shortages and runaway inflation of 2008 While journalistic stories of the 1998 2008 era often privilege the reductive stories of woe defeat and crushed hopes this volume explores how survival was still possible in those circumstances The book offers insights into how ordinary Zimbabweans battled the odds by making startling innovations in language use to legitimize new survival strategies how they weaved new songs and reinterpreted old ones to fight for survival how social institutions such as churches reinterpreted popular gospel and how authors playwrights and dramatists crafted works that acknowledge the unprecedented difficulties and yet find humour laughter and love in unusual places This work will appeal to both scholars who will appreciate the depth of the analysis and the general reader

Zimbabwe's New Diaspora JoAnn McGregor, Ranka Primorac, 2010-06-01 Zimbabwe's crisis since 2000 has produced a dramatic global scattering of people This volume investigates this enforced dispersal and the processes shaping the emergence of a new diaspora of Zimbabweans abroad focusing on the most important concentrations in South Africa and in Britain Not only is this the first book on the diasporic connections created through Zimbabwe's multifaceted crisis but it also offers an innovative combination of research on the political economic cultural and legal dimensions of movement across borders and survival thereafter with a discussion of shifting identities and cultural change It highlights the ways in which new movements are connected to older flows and how displacements across physical borders are intimately linked to the reworking of conceptual borders in both sending and receiving states The book is essential reading for researchers students in migration diaspora and postcolonial literary studies
