Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus Joseph H. Hellerman,2017-11-09 Many of us long to experience the fullness of God and his purpose for our lives Not a whole lot of us ever do The reason is that we have departed in some significant ways from the biblical view of Christian life and growth The New Testament highlights the communal missional and eschatological aspects of our walk with God We grow in our faith as individual Christians to the degree that we are a deeply rooted relationally in a local church community that is b passionately playing its part in God s grand story of Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration and c intently anticipating the summing of all things in Christ when Jesus returns In recent decades American evangelicals have traded away community outreach and the Bible s teaching about eternity future for the pursuit of individual religious experience in the here and now Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus traces this departure from biblical Christianity through recent decades of popular evangelical trends and reminds us that faith centered on community mission and the story line of Scripture remains the key to the spiritual formation of the individual Christian

Among Little Faces Barb Bissonette,2011-09-01 Little Emma was only a baby when her 16 year old mother brought her home to be raised under the care of her grandparents Alma and Joe A tiny bundle from heaven was all they knew and despite the hardships and illnesses they must face together Alma and Joe raised her as best as they could on their beautiful farm of Lilac Thyme Eventually Emma and her mother move away from the farm and now Emma must struggle to live with a mentally challenged sister as well as deal with her own incapacitating illness It is more than anyone is prepared to handle especially a sweet little girl like Emma but Alma and Joe are not about to let their granddaughter lose hope A beautiful poignant story as told by her grandmother about a brave young girl and the unforeseen circumstances that we must sometimes face but not always on our own Barb Bissonette grew up in Brampton Ontario She has successfully written various short stories and poems and is currently working on a new murder mystery Barb is a nurse in Orillia where she lives with her husband John She has three children and three grandchildren http SBPRA com BarbBissonette

The Midland Monthly ,1897 The Curtain Rises Susan G. Shapiro,Ronald Shapiro,2004-02-04 Much has been written about how the authoritarianism of the Communist era gave way to more open societies in the former Soviet bloc countries yet little has been said about how individuals in these countries have been affected and how they contributed to the changes in their societies How does the relationship between husband and wife change when planned economy gives way to financial incertitude When all are free to speak their minds publicly are children more likely to do so at home or at school How do the elderly adjust to new laws and fewer pensions This book describes in their own words the lives of everyday people in Romania Hungary the Czech Republic Lithuania and the Former Yugoslav republic of Macedonia as they struggled under Soviet domination as they endured the revolutions in their respective countries and as they now adapt to a free world society These individuals struggling with philosophical political educational cultural and spiritual adjustments are entrepreneurs political activists scientists and teachers They are assuming leadership roles in local politics and implementing reforms in the schools The book includes photographs maps and short introductory national histories

We Were Warriors Once Jeffrey M. Freeman,2010-07-27 We Were Warriors Once is a military political suspense novel It chronicles the careers of four officers from the 1960s to the 1990s Military promotions are based on an up or out system you either progress within specified time frames or you get left behind Many officers who retire from their military careers at the Pentagon go through the revolving door and return in short order either as defense contract employees or civil servants Not infrequently they return to the same office where they worked before retiring The same holds true for many political appointees Men who once worked in Washington go off for a period to high level assignments with defense contractors and return to influential positions in government These revolving doors can sometimes have unintended negative consequences President and former five star general Dwight D Eisenhowers warning against the power of the military industrial complex is well known However that complex is actually tri foldmilitary industrial and political We Were Warriors Once incorporates revised editions of two previously published novels Duty and Character and Wrong Enemy Wrong War with entirely new material that plumbs deeper into the defense contractors influence on national defense policies The officers who wear the uniforms of the United States armed forces are by in large extraordinarily dedicated men and women But in the profession of war sometimes even the best are tempted at times to stray from the straight and narrow
