
SECTION: REFERRALS, HEALTH LINKAGES, AND INTEGRATION, AND OUTREACH

SUBJECT: National Voter Registration Act (NVRA)

ITEM: Guidelines for Implementing the NVRA

Policy

The local agency (LA) shall, at the initial enrollment appointment, at each subsequent certification appointment, and whenever the participant reports a change of address provide each adult applicant/participant the opportunity to register to vote and document whether or not the individual chooses to register.

Required Procedures

- I. At the initial enrollment appointment, each subsequent certification appointment and whenever the participant reports a change of address, the local agency shall:
 - A. Provide the California Voter Registration Form and the Voter Preference Form to each adult applicant/participant. The applicant/participant shall be provided these forms upon arriving for their initial enrollment or certification appointment and shall be given time to review the forms prior to the individual counseling session.
 - B. Inform the applicant/participant that the decision whether or not to register to vote has no effect on their eligibility for WIC benefits.
 - C. Provide the applicant/participant time to review the forms and ask if they would like to register to vote, if they are not already registered to vote at their current residence as indicated in the first box on the form.
 1. For individuals wanting to register to vote, staff shall provide assistance in completing the California Voter Registration Form, if requested.
 2. For individuals opting to not register to vote, staff shall ask them to complete the Preference Form and check the "No" box. If the form is not returned or completed, staff should follow up with the person once to collect the form. Although agencies are not required to complete Preference Forms on behalf of those who chose not to complete them, agencies are encouraged to put the individual's name on a blank form and keep it for agency records. Retention of the Preference Forms (either blank or completed by the applicant/participant) helps demonstrate NVRA compliance.
 - D. Store the Voter Preference forms separately from the Daily Files.
 - E. Retain and secure the signed and dated Voter Preference forms for three years.
