Why We Pray:

Why We Pray John C. Peckham, 2024-07-23 Christianity Today 2025 Book Award Finalist Academic Theology If God is all powerful all knowing and entirely good why do we need to ask God to do good things Won't God act for the best regardless Do our prayers even make a difference Why do some go unanswered This brief accessible book provides a fresh angle on our questions to help us think differently about why we pray and what happens when we pray John Peckham applies the insights from his successful book Theodicy of Love to the perennial problem of petitionary prayer offering practical implications for how we might pray and live in ways that advance God's kingdom of unselfish love Since our understanding of petitionary prayer is inseparable from our understanding of God Peckham sheds significant light on the nature and character of God and the often mysterious workings of divine providence He does so by bringing theological and philosophical nuance to readings of key biblical texts on prayer weaving in other scriptural clues to articulate an understanding of prayer that highlights not only its necessity but also its urgency This book will appeal to students pastors church leaders and thoughtful laypeople

E. Byrum,2014-06-08 BRIEF plain practical dissertations on prayer constitute the subject matter of this timely and helpful volume The author s treatment of his topic is most thoroughgoing He cites and comments on nearly every Scriptural example of prayer and praying men With a rare simplicity of expression and a most attractive sincerity of spirit the characteristics of true prayer both positively and negatively are set forth That the writer speaks not from theory nor from the standpoint of philosophy but as one who really knows the secret of prayer is the ever growing impression as one peruses these pages The reader comes to a fuller realization of what a vital and blessed thing prevailing prayer is and longs to possess and experience more of its power All the stronger does this desire grow as one reads the several unique instances of answered prayer in the author's own experience adding fresh confirmation to the fact that prayer does indeed move the Hand that rules the world We would commend this volume especially to those who feel the need and importance of prayer in their life and yet are not satisfied with their present attainments in this comforting sanctifying and conquering grace Record of Christian Work Volume 32 What are We Doing when We Pray? Vincent Brümmer, 2008 Vincent Brümmer's classic book on prayer from 1984 provides a comprehensive philosophical analysis of central issues regarding the nature and practice of prayer This new edition has been substantially revised and updated Serving as a valuable core text for students this book also contributes to a number of current debates in theology and philosophy of religion the debates on realism and religious belief on the rationality of faith and the nature of theology on the relation between religious belief and morality on the relation between science and religion and the lively debate among evangelical Christians in America on the openness of God Why We Pray David Jackman, 2015-02-20 Prayer is foundational to the Christian life but many people don't understand it What is it for How does it work Why do we do it This short and accessible book explains what prayer is why it exists and how it can encourage us in our life of faith Written by a pastor with years of teaching and counselling experience Why We Pray doesn't simply tell readers why they should pray but instead focuses on four blessing filled reasons that will help us want to pray Rather than feeling discouraged and disheartened by our inconsistency in prayer we feel reinvigorated to approach God with confidence and joy delighted by the privilege of talking directly to our heavenly Father Prayer Is Asking and Receiving Michael Folorunsho Olumbo D Phil, 2023-04-15 This book titled Prayer is asking and receiving is written to enlighten the readers about what prayer really is the importance of prayer and how to pray When we pray we are joining forces with God to combat all issues to attack and bring to obedience all life's issues It is having fellowship with God to exalt praise magnify and glorify God and His Name In the book we discussed how we are supposed to pray as Jesus directed us to do before He left this earth Following the directives of Jesus we looked at the preliminaries of prayer noting that we do not have to jump into prayer without proper preparation We must come to God fully prepared In the book we looked at the main act of praying following the guidelines as given by Jesus as He directed us to do in The Lord's Prayer and as the Lord directed the children of Israel to do in the wilderness After deciding what you really want from God then you must go into the Scriptures and search the Scripture to see if the need falls in line with God's will We must be definite and exact in what we ask for There should be no repetitions or tautology A very important point that was emphasized in this book is the statement that Jesus made in Mark 11:24 where He said that when we pray we must believe that we have received what we prayed for while praying not later then we will receive it What He said there is that we must pray in faith and not in hope This is important because most Christians pray in hope not in faith They pray believing that they will receive their answer sometimes later In this book we discussed the different kinds of prayer when each type is used and how it is used Prominent among the types discussed in this book are the prayer of agreement the prayer of petition or request united prayer or prayer of unity prayer of importunity or persistence the prayer of consecration and dedication the prayer of commitment prayer of worship and the prayer of intercession We looked in detail at the prayer of intercession which is a prayer in which one takes the place of another in prayer That is going to God for somebody That somebody could be a person a ministry a church a nation or even the Kingdom itself That is standing in the gap between that somebody and God Another important topic that we covered in the book is the use of the Name of Jesus in our Prayer Jesus gave us two separate instructions as to how we should use His Name in prayer However most of us Christians do not differentiate the two We tend not to know the difference The Name of Jesus is the key that unlocks Heaven All authority has been vested in that Name We tend to use the two instructions that Jesus gave concerning the use of His Name interchangeably but wrongly most of the time The ways we use the Name in our prayers tend to show that we do not know the power that is vested in the Name Perhaps that is the reason why the answers to most of our prayers do not manifest physically The right use of the Name is thoroughly explained in the book and examples are cited as to how the disciples followed the instructions of Christ in the use of His Name We ought to follow in their footsteps We also discussed the subject of Praying in the Spirit in the book We depend on the Holy Spirit in order to be able to pray in the Spirit The Spirit makes intercession for us according to the will of God because we know not what to pray for sometimes We also noted that if we want quick answers to our prayers then our prayers must be loaded with worship and praise exalting the Name of the Lord God lives in the praises of His people In this book we also looked at and discussed in detail how to conduct spiritual war faring in prayers the enemy s armor and the weapons at the disposal of the Christian We can see that for prayer to be answered does not depend on how loud we shout but how much interaction we have with the Holy Spirit
