Storytelling Imagination And Faith:

Storytelling William J. Bausch, 1984 Homilists catechists and parents will make excellent use of this book in which the author interweaves spirituality and storytelling to demonstrate the beauty and inspiration of stories Story Telling Imagination Faith William J. Bausch, 1991 Sacred Storytelling Josephine Mellichamp Locklair, 1998 The God-Hungry Imagination Sarah Arthur, 2007-10-01 What kind of story is your church telling Ministry experts describe our culture as having lost its story Through neglect or rejection the next generation seems unplugged from the church's core beliefs For the most part young people simply do not feel part of the ongoing communal story Paradoxically this has occurred at a time when youth have fully embraced social networks that connect the world in self-obsessed narratives This world is starving for a story bigger than what you find on Facebook and YouTube Sarah Arthur emphasizes the importance of story an intrinsic aspect of the Christian faith but an aspect that is often overlooked in ministry especially youth ministry Arthur shows how youth ministry can be planned as a transforming series of story moments instead of programming She weaves together her personal experiences and insights along with the sociological work on the faith of teenagers from the book Soul Searching by Christian Smith and Melinda Denton Repeatedly and unapologetically Arthur stresses the importance of a distinct Christian language for teenagers If teens can't speak the Christian language they don't know the Christian story If they don't know the Christian story they don't know how Christians are supposed to live So what's her solution to this narrative deficiency The idea of youth ministers as bards or storytellers Arthur reminds youth ministers that their primary task is to tell the Christian story to reclaim the imagination as part of spiritual formation and to reclaim the church as God's ongoing story This book would be insightful for all ministers not only those who work with youth It can help us make a significant shift in the way we think about and approach ministry in the postmodern world Teaching from the Heart Mary Elizabeth Moore, 1998-01-01 Here is a serious and passionate plea for theology and education to stand in relationship Moore argues for an organic approach to religious moral and theological education Telling the Old, Old Story (Larsen) David L. Larsen, 2000 Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines Mih?e?, Lorena Clara, Andreescu, Raluca, Dimitriu, Anda, 2021-01-15 Stories are everywhere around us from the ads on TV or music video clips to the more sophisticated stories told by books or movies Everything comes wrapped in a story and the means employed to weave the narrative thread are just as important as the story itself In this context there is a need to understand the role storytelling plays in contemporary society which has changed drastically in recent decades Modern global society is no longer exclusively dominated by the time-tested narrative media such as literature or films because new media such as videogames or social platforms have changed the way we understand create and replicate stories The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements social media and knowledge sharing platforms among others It is targeted towards professionals researchers and students working or studying in the fields of narratology literature media studies marketing and communication anthropology religion or film studies Moreover for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful online image

Live the Story not the Dream Jackie L. Smallbones, 2016-08 Live the Story not the Dream is about prayerfully and creatively entering the Story of Scripture through its many little stories in such a way that meaningful encounters with God in Christ are experienced and we learn to live life narrated by the Story of Scripture rather the fads of today's world

Teaching about God and Spirituality Roberta Louis Goodman, 2002 A wide array of renowned scholars and practitioners share their ideas for teaching about God from a Jewish perspective in this comprehensive collection This enlightening yet practical resource includes ready to use lessons for preschool through adult and family education as well as background material to enrich the teacher's own sense of God and spirituality Chapters include Writing a Personal Theology by Dr Neil Gillman The Changing Perceptions of God in Judaism by Rabbi Rifat Sonsino The Spiritual Condition of American Jews by Dr David Ariel The Image of God as Teacher by Dr Hanan Alexander Spiritual Mentoring by Dr Carol Ochs Tell Me a Story by Rabbi Sandi Eisenberg Sasso

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories

Walking Shoes!? A Soul Journey Michael Tracey, 2002 All journeys are journeys of encounter with the Lord who walks with us in the cool of the evening Sometimes they are deadly silent other times they are full of travail But all times no matter what the occasion or circumstance they are journeys with rather than against journeys to rather than from journeys indwelling rather than dissipating Any journey demands both a challenge and a risk an act of faith in what is to come because of the assurance of what is past Yet the challenge and risk always leads to a homecoming And the journey home is always shorter and full of special memories because it embodies the reality of a happy ending A journey is an exercise in discovery discovery of latent talents opportune moments and the creative ability to fashion the tapestry of one's life under the guidance of the Master Weaver This book is a journal of life weaved from the fabric of people's lives Their hearts are stories of strength and weakness heroism and heartbreak yet woven together with hope It is a sacramentality of life love and living May your journey be the same but different Story, Ritual, Prophecy, Wisdom Mark W.

Hamilton, Samjung Kang-Hamilton, 2024-04-04 Christianity Today Book Awards Bible and Devotional Finalist 2025 Discover how studying the Bible can renew your church community How do we teach the Bible in a way that makes a real difference in our students lives and our communities Too often biblical introductions treat Scripture as a mere historical artifact Mark W Hamilton and Samjung Kang Hamilton combine their decades of experience in theological and religious education to devise a new way to teach Scripture that brings out its life giving qualities The authors show how Scripture has four modes story ritual prophecy and wisdom With an eye toward spiritual formation the authors explore examples of each of the four genres within the Bible and show how they address real needs in the life of the church today They also recommend how to incorporate contemporary tools like digital media alongside art music and other practices to draw wisdom from Scripture Combining multicultural sensitivity with ecumenical spirit this guidebook is ideal for educators and pastors seeking to renew their own Christian communities through biblical education The Story of Calvin Coolidge High School of Washington D.C. 1940-1970 Sonia Cora Swayze, Frank Jones III, James A. Scott Jr. PHD, 2024-09-30 In this book we revisit the teachers students and their families who helped shape the landscape of Calvin Coolidge High School in Washington D C from 1941 through 1970 It was and still is a school grounded in history and chronicles the ups and downs of living in the nation s capital The story unfurls over decades of war and peace civil rights voting rights the end of segregation and the assassinations of public figures including a president After the school was renovated in 1991 Edward Waters class of 1943 and William Glew class of 1945 took us on a virtual tour of Coolidge that ended in a garden behind the school where a plaque is mounted on the Greenhouse building in memory of ten Coolidge boys who died during World War 11 Mapping the Catholic Cultural Landscape Sister Paula Jean Miller, Richard Fossey, 2004-02-09 Mapping the Catholic Cultural Landscape explores the intersection of Catholicism with cultural expressions of literature and art holiness and personal devotion faith and secular society With essays selected from the world s first International Conference of Catholic Studies this volume is a primary resource for Catholic Studies directors in curriculum development and for students in the classroom This text emerges as an objective way of studying the relationship between religion history and culture Arts Ministry Michael J.

Bauer, 2013-08-22 First United Methodist Church in Augusta Georgia gives concerts to raise money for local service organizations Trinity Lutheran Church in Mission Kansas has been sponsoring a religious art show for more than twenty five years Fellowship Lutheran Church runs a Christian arts camp for young people every summer These are just three of the eighteen case studies of practicing arts ministries in this book in which Michael Bauer encourages the nurture and support of all the creative gifts of God s people Bauer lays a solid foundation for arts ministry grounding it in the historic Christian tradition and urging churches to expand their engagement with the creative arts to live and worship in full color as he puts it

A concluding chapter clearly lays out how to develop an arts ministry helping readers to take these ideas from theory to practice to embrace and celebrate the continuing creative activity of God in the church

Telling the Whole Story John C. Holbert, 2013-03-01 Telling the Whole Story is both a book about preaching and reading the narratives of the Hebrew Bible John C Holbert PhD in Hebrew Bible was a longtime teacher of preaching and Hebrew Bible at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University having retired in 2012 after thirty three years In this volume he combines his two skills of careful narrative reading and imaginative story preaching to offer the first comprehensive look at this particular kind of sermon proclamation The reader will also find here an introduction to the long history of story preaching in the history of the church as well as a primer both in ways to read the narratives more effectively and ways to preach several varieties of story sermons At the heart of this book four narratives from the Hebrew Bible are exegeted and are accompanied by four story sermons based on those texts Genesis 23 1 Samuel 15 Judges 4 and Jonah The goal of the book is to help preachers who are looking for effective ways to proclaim the gospel using narrative texts from the Hebrew Bible to allow the rich stories of the texts to sound their ancient truth to the modern world

The Art of Catechesis Maureen Gallagher, 1998 Combining sound theological liturgical psychological and catechetical foundations this book shows catechists how to become artists in helping others grow in faith

A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005

Children's Perceptions of the Role of Biblical Narratives in Their Spiritual Formation Annie George, 2017-02-28 In the Bible storytelling is an important means to pass on the revelation of God God repeatedly commanded the people of Israel to tell his mighty acts to the next generation Invariably churches follow this mandate and use biblical narratives as a means to transmit God's self revelation to enable transformation The author Dr Annie George listens to the voices of children in order to understand their perceptions of how storytelling of biblical narratives help them in their spiritual formation Dr George's research highlights the importance of evaluating the impact of biblical narratives from a child's perspective as well as emphasising the need to give the same priority to the spiritual transformation of children as with other areas of study and ministry

Biblical Narrative Learning Tung Chiew Ha, 2015-10-02 Biblical narrative learning is a non critical educational approach for Christian communities with diverse learning backgrounds involving three sets of movement inquire and invent interpret and imagine inspire and imitate and impart It is grounded in humankind's universal capacity to teach and learn through stories and built on practices in narrative learning along with biblical narratives The Gospel of John provides a model for this interpretive process that continues the teaching of living in a loving relationship with God and one another John uses many literary devices to enhance an affective and reflective learning The literary devices create the familiar strange effect John's narrative fosters remembrance of the Story and guides the learner to adequate faith in God It inculcates adequate faith to wait in suspense while the Jesus Story and our stories when they are remembered create new understanding and transform the life experiences of the person
