

AP WORLD HISTORY STUDY GUIDE

Unit 1 (1200-1450):

1.1: State Building in China

- China was kind of like the Texas of the ancient world: Don't mess with China.
- In 960, China was split into regional kingdoms again as the power of the Tang Dynasty was gradually waning. Zhao Kuangyin: ruler of one of those kingdoms that took it upon himself to unify most of them all again as the Song Dynasty. (960-1279)
- Song State Structure: 6 departments
 - Personnel, finance, rites, army, justice, and public works.
 - Censorate overseeing these departments. Made sure no one in these bureaucratic departments were behaving bad.
- Confucianism: chief things that helped organize the government.
 - Great continuity in Chinese culture over the years
 - According to Confucian thought, reality is fundamentally hierarchical. Everyone has their place in society, and everyone needs to behave rightly and fulfill their role for everything to go well. (People subject to rulers, etc.)
- Civil service examination:
 - Influenced by Confucian ideals. Major part of the exam was being WELL VERSED in Confucian ideals.
 - A test you had to pass in order to work in the imperial bureaucracy.
 - Led ruling from a heretic form of aristocracy to a new class of scholarly leaders
 - Aristocracy: a form of government in which power is held by the nobility.
- Chinese merchants participated heavily in robust system of long-distance trade across Afro-Eurasia.
 - Increasingly commercialized Chinese society. People began to produce goods not only for local consumption, but also for distant markets. Chinese manufacturing FLOURISHED during this period.
- By the 11th century, China's iron industry was producing 32,000 suits of armor and 16 million iron arrowheads ANUALLY.
- As commerce grew, role of money also changed. As economy grew, there was not enough precious metal available for minting coins to keep up with the demand.
 - Introduction of paper money
 - Became more popular than minting coins
- Gunpowder
 - Accidental discovery by Daoist alchemists trying to discover elixir of immortality.
 - First application was fireworks and pyrotechnic displays for imperial court, not in a military context.
 - Military context next.
- Influenced Japan
 - Chinese influence was all over Japanese culture.

Handbook of Administrative History Jos Raadschelders, 2017-07-05 Public administration is commonly assumed to be a young discipline rooted in law and political science with little history of its own Likewise teaching and scholarship in this field is often career oriented and geared either toward the search for immediately usable knowledge or guidelines and prescriptions for the future Although most administrative scientists would acknowledge that their field has a history their time horizon is limited to the recent past Raadschelders demonstrates that public administration has in fact a long standing tradition both in practice and in writing administration has been an issue ever since human beings recognized the need to organize themselves in order to organize the environment in which they lived This history in turn underlines the need for administrators to be aware of the importance and contemporary impact of past decisions and old traditions In seeking to go beyond the usual problem solving and future oriented studies of public administration this volume adds greatly to the cognitive richness of this field of research Indeed the search for theoretical generalizations will profit from an approach that unravels long term trends in the development of administration and government Raadschelders approaches public administration history from a dual perspective as trained historian and professor of public administration The volume is appropriately called a handbook in view of its methodical listing of the literature on administrative history together with summaries of numerous authors principal theories The second chapter is an essay on sources in the field including an extended bibliography These parts of the book alone make it useful to scholars in the field Raadschelders is helpful in other ways as well The third and fourth chapters offer a highly sophisticated discussion of methodological problems encountered in writing administrative history including the issue of perceiving stage
