and their influence was felt throughout western Europe in the songs of the troubadours the poems of Dante and the discoveries of Copernicus their merchants enriched the province their courtiers and architects set new standards of luxurious living This glory finally ended in 1492 when the Christian armies of the Reconquista entered Granada but much remains in the three Moorish towns of Cordoba Seville and Granada and the country round about to recall the great times Alfonso Lowe is an admirable guide from the intricacies of the distinction between Mozarabic and Mudejar Moorish styles to the characteristic dishes to be found in restaurants and bars and to the adjacent territories of Murcia and the greater part of Alicante
