Radiological and Nuclear CBRN terrorism and the war on terror are major features of international relations and global concern. Terrorist threats and actual violence have become increasingly dangerous and lethal since the 1970s. However, the attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon on 11 September 2001 heralded a new era in terrorist action and were the culmination of a terror campaign against American targets world wide. It is a sober and measured evaluation of the CBRN threat and argues that continuing terror attacks are inevitable and the war on terror will be a continuing feature in international politics and military action. Benjamin Cole shows how effective counter terrorist measures must be measured and based not only on effective police and military intelligence and action but on careful evaluation of the politics, motivations, scientific and technical abilities of groups. No terrorist group has made a nuclear device and religious and personal motivation
