Carthage, Missouri Michele Newton Hansford, 2000 Translated as New City Carthage was founded in 1842 as the county seat of Jasper in southwest Missouri The town prospered for two decades until military advances during the Civil War destroyed the entire town and dispersed its population This volume assembled by the Powers Museum offers a pictorial glimpse into the rebuilding and growth of this historic city during its most influential years The citizens of Carthage quickly rebuilt the city during the late 1860s and early 1870s and eventually reclaimed its pre war prominence as an agricultural and trade center located at the edge of the northern prairies and the Ozark foothills When lead zinc and limestone were discovered and developed into prosperous industries families began to arrive from all over to take advantage of the area s economic opportunities Carthage s trademark Victorian architecture still in place today is a result of the economic affluence of the town during this late nineteenth and early twentieth century period
