entries from tortuous teen years to eventually running the London Marathon Running for my Life will make you laugh cry and question whether you really can outrun your demons The Story of My Life Sir Edward Clarke,1919 Mobility and

Migration Choices Martin van der Velde,Ton van Naerssen,2016-03-03 The crossing of national state borders is one of the most discussed issues of contemporary times and it poses many challenges for individual and collective identities This concerns both short distance mobility as well as long distance migration Choosing to move or not across international borders is a complex decision involving both cognitive and emotional processes This book tests the approach that three crucial thresholds need to be crossed before mobility occurs the individual s mindset about migrating the choice of destination and perception of crossing borders to that location and the specific routes and spatial trajectories available to get there Thus both borders and trajectories can act as thresholds to spatial moves The threshold approach with its focus on processes affecting whether when and where to move aims to understand the decision making process in all its dimensions in the hope that this will lead to a better understanding of the ways migrants conceive perceive and undertake their transnational journeys This book examines the three constitutive parts discerned in the cross border mobility decision making process people borders and trajectories and their interrelationships Illustrated by a global range of case studies it demonstrates that the relation between the three is not fixed but flexible and that decision making contains aspects of belonging instability security and volatility affecting their mobility or immobility The PhD Experience in African

Higher Education John Mashayamombe,Ruth Murambadoro,uMbuso weNkosi,2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa s positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning Struggles for Self-Determination Josiah Brownell,2021-12-02 A unique comparative study between four secessionist states in postcolonial Africa and their struggles to obtain sovereign recognition Diary of an African Journey H. Rider Haggard,2001-08 In 1914 Haggard the author of colonialist novels King Solomon s Mines and She returned to a South Africa which had greatly changed since the first visits of his youth This account of his journey as a member of the British Empire's Dominions Royal Commission offers observations on the changed nature of the country after the Anglo Boer wars and details a number of aspects of the political landscape including a description of his interview with the founder of the African National Congress John Dube c Book News Inc A Soviet Journey Alex La Guma, 2017-04-18 In 1978 the South African activist and novelist Alex La Guma 1925 1985 published A Soviet Journey a memoir of his travels in the Soviet Union Today it stands as one of the longest and most substantive first hand accounts of the USSR by an African writer La Guma's book is consequently a rare and important document of the anti apartheid struggle and the Cold War period depicting the Soviet model from an African perspective and the specific meaning it held for those envisioning a future South Africa For many members of the African National Congress and the South African Communist Party the Soviet Union represented a political system that had achieved political and economic justice through socialism a point of view that has since been lost with the collapse of the USSR and the end of the Cold War This new edition of A Soviet Journey the first since 1978 restores this vision to the historical record highlighting how activist intellectuals like La Guma looked to the Soviet Union as a paradigm of self determination decolonization and postcolonial development The introduction by Christopher J Lee discusses these elements of La Guma's text in addition to situating La Guma more broadly within the intercontinental spaces of the Black Atlantic and an emergent Third World Presenting a more expansive view of African literature and its global intellectual engagements A Soviet Journey will be of interest to readers of African fiction and non fiction South African history postcolonial Cold War studies and radical political thought This Generation Leads: The Latest Leadership

Ideas from South Africa Mike Teke, Muzi Kuzwayo, 2022-03-01 This book was born out of an idea that I had during the period in which I spent time with several young people who had approached me to assist them in different ways including personal development career advancement and growth as well as growing their businesses and entrepreneurial acumen and skills I took the challenge but felt that more could be achieved hence this book The chapters in this book are written by each one of these young people They chose the topics guided by me and the plan was to simply convey a message from each one of them about leadership They did not do this for fame or to sell this book to make money but to share their ideas The topics covered in this book will appeal to different readers and some readers might find more lessons in one chapter or in more chapters than one I urge each one of you who read this book to pick one or a few lessons and share it with those you wish to make a difference to Mentorship of young people is critical but this does not mean that the mentors will provide handouts in the form of money People who wish to grow are not interested in money they are interested in a piece of your generous heart Mike Teke The Story of My Life Harry Johnston, 1923 The life history of a prolific writer explorer British colonial administrator
