the issue of human rights in Africa is making many advances Human Rights Sourcebook and Manual for Africa introduces easy to use jurisprudence The first section covers key principles and human rights norms which are detailed in straightforward language The second section is devoted to the death penalty detailing the relevant provisions from both international and regional instruments and offering a comparative commentary as to how the principles and relevant rights relate to the death penalty The third section summarizes key case law from international regional and domestic African courts and tribunals The case summaries detail the facts and decisions and include a headnote of relevant concepts for quick reference The fourth section focuses on thirteen African countries yet the reports are a useful comparative resource for all countries From conducting the research and compiling the material for this final section it is apparent that nothing like this has been attempted before in Africa Much of the work emanates from primary research and investigation conducted by local research teams in the individual countries Investigative research includes visiting prisons physically counting the individuals on death row and interviewing the detainees to obtain their age and the length of time they had been on death row

Finkelstein,2003-10-17 In his iconoclastic and controversial study Norman G Finkelstein moves from an interrogation of the place the Holocaust has come to occupy in global culture to a disturbing examination of Holocaust compensation settlements It was not until the Arab Israeli War of 1967 when Israel s evident strength brought it into line with US foreign policy that memory of the Holocaust began to acquire the exceptional prominence it has today Recalling Holocaust fraudsters such as Jerzy Kosinski and Binjamin Wilkomirski as well as the demagogic constructions of writers like Daniel Goldhagen Finkelstein contends that the main danger posed to the memory of Nazism s victims comes from some of the very people who profess most passionately to defend it Drawing on a wealth of untapped sources he exposes the double shakedown of European countries and legitimate Jewish claimants and concludes that the Holocaust industry has become an outright extortion racket
