Thomas Moran Thurman Wilkins, 1998 This extensively revised edition of Thurman Wilkins's masterful and engaging biography well illustrated in color and black and white draws on new information and recent scholarship to place Thomas Moran more securely in the milieu of the Gilded Age It also portrays more fully the controversies that surrounded the art of Moran's time as he became the Dean of American Painters The American West was the subject of Thomas Moran's greatest artistic triumphs Yosemite the Grand Canyon of the Colorado Zion Canyon the Virgin River Colorado's Mountain of the Holy Cross and the Grand Tetons but his travels with Ferdinand V Hayden's geological surveys of the Upper Yellowstone were matched by trips to his native Britain and to Venice Florida the Spanish Southwest and Old Mexico These scenes inspired memorable landscapes and seascapes as did the sojourns of the Moran family in Pennsylvania New Jersey and East Hampton Long Island when they retreated from the demands of the New York art scene In the 1880s Moran and his artist wife Mary Nimmo Moran also threw themselves into the etching craze of the period creating some of the finest prints produced in the United States Moran was an artist happy in his work He wrote I have always held that the grandest most beautiful or wonderful in nature would in capable hands make the grandest most beautiful or wonderful pictures The New York Times said of the first edition of this unique account of his life Moran's mastery comes through clearly and awesomely and often pleasurably Readers will find the new edition equally enjoyable The Art Collector Alfred Trumble, 1889 Sierra

Lessons in Likeness Estill Curtis Pennington, 2011 Between 1802 when the young Kentucky artist William Edward West began to paint portraits while on a downriver journey and 1920 when the last of Frank Duveneck's students worked in Louisville a large number of notable portrait artists were active in Kentucky and the Ohio River Valley In Lessons in Likeness Portrait Painters in Kentucky and the Ohio River Valley 1802-1920 Estill Curtis Pennington charts the course of those artists as they painted a variety of sitters drawn from both urban and rural society The work is illustrated when possible from The Filson Historical Society collection of some four hundred portraits representing one of the most extensive holdings available for study in the region Portraiture involves artists and subjects known as sitters and is an art that combines elements of biography aesthetics and cultural history Private portraits often attract an oral history that enlivens the more colorful aspects of local tradition and culture Public portraits of towering figures such as George Washington Henry Clay and Abraham Lincoln were often reproduced in printed format to satisfy popular demand and subsequently attained an iconic timeless status Lessons in Likeness is organized in two parts Part One the cultural chronology serves as a backdrop to the biographies of the portrait artists This section identifies stylistic sources and significant historical moments that influenced the artists and their milieus Rather than working in isolation portrait artists were connected to the world around them and influenced by prevailing trends in their trade Early in the nineteenth century for instance Matthew Jouett journeyed to Boston for study with Gilbert Stuart and upon his return to Kentucky painted in a style that subsequently influenced an entire generation Later artists notably Oliver Frazer and William Edward West studied the lessons of Thomas Sully in Philadelphia Sully popularized the lush warmly colored and highly flattering style of portraiture practiced by many of the itinerant artists whose careers were facilitated by the introduction of steam and rail travel The Civil War provoked a dramatic shift in the cultural terrain further augmented by the rise of photography and the emergence of academic art centers Painters who had previously worked with a master painter or learned on their own were now able to study at established schools especially in Cincinnati which became one of the leading centers for the teaching of art in late nineteenth century America Several of the teachers there Frank Duveneck and Thomas Satterwhite Noble in particular had firsthand experience with avant garde European styles notably the realism and naturalism practiced in Munich and Paris in the last quarter of the nineteenth century and then taught in the art schools of New York and Philadelphia Part Two profiles the artists from this area and period who have appeared in previous art historical literature and have an identifiable body of work represented in public and private collections Individual biographies provide details of the artists
