A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khalid Hosseini (Trivia-on-Books) Trivion Books, Quicklet on Khaled Hosseini's A Thousand Splendid Suns Lacey Kohlmoos, 2012-02-24 ABOUT THE BOOK One could not count the moons that shimmer on her roofs or the thousand splendid suns that hide behind her walls A Thousand Splendid Suns is a gripping story of two women learning how to survive under the thumb of an abusive husband in Taliban controlled Afghanistan Mariam grew up as the illegitimate daughter of a Herat businessman raised by a bitter and depressed single mother Laila was the beloved daughter of a Kabul man who believed in a world where men and women are equal. When the circumstances of war bring them together under the roof of the cruel Rasheed, their only comfort is in the special bond of sisterhood they form during years cut off from the rest of the world. Khaled Hosseini weaves a tale of love and survival that begins during the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan in the 1970s and ends with the American invasion and occupation in the early 2000s. Although ultimately a story of love and friendship, A Thousand Splendid Suns reveals the devastating effects of war on those caught in the middle, particularly women and children.

MEET THE AUTHOR Lacey Kohlmoos is a writer, traveler, and lover of the arts. After graduating from the University of Virginia with a BA in Drama, the Studies of Women and Gender, the only thing she knew for sure was that she wanted to travel. So she embarked on a 10 1 2 month round the world trip, then traveled to Costa Rica where she spent one year teaching elementary school English in a small mountain town. Throughout her two years of travels, she's always kept a blog.

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK At first Rasheed treats Mariam well, albeit distantly. But after she has multiple miscarriages, he turns abusive. It becomes clear to Mariam that the only reason Rasheed married her was so that she would bear him sons. When she does not give her husband what he wants, Mariam finds herself trapped in a home with a man who believes that husbands should always keep a good handle on their wives. Living just down the street from Mariam and Rasheed is a young Kabul beauty, Laila. Though largely ignored by her mother, she is doted upon by her father, Hakim, who believes that women should be treated as equals to men. But the reality of living in Soviet-occupied Afghanistan comes crashing down on Laila when her two older brothers are killed while fighting with the Mujahedeen. She finds comfort in Tariq, a slightly older neighborhood boy who protects Laila from bullies and other harm.

The script for the stage production of the bestselling Khaled Hosseini novel A Thousand Splendid Suns as adapted by playwright Ursula Rani Sarma. Born a generation apart and with very different ideas about love and family, Mariam and Laila are two women brought jarringly together by war, by loss, and by fate. As they endure the ever-escalating dangers around them in their home as well as in the streets of Kabul, they come to form a bond that makes them both sisters and mother-daughter to each other, and that will ultimately alter the course not just of their own lives but of the next generation. With heart-wrenching power and suspense, playwright Ursula Rani Sarma reimagines Hosseini's novel to show how a woman's love for her family can move her to shocking and heroic acts of self-sacrifice, and that in the end, it is love or even the memory of love that is often the key to survival. A stunning accomplishment, this reimagining of A Thousand Splendid Suns is a haunting, heart-breaking, compelling production about unlikely friendship and indestructible love. Khaled Hosseini Ayse Gökçe, 2011. Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject English Pedagogy / Didactics / Literature Studies, grade 1.7. Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Lehrstuhl Fremdsprachendidaktik, course Seminar Young Adult Fiction, language English, abstract: Teaching English as a foreign language means a great challenge which would certainly be answered by all English teachers in the affirmative. Today every school in Germany offers English as school subject even the primary schools. Consequently it must be put great emphasis on teaching it accurately by taking into consideration any aspect of English language acquisition when learning it, for example the acquisition of a distinctive vocabulary, the ability to use grammar rules correctly, the ability to spell correctly, the ability to understand what is being said when native speakers talk in English, which we call listening comprehension. Another very important part of learning English as a foreign language is undisputedly reading comprehension. The ability to read out correctly, to understand what is being read and to be able to work with a text effectively is not only a competence that should be concentrated on in the foreign language but also in the mother tongue. The PISA Study is a perfect proof of this, which will be mentioned later on. In this paper I will try to accentuate the importance and significance of reading in the English class. In order to illustrate this I will introduce the novel A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini, an American author and doctor with Afghan origins and use it for the elaboration of the importance of reading activities in the English class Initially I will focus on the didactic analysis which includes the reference to the syllabus The syllabus is of course the signpost in terms of guidelines when planning the lessons choosing age appropriate media and methods What role does reading play in this context What is said in the syllabus when it comes to reading The next
