EASTER WRITING

TIC-TAC-TOE

Do the writing prompt in the middle and then choose one of the writing prompts in a row (vertically, horizontally or diagonally) to complete the Tic-Tac-Toe.

Write a narrative story about a magical Easter egg hunt where the eggs hold extraordinary surprises or lead to a mysterious adventure.	Imagine you are the Easter Bunny for a day. Describe the adventures you would have and the creative eggs you would hide for children to find.	Research the origins of Easter and its cultural significance in different parts of the world. Write an informative essay about the various Easter customs and traditions.
If you could invent a new Easter tradition, what would it be, and how would it bring joy and happiness to others?	Describe a dream Easter basket filled with items that represent your interests, hobbies, and favorite treats.	Design an egg-drop experiment using common household materials. Describe your hypothesis, procedure, and the outcome of your egg-strengthening science challenge.
Write a story about a group of friends who embark on an exciting egg-hunt adventure. What challenges do they face, and what lessons do they learn along the way?	If you could spend Easter with any fictional character, who would it be, and how would you celebrate the holiday together?	Imagine waking up one morning to discover that all technology has vanished. Write a journal entry describing how you spend your day, what challenges you encounter, and how this day impacted your perspective on technology.
