Rory Pilossof, Andrew Cohen

Zimsec History Paper 1 2014:

Teaching African History in Schools, 2020-11-04 Emerging from the pioneering work of the African Association for History Education AHE Afrika Teaching African History in Schools offers an original Africa centred contribution to international history education research Edited by AHE Afrika s founders and directors the volume thus addresses a notable gap in this field by showcasing otherwise marginalised scholarship from and about Africa Teaching African History in Schools constitutes a unique collection of nine empirical studies interrogating curriculum and textbook contents and teachers and learners voices and experiences as they relate to teaching and learning African history across the continent and beyond Case studies include South Africa Kenya Rwanda Zimbabwe Malawi Cameroon and Tanzania as well as the UK and Canada Contributors are Denise Bantovato Carol Bertram Jean Leonard Buhigiro Annie Fatsereni Chiponda Raymond Nkwenti Fru Marshall Tamuka Maposa Abdul Mohamud Sabrina Moisan Reville Nussey Nancy Rushohora Johan Wassermann and Robin Whitburn

Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa

Mugabeism? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2015-12-26 What is distinctive about this book is its interdisciplinary approach towards deciphering the complex meanings of President Gabriel Mugabe of Zimbabwe making it possible to evaluate Mugabe from a historical political philosophical gender literal and decolonial perspectives It is concerned with capturing various meanings of Mugabeism

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe's anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies

The Conservation of Violence Tafadzwa Mushonga, 2025-07-14 The Conservation of Violence explores the governance of protected forests in Zimbabwe highlighting the structural and operational mechanism through which violent tactics are produced employed and sustained to promote nature conservation Drawing on political ecology geography and environmental politics it examines the central role of the state in conserving conservation violence The book presents contemporary cases studies of violence in conservation and introduces the concept of conservation of violence as an alternative framework for understanding the tenacity of violence in conservation areas across Africa It also delves into the constitutionalisation of environmental rights illustrating how these rights have been leveraged to enable and preserve conservation violence as well as the ways in which militarisation fosters and circulates violence By offering new ways for investigating violence in conservation the book interrogates the complexities of dismantling entrenched systems of violence and provides insights into the theoretical and practical obstacles of transforming conservation ideologies The explored include coloniality nature culture dichotomies resource governance extraction capitalism sustainability policy and conservation law regulation and policing environmental rights and environmental justice The Conservation of Violence will be a significant contribution to the fields of political ecology geography development environmental justice and the broader environmental humanities Beyond History Elijah Nyaga Munyi, David Mwambari,, Aleksi Ylönen, 2020-08-27 Moving beyond a self indulgent attitude about Africa s historical victimhood the book seeks to capture how African states individually and Africa s collective institutions the AU are providing agency in Africa s international relations While African states have been trailblazers in such ideas as The Responsibility to Protect as conceived in the African Union Constitutive Act 2001 which preceded the United Nations UN Secretary General s report In Larger Freedom 2005 in which the UN adopted the concept African agency in international relations has not always been captured proactively This volume seeks to document Africa and African states in a state of proactivity as opposed to a reactionary mode of international relations which has long been the case due to the discipline s heavy concentration on the West The main themes explored are African agency in international relations and commerce agency in Africa s balancing of big and regional powers reshaping Africa EU relations beyond the Cotonou Agreements Africa and international human rights institutions African efforts in elections and conflicts in Africa and relationship building among African leaders Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology Africa Assistant Professor Morten Jerven, 2015-06-11 A valuable corrective to the fraying narrative of African failure Foreign Affairs Not so long ago Africa was being described as the hopeless continent Recently though talk has turned to Africa rising with enthusiastic voices exclaiming the potential for economic growth across many of its countries What then is the truth behind Africa s growth or lack of it In this provocative book Morten Jerven fundamentally reframes the debate challenging mainstream accounts of African economic history Whilst for the past two decades experts have focused on explaining why there has been a chronic failure of growth in Africa Jerven shows that most African economies have been growing at a rapid pace since the mid nineties In addition African economies grew rapidly in the fifties the sixties and even into the seventies Thus African states were dismissed as incapable of development based largely on observations made during the 1980s and early 1990s The result has been misguided analysis and few practical lessons learned This is an essential account of the real impact economic growth has had on Africa and what it means for the continent s future Zimbos Never Die? , 2023-05-08 This book seeks to explore how the Zimbabwean society and its institutions have survived if not succumbed to continuous economic crises in the country From the 1990s Zimbabwe experienced a sustained economic decline challenged by both internal and external strains Coupled with internal mis governance and corruption the nation plunged into a political and economic crisis which culminated in the second highest world inflation rate for an economy that is not at war In the face of the harsh and continuously deteriorating economic environments Zimbabweans as individuals as well as part of institutions adopted various strategies to negotiate and survive the economic scourge Contributors include Wellington Bamu Nathaniel Chimhete Anusa Daimon Innocent Dande Sylvester Dombo Tinotenda Dube Rudo Gaidzanwa Tafara Evelyn Kombora Ushehwedu Kufakurinani Bernard Kusena Eric Kushinga Makombe Albert Makochekanwa Blessed Masawi Ivo Mhike Joseph P Mtisi Joseph Mujere Wesley Mwatwara Pius S Nyambara Tinashe Nyamunda Mark Nyandoro Takesure Taringana and Nicola Yon Mutimurefu

Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state's fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three chimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party's chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

The Southern African Development Community in Zimbabwe Rich Mashimbye, 2024-02-13 This book narrates the unravelling of Zimbabwe a country that was once considered an inspiration on the continent of Africa in terms of socioeconomic development Recognising that many factors contributed to the collapse of the nation and that this collapse was a process that occurred over a long period it looks at historical events and processes like the colonisation of the country and dispossession of the indigenous people and the misrule politically motivated violence and economic mismanagement that followed under Robert Mugabe as the pivotal moments that precipitated the subsequent fall of Zimbabwe The book also examines the role that the regional intergovernmental organisation the Southern African Development Community SADC played in trying to help Zimbabwe overcome its security political and economic challenges

Fending for Ourselves Rory Pilossof, 2021-10-08 Zimbabwe celebrated its independence just over 40 years ago While the nation is no longer young its population certainly is over 60% are under the age of 35 Understanding youth perspectives and experiences is therefore vitally important Fending for Ourselves reviews the recent histories and realities of youths in Zimbabwe offering a distinguished range of authors exploring issues of education employment and work the urban experience involvement in the informal economy mental health and political activity Importantly the collection examines successive generations of youth in Zimbabwe to show how ideas experiences and reactions to the social political and economic context have shifted over time Many of the issues affecting youth over the past 40 years have been traumatic and distressing physical and mental abuse declining employment and educational opportunities poverty ill health and loss of hope but this collection underlines the agency and resilience of Zimbabwe's young people and how they have found ways to navigate the political social and economic terrains they occupy Digital Activism in

Zimbabwe Tenford Chitanana, 2024-10-21 This book investigates the role of the internet and social media in political processes in non western and non democratic contexts Using Zimbabwe as a case study the book demonstrates how activists and ordinary people deploy social media particularly Facebook to subvert an enduring hegemonic state However the book also highlights how authoritarian regimes are in turn learning and adapting to the information age challenging the impact of digital activism Studies of digital activism in the Global South are often centred around democracy but this book paints a more complex picture examining the role and effect of digital activism in challenging state hegemony in authoritarian contexts The book notes that while communication technologies help mediate activism they are also simultaneously constrained by pre existing and emergent challenges tied to the social and political context and the inherent limitations of those technologies The book investigates the tactics used by digital activists the contextual factors and restrictive political environment they operate in including the role of pro government activists and ultimately the impact of digital activism given these constraints From the case of Zimbabwe the book builds out a broader theoretical analysis of the evolution of third world protest in the digital age examining the limitations of activists actions and the ideological deficit in online activism to ferment a virulent counter hegemony Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk

Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe's Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region's troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region's resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent

From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell, Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and ontology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy

Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in Africa Gedion Onyango, 2021-12-30 This Handbook provides an authoritative and foundational disciplinary overview of African Public Policy and a comprehensive examination of the practicalities of policy analysis policymaking processes implementation and administration in Africa today The book assembles a multidisciplinary team of distinguished and upcoming Africanist scholars practitioners researchers and policy experts working inside and outside Africa to analyse the historical and emerging policy issues in 21st century Africa While mostly attentive to comparative public policy in Africa this book attempts to address some of the following pertinent questions How can public policy be understood and taught in Africa How does policymaking occur in unstable political contexts or in states under pressure Has the democratisation of governing systems improved policy processes in Africa How have recent transformations such as technological proliferation in Africa impacted public policy processes What are the underlying challenges and potential policy paths for Africa going forward The contributions examine an interplay of prevailing institutional political structural challenges and opportunities for policy effectiveness to discern striking commonalities and trajectories across different African states This is a valuable resource for practitioners politicians researchers university students and academics interested in studying and understanding how African countries are governed

Multiparty Democracy in Zimbabwe

Aaron Rwodzi, 2024-03-26 This book provides a comprehensive account of the tumultuous political landscape of Zimbabwe Delving into historical and contemporary perspectives the author analyses the relationship between the ruling ZANU PF party and the opposition exposing the pervasive influence of foreign powers and their regime change agendas Amidst western imposed economic sanctions the book examines how political opposition has struggled to maintain its footing in the face of ZANU PF's rhetoric on preserving the nation's sovereignty Drawing on the powerful theoretical frameworks of Gramsci's hegemony theory and instrumentalism the book dissects the constraints on multiparty democracy under ZANU PF's rule From the party's manipulation of liberation narratives to the subtle intricacies of Mugabeism a violent and ideological stronghold the author unveils the tactics employed to maintain power The chapters uncover the pivotal role played by the military throughout Zimbabwe's history from the days of the liberation struggle to the shocking events of 2017 when Mugabe's grip on power was diminished by the very force that had propped him up for decades the author reveals how the military's involvement has thwarted opposition players attempts to claim power Boldly challenging the notion that constraints solely rest on ZANU PF this book calls attention to the shortcomings of opposition parties in navigating Zimbabwe's treacherous political landscape Using compelling evidence and unparalleled analysis the book is an essential read for those seeking to understand the intricate web of power manipulation and struggle that has defined Zimbabwe's political journey

The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein, 2022 Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics In 1898 just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule Charwe Nyakasikana spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda famously prophesised that my bones will rise again A century later bones bodies and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe's postcolonial milieu From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled wardead and from the troubling decaying remains of post independence gukurahundi massacres to the leaky tortured bodies of recent election violence human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory commemoration and the representation of the past In this book Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe's politics of the dead Challenging and innovative he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory commemoration and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances as duplicitous rumours and as returning spirits Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits the book points to how the incompleteness of death is politically productive and ultimately derives from the problematic entangled excessivities of human material and immaterial existence and is deeply intertwined with the stylistics of postcolonial power and politics Joost Fontein is Professor of Anthropology University of Johannesburg He was previously Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh His books include Remaking Mutirikwi Landscape Water and Belonging James Currey 2015 shortlisted for the African Studies Association 2016 Herskovits Prize Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Swaziland and Botswana University of Johannesburg Press

Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe Prosper Maguchu, 2019-07-26

This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio economic rights concern at a national level Zimbabwe s widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects It weakened institutions especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests leading to potential human rights violations However Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017 Due to this there seemed to be an opening to work towards reform in relation to the anti corruption architecture Specifically the new era provides an opportunity to review how accountability mechanisms including but not limited to amnesties truth commissions institutional reforms and prosecutions can address corruption as a socio economic rights violation As the new government still tries to address competing priorities many moving parts and various matrixes this volume in the International Criminal Justice Series provides a timely frame for revisiting the debate and developing the strategic thinking regarding transitional justice options in Zimbabwe It will be of great interest to practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the fields of anti corruption socio economic and human rights and transitional justice Prosper Maguchu is Visiting Assistant Professor at the Centre for the Politics of Transnational Law of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands
