Community-based Water Law and Water Resource Management Reform in Developing Countries Mark Giordano,John Butterworth,2007-01-01 The fifteen chapters of this book analyse the living community based water laws in Africa Latin America and Asia and critically examine the interface between community based water laws formal water laws and a variety of other key institutional ingredients of on going water resources management reform Challenges to Proponents of CPR Systems ,2000 The History of Cartography, Volume 6 Mark Monmonier,2015-05-18 For more than thirty years the History of Cartography Project has charted the course for scholarship on cartography bringing together research from a variety of disciplines on the creation dissemination and use of maps Volume 6 Cartography in the Twentieth Century continues this tradition with a groundbreaking survey of the century just ended and a new full color encyclopedic format The twentieth century is a pivotal period in map history The transition from paper to digital formats led to previously unimaginable dynamic and interactive maps Geographic information systems radically altered cartographic institutions and reduced the skill required to create maps Satellite positioning and mobile communications revolutionized wayfinding Mapping evolved as an important tool for coping with complexity organizing knowledge and influencing public opinion in all parts of the globe and at all levels of society Volume 6 covers these changes comprehensively while thoroughly demonstrating the far reaching effects of maps on science technology and society and vice versa The lavishly produced volume includes more than five hundred articles accompanied by more than a thousand images Hundreds of expert contributors provide both original research often based on their own participation in the developments they describe and interpretations of larger trends in cartography Designed for use by both scholars and the general public this definitive volume is a reference work of first resort for all who study and love maps MY LIFE IN THE STRUGGLE FOR THE LIBERATION OF ZIMBABWE M Mpofu,2014 This is an elucidation of accumulation of personal experience within the context of socio cultural internalization in particular and the socio political environment in general that is intended to provide some insights into a plethora of ingredients that converged and crystallized into a catalytic impetus that socially transformed my generation from village boys to highly politicised freedom fighters during the 1960s to the 1970s in Rhodesia I have done this by tracing the footprints of my experience which show multiple stages and strands of cultural social political and physical determinants that landed themselves on my growth path starting from socialization in my parents home all the way through the local community traditions and schooling to active service for the freedom of my country at local and national levels Here the crucial elements that moulded my social being in a very profound way have been ventilated to show when and how I became able to distinguish antagonistic differences between justice and injustice at my very early age Proceeding from here I have brought out how I teamed up with others whose political outlook and aspirations were identical with mine as we all voluntarily joined anti colonial struggle starting from invisible low intensity activism in schools and towns up to risky adventures that finished up in armed struggle within a broad national perspective the narration further demonstrates the domesticity of the movements that championed liberation struggle as drivers were citizens who grew up in the rural villages and urban African Townships where they progressively became aware that they were born unlike their parents in a country under colonial administration In doing all this I had to spell out how my interaction with informative social vectors brought awareness on how my country Zimbabwe was colonized and governed by Europeans without the consent of the indigenous natives who showed their resentment to foreign rule by rebelling First Chimurenga within six years of colonization but failed only to succeed in the second rebellion Second Chimurenga after ninety years of racial domination Furthermore I believe I have laid bare how I became a civilian freedom fighter together with peers of my generation in the second rebellion where intolerable weight of oppression caused us to abandon nonviolent methods of struggle in favour of using arms of war to face a cobweb of security forces led by superb military machine of the colonial state wherein lay formidable challenges confronting rebelling citizens the armed struggle phase meant that fighters and their collaborators had to face those challenges in the theatre of operation Initially they exhibited more weaknesses than strengths and lost opportunities that were in the form of abundance of political support of masses of people in the country the overall process of the struggle exhibited strengths and costly weaknesses right from the civilian phase up to the armed struggle phase with or without my participation It was not until freedom fighters gained experience in planning and undertaking field operations that they became able to apply appropriate tactics that caused the struggle to gain sustainability in the theatre of operation More importantly the narration makes the point that the Rhodesian colonial system was presided over by European settler leaders who hardly recognized African citizens as entitled to participation in governance of the country with equal rights in social political economical and juridical spheres of societal setting of two main races Exclusion of African from consensus on the act of Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI by Ian Douglas Smith was a fundamental blunder that precipitated nationwide fury that lead to a civil war in which a deprived citizen fought against a privileged citizen who was indoctrinated with falsehood that his adversary freedom fighter was sponsored by foreign powers of a communist type while the latter rightly believed that he was fighting to free his country from racially imposed injustices of deprivation More importantly the narration lays emphasis on the creation of massive political structures throughout the country well below the radar of legality for the purpose of sustaining guerrilla warfare in the face of the super professional Rhodesian security forces In this connection the final phase of armed struggle demonstrated to all at home and abroad that freedom fighters became significantly effective because they were politically rooted in the oppressed population whence came their strength against superior military hardware and a water tight counter insurgency strategy of the Rhodesian security forces Essentially it was that political strength not Communist powers or betrayal by the West which caused all stakeholders to become willing to come to a negotiating table at Lancaster House in Britain in 1979 to settle the armed conflict decisively Education and HIV/AIDS ,2002-01-01

Annotation Education and HIV AIDS provides a strategic direction for the World Bank in responding to the impact of HIV AIDS on education systems The central message of this book is that the education of children and youth deserves the highest priority in a world afflicted by the HIV AIDS epidemic Teacher in Zimbabwe ,1992 Latin American Environmental Policy In International Perspective Gordon J Macdonald,1996 Starting from the stance that environmental policy has progressed from rhetoric to substance in Latin America the editors proceed through a series of papers to show why what difference it makes and how it compares to other parts of the world In doing so the book touches on domestic and international factors including political institutions international development institutions nongovernmental organizations and transboundary cooperation Latin American Environmental Policy in International Perspective is one in a series of books that take a look at Latin America in Global Perspective Previous titles have addressed politics gender regional integration institutional design and civil military relations Resources in Education ,1999 Report of the National Trade Unions Survey, Zimbabwe, 1984 Zimbabwe. Ministry of Labour, Manpower Planning, and Social Welfare. Department of Research and Planning,1984 Bibliography of Agriculture with Subject Index ,1993 The Future of Globalization Ernesto Zedillo,2014-04-04 Erudite and topical this well balanced treatment with essays from world renowned contributors including the former President of Ireland Mary Robinson Jagdish Bhagwati and Nobel prize winner Joseph Stiglitz considers the forces that propel globalization and those that resist it Local and regional experiences from Bangladesh China India Latin America and the Middle East are analyzed along with some of globalization s most potent risks Giving voice to sophisticated and illustrative reasoning The Future of Globalization offers useful insights into the extraordinary human achievement brought about by increasing international economic integration interdependence and interconnectedness and shows how this has been a powerful force for the progress of humankind The contributors take stock of the debate on globalization and explore ways to make globalization more beneficial for individuals communities and countries as well as ways to reduce its insufficiencies and mitigate the risks it faces This book will benefit all students of economics political science and international relations among others and is useful to courses that focus on globalization and its impacts

Internationalization in Higher Education and Research Lars Engwall,2024-01-01 This book examines the pros and cons of the internationalization of higher education institutions which is an important feature of modern universities It makes a significant contribution to our understanding of universities and an important input to the assessment of the internationalization of higher education institutions both for regulators and for the universities themselves The book s three parts focus on a number of issues associated with internationalization The first part Perspectives on Internationalization provides critical reflections on internationalization on the globally distributed European American university and on the impact of rankings The second part The Obstacles to Internationalization deals with the significance of language challenges of mobility and environment concerns The third part Alternative Modes of Internationalization discusses internationalization at home international distance education and the establishment of international branch campuses

The Presented Past B. L. Molyneux,P. G. Stone,2003-09-02 The Presented Past is concerned with the differences between the comparatively static well understood way in which the past is presented in schools museums and at historic sites compared to the approaches currently being explored in contemporary archaeology It challenges the all too frequent representation of the past as something finished understood and objective rather than something that is constructed and therefore open to co existing interpretations and constant re interpretation Central to the book is the belief that the presentation of the past in school curricula and in museum and site interpretations will benefit from a greater use of non documentary sources derived from archaeological study and oral histories The book suggests that a view of the past incorporating a larger body of evidence and a wider variety of understanding will help to invigorate the way history is taught The Presented Past will be of interest to teachers archaeologists cultural resource managers in fact anyone who is concerned with how the past is presented

African Economic Development Christopher Cramer,John Sender,Arkebe Oqubay,2020-06-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries using the striking variation in economic performance as a starting point African Economic Development Evidence Theory and Policy highlights not only difference between countries but also variation within countries It focuses on issues relating to gender class and ethnic identity such as neo natal mortality school dropout and horticultural and agribusiness exports Variations in these areas point to opportunities for changing performance reducing reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past African Economic Development rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice criticizing a range of orthodox and heterodox economists for their cavalier attitude to evidence Instead it shows that seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be if certain impediments were removed Drawing on decades of research and policy experience this book combines careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with economic insights to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment Great Zimbabwe, Mashonaland, Rhodesia Richard Nicklin Hall, 1905
