Zimsec November 2014 Economics Paper2

Tawodzera, Godfrey, Crush, Jonathan

Zimsec November 2014 Economics Paper2:

Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards Uchenna, Efobi, Nnadi, Matthias, Tanna, Sailesh, Iyoha, Francis, 2016-03-08 International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS are internationally recognized financial reporting guidelines regulated by the International Accounting Standards Board IASB to ensure that uniformity exists in the global financial system In addition to regulating financial reporting the adoption of IFRS has been shown to impact the flow of foreign capital and trade Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards focuses on the consequences and determinants of the adoption of the International Financial Reporting Standard IFRS which has remained a top issue in International Accounting This timely publication brings to the forefront issues related to the political and economic influences and impacts of IFRS in addition to providing a platform for further research in this area Policy makers academics researchers graduate level students and professionals across the fields of management economics finance international relations and political science will find this publication pertinent to furthering their understanding of financial reporting at the global level War by Other Means Robert D. Blackwill, Jennifer M. Harris, 2016-04-11 A Foreign Affairs Best Book of 2016 Today nations increasingly carry out geopolitical combat through economic means Policies governing everything from trade and investment to energy and exchange rates are wielded as tools to win diplomatic allies punish adversaries and coerce those in between Not so in the United States however America still too often reaches for the gun over the purse to advance its interests abroad The result is a playing field sharply tilting against the United States Geoeconomics the use of economic instruments to advance foreign policy goals has long been a staple of great power politics In this impressive policy manifesto Blackwill and Harris argue that in recent decades the United States has tended to neglect this form of statecraft while China Russia and other illiberal states have increasingly employed it to Washington's disadvantage G John Ikenberry Foreign Affairs A readable and lucid primer The book defines the extensive topic and opens readers eyes to its prevalence throughout history Presidential candidates who care more about protecting American interests would be wise to heed the advice of War by Other Means and take our geoeconomic toolkit more seriously Jordan Schneider Weekly Standard Development in Difficult Sociopolitical Contexts A. Ware, 2016-04-30 This edited volume explores development in the so called fragile failed and pariah states It examines the literature on both fragile states and their development and offers eleven case studies on countries ranking in the very high alert and very high warning categories in the Fund for Peace Failed States Index Christian Theological Education and the Response to the Crisis in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Gift Masengwe, 2025-10-02 The book offers an incisive examination of the governing philosophy of the Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front ZANU PF referred to as Zanupfism characterizing it as marked by callousness and malevolence towards dissenting voices from civil society and opposition factions This pernicious application of power extends beyond mere verbal aggression to encompass militaristic actions engendering a profound generational crisis within Zimbabwe The contributors explore the compelling juxtaposition between President Emmerson Mnangagwa and the biblical Nebuchadnezzar II a ruler notorious for his autocratic reign and expansive ambitions Further critically scrutinizing the complicity of neo Pentecostal prophets in the book reveals how these religious figures promote an esoteric understanding of the divine diverging from a theology rooted in justice thereby enabling the oppressive regime s practices This critique underscores the imperative for prophets to recalibrate their theological perspectives urging them to move beyond magical interpretations of faith toward an authentic engagement with a personal God who champions justice The book further encompasses the complex interplay of political and religious narratives examining how church leaders either bolster or undermine Mnangagwa s political ideology highlighting the tendency among certain religious factions to deify political authority ultimately exacerbating societal inequities In advocating for a transformative theological discourse in Zimbabwe the book asserts that religious narratives must serve as instruments for fostering democracy social justice and equity rather than sustaining a status quo that entrenches authoritarian governance The necessity for unified principled resistance grounded in the collective agency of the populace emerges as a salient theme in the quest for meaningful political and social reform

Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho, Rudi Pretorius, Luiza Olim de Sousa, 2021-07-09

This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how

African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges It is against this background that this book has been produced It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support both on going and future efforts The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies

The Return of Food Tawodzera, Godfrey, Crush, Jonathan, 2016-06-14 The nadir of Zimbabwe's political and economic crisis in 2008 coincided with the implementation of a baseline household food security survey in Harare by AFSUN This survey found that households in low income urban areas in Zimbabwe's capital were far worse off in terms of all the food insecurity and poverty indicators than households in the other 10 Southern African cities surveyed by AFSUN The central question addressed in this report is whether food security in Zimbabwe's urban centres has improved AFSUN conducted a follow up survey in 2012 that allows for direct longitudinal comparisons of continuity and change The status of household food security in low income neighbourhoods in Harare was improved in 2012 relative to 2008 and yet persistently high rates of severe food insecurity demonstrate that the daily need to access adequate food continued to be a major challenge The key lesson for policymakers is that even in the context of overall economic improvement food insecurity remains endemic among the poorest segments of the urban population Households are already accustomed to drawing on resources outside of the formal economy and improvements in employment income have not reversed that trend These alternative livelihood strategies should therefore be considered as a normal part of urban life and supported with state resources that can improve access to food for the most marginalized groups

The Politics and Economics of Decolonization in Africa Andrew Cohen, 2017-05-26 The slow collapse of the European colonial empires after 1945 provides one of the great turning points of twentieth century history With the loss of India however the British under Harold Macmillan attempted to enforce a second colonial occupation supporting the efforts of Sir Andrew Cohen of the Colonial Office to create a Central African Federation Drawing on newly released archival material The Politics and Economics of Decolonization offers a fresh examination of Britain's central African territories in the late colonial period and provides a detailed assessment of how events in Britain Africa and the UN shaped the process of decolonization The author situates the Central African Federation which consisted of modern day Zambia Zimbabwe and Malawi in its wider international context shedding light on the Federation's complex relationships with South Africa with US Presidents Dwight Eisenhower and John F Kennedy and with the expanding United Nations The result is an important history of the last days of the British Empire and the beginnings of a more independent African continent

Local Governance, Economic Development and Institutions G. Gomez, P.

Knorrinda,2016-04-08 Development is what most people see as progress in the places where they live and in the ways they live It has to do with public services the ways to complain when these are not delivered properly and the spaces to change power structures It is related to the economy the opportunities to access a secure job a sustainable livelihood and increased welfare while caring for the planet and others It is also linked to the institutions that allow people to live life well using resources ethically and doing business responsibly in relation to other communities and future generations This edited collection examines the interconnections between local governance economic development and institutions by focusing on what initiatives work and under what conditions they do so Based on a variety of theories and empirical data it presents evidence from current experiences around the world revealed by researchers across different continents and several generations

Abundant Life and Basic Needs Nyoni, Bednicho,2019 Western neglecting traditional religion is an important factor for the failure of many developmental strategies towards Africa Therefore religion s of the indigenous peoples must be given the necessary attention The book presents the example of the Shona religion playing a critical role in the life of the Zimbabweans If incorporated it will contribute to the better success of development initiatives back cover

Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo,Kirk Helliker,2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe s regime The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa s Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa s Second Republic The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes

Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty-First Century Howard Tafara Chitimira,Artwell Nhemachena,Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa,2021-09-27 In Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century Universalism and Particularism in International Law the contributors argue that the world is witnessing the formation of a global jurisprudential apartheid despite the promotion of democracy equality human rights and humanitarianism Examining organisations such as international criminal courts the World Trade Organisation the United Nations Security Council the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank the contributors unpack the challenges of global jurisprudential apartheid

In particular they analyse the ways in which these organizations hold and contribute to the increasing inequalities between the Global North and the Global South Ultimately Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century shows that globalisation is a variant of the apartheid era particularism and not universalism working to advantage the Global North while disadvantaging the Global South under the pretense of humanitarianism Financial Inclusion Regulatory

Practices in SADC Howard Chitimira,Tapiwa Warikandwa,2023-05-25 Against a background of calls to prioritise the improvement of financial inclusion in Africa this book provides an analysis of current financial inclusion measures in Southern Africa Evaluating the existing strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion in Africa it identifies opportunities to improve inclusive financial services and aid poverty reduction in the region With a focus on South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as case studies for assessing current financial inclusion in the context of particular challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cybercriminals due to low levels of digital literacy it looks into the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in Southern Africa The book explores financial inclusion in the context of digital transformation in the 21st century examining the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the context of digital transformation as well as the challenges related to financial inclusion Suggesting improvements to aspects of company law securities and financial markets in the Southern African Development Community region the book offers a comprehensive study on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the Southern African Development Community region It will be essential reading for students and academics researching financial inclusion international economic law and development Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna,2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe s extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe s extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe s government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000 2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development

Migration, Cross-Border Trade and Development in Africa Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Inocent Moyo, 2017-10-12

Based on migration dynamics in the Southern African Development Community SADC region this edited volume focuses on the activities of grassroots and informal non state actors The authors explore cross border economic activities migration governance issues the regional integration project of the SADC and implications for sustainable development in Africa Examining the apparent success of immigrant entrepreneurs operating in cities of economically depressed countries such as Zimbabwe it also discusses the role of local authorities in managing migration to achieve development Thus the book is centred on human mobility the building of cohesive communities between immigrants and indigenous people the informal economic activities of cross border traders and undocumented migrants and regional integration providing a multidisciplinary and rich source of knowledge for scholars interested in African politics labour migration and economy

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness, Zak Cope, 2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date

Non-Migration Amidst Zimbabwe's Economic Meltdown Rose Jaji, 2023-02-13 Non Migration Amidst Zimbabwe's Economic Meltdown addresses the complexities surrounding non migration in Zimbabwe within the context of protracted political and economic uncertainty Rose Jaji discusses how individual subjectivities mediate macroeconomic factors and critiques simplistic explanations of non migration paying particular attention the complexities and contradictions involved in the decision not to migrate The book ends with a discussion of the synergistic relationship between non migration and migration demonstrating how one can morph into the other in response to evolving individual circumstances and macroeconomic factors

Making Medicines in Africa Maureen Mackintosh, Geoffrey Banda, Watu Wamae, Paula Tibandebage, 2016-02-03 This book is open access under a CC BY license The importance of the pharmaceutical industry in Sub Saharan Africa its claim to policy priority is rooted in the vast unmet health needs of the sub continent Making Medicines in Africa is a collective endeavour by a group of contributors with a strong African and more broadly Southern presence to find ways to link technological development investment and industrial growth in pharmaceuticals to improve access to essential good quality medicines as part of moving towards universal access to competent health care in Africa The authors aim to shift the emphasis in international debate and initiatives towards sustained Africa based and African led initiatives to tackle this huge challenge Without the technological industrial intellectual organisational and research related capabilities associated with competent pharmaceutical production and without policies that pull the industrial sectors towards serving local health needs the African sub continent cannot generate the resources to tackle its populations needs and demands Research for this book has been selected as one of the 20 best examples of the impact of UK research on development See <http://www.ukcds.org.uk> the global impact of uk research for further details

Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2017-08-17 This book is a pioneering study of Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo a Zimbabwean nationalist whose crucial role in the country's anti colonial struggle has largely gone unrecognized These essays trace his early influence on Zimbabwean nationalism in the late 1950s and his leadership in the armed liberation movement and postcolonial national building processes as well as his denigration by the winners of the 1980 elections Mugabe's Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front The Nkomo that emerges is complex and contested the embodiment of Zimbabwe's tortured trajectory from colony to independent postcolonial state This is an essential corrective to the standard history of twentieth century Zimbabwe and an invaluable resource for scholars of African nationalist liberation movements and nation building

The Top Books of the Year Zimsec November 2014 Economics Paper2 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
