A History from the Pre-colonial Period to 2008* Brian Raftopoulos, Alois Mlambo, 2009-09-15 Becoming Zimbabwe is the first comprehensive history of Zimbabwe spanning the years from 850 to 2008 In 1997 the then Secretary General of the Zimbabwe Congress of Trade Unions Morgan Tsvangirai expressed the need for a more open and critical process of writing history in Zimbabwe The history of a nation in the making should not be reduced to a selective heroic tradition but should be a tolerant and continuing process of questioning and re examination Becoming Zimbabwe tracks the idea of national belonging and citizenship and explores the nature of state rule the changing contours of the political economy and the regional and international dimensions of the country s history In their Introduction Brian Raftopoulos and Alois Mlambo enlarge on these themes and Gerald Mazarire s opening chapter sets the pre colonial background Sabelo Ndlovu tracks the history up to WW11 and Alois Mlambo reviews developments in the settler economy and the emergence of nationalism leading to UDI in 1965 The politics and economics of the UDI period and the subsequent war of liberation are covered by Joesph Mtisi Munyaradzi Nyakudya and Teresa Barnes After independence in 1980 Zimbabwe enjoyed a period of buoyancy and hope James Muzondidya s chapter details the transition from buoyancy to crisis and Brian Raftopoulos concludes the book with an analysis of the decade long crisis and the global political agreement which followed Language Policies and Educational Practices Saraswati Saini, 2025-01-03 Language Policies and Educational Practices explores the critical role of language policies in education systems Language is a fundamental tool for communication shaping our thoughts and interactions This book examines how language policies determine the medium of instruction at various educational levels focusing on the practicalities and challenges of these policies We highlight the importance of local languages in contributing to a country s social political and economic development emphasizing their vital role in education Using case studies we analyze how local language policies are implemented by teachers the challenges they face and practical solutions to these challenges The book also discusses the need for refresher courses for teachers and training for translators From the 1960s

the federal government encouraged and sometimes mandated the use of non English languages in education This book covers significant legislative milestones such as the Bilingual Education Act of 1968 the Native American Languages Act of 1990 and other federal programs promoting language diversity and literacy Vowel Epenthesis in Loanword Adaptation Christian Uffmann,2012-02-14 While it is commonly assumed that languages epenthesize context free default vowels this book shows that in loanword adaptation several strategies are found which interact intricately Large loanword corpora in Shona Sranan Samoan and Kinyarwanda are analyzed statistically and the patterns are modeled in a version of Optimality Theory which introduces constraints on autosegmental representations The focus of this book is on English loans in Shona providing an in depth empirical and formal analysis of epenthesis in this language The analysis of additional languages allows for solid typological generalizations In addition a diachronic study of epenthesis in Sranan provides insight into how insertion patterns develop historically In all languages analyzed default epenthesis exists alongside vowel harmony and spreading from adjacent consonants While different languages prefer different strategies these strategies are subject to the same set of constraints however In spreading feature markedness plays an important role alongside sonority We suggest universal markedness scales which combine with constraints on autosegmental configurations to model the patterns found in individual languages and at the same time to constrain the range of possible crosslinguistic variation Family And Religious Studies A-Level (ZIMSEC) Past Exam Questions and Model Answers David Chitate,2024-06-06 This book offers the ultimate collection of questions and model answers for ZIMSEC A Level exams Inside you ll find detailed syllabus review notes practice exercises and invaluable insights from examiners including tips and common mistakes to avoid With dedicated use of this resource success is assured making a Grade A highly attainable Christians and Chiefs in Zimbabwe David Maxwell,2019-08-06 No detailed description available for Christians and Chiefs in Zimbabwe Regional Integration and Migration in Africa Vusi Gumede,Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba,Serges Djyouyou Kamga,2020-06-02 This comparative book debates migration and regional integration in the two regional economic blocs namely the Southern African Development Community SADC and the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS The book takes a historical and nuanced citizenship approach to integration by analysing regional integration from the perspective of non state actors and how they negotiate various structures and institutions in their pursuit for life and livelihood in a contemporary context marked by mobility and economic fragmentation Multilingual Universities in South Africa Liesel Hibbert,Christa van der Walt,2014-04-16 Focusing on the use of African languages in higher education this book showcases South African higher education practitioners attempts to promote a multilingual ethos in their classes It is a first time overview of multilingual teaching and learning strategies that have been tried and tested in a number of higher education institutions in South Africa Despite language in education policies that extol the virtues of multilingualism practice remains oriented towards English only learning and teaching In the multilingual contexts of local campuses this book shows how students and lecturers attempt to understand their multiple identities and use the available languages to create multilingual learning environments The Messianic Feeding of the Masses Francis Machingura, 2012 The Writing of East and Central Africa G. D. Killam, 1984 Zimbabwe National Bibliography, 1997 Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao, Esther Mavengano, 2024-06-17

Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe Reflecting on Shona Xitsonga Sotho Xhosa Tjwao Nambya IsiNdebele Nyanja Tshivenda English and Braille the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures language use and language ideologies across the country The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and in the process poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages The authors offerings range across subjects as diverse as music linguistic innovation education human rights literature language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility migration cultural plurality and globalisation this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature linguistics communication policy and politics

Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha, Ngoni Makuvaza, 2017-04-17 What have postcolonial Sub Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs on education What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub region Re thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people To that end the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub Saharan African region Given the objectives and themes of this book it is intended for academic scholars undergraduate and graduate students human rights scholars curriculum developers college and university academics teachers education policy makers international organisations and local and international non governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development Lamine Diallo Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier

University Canada The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub Saharan Africa with reference to a postcolonial critique and the Millennium Development Goals framework on education in Africa Michael Tonderai Kariwo PhD Instructor and Research Fellow University of Alberta Canada African Folklore Philip M. Peek,Kwesi Yankah,2004-03-01 Written by an international team of experts this is the first work of its kind to offer comprehensive coverage of folklore throughout the African continent Over 300 entries provide in depth examinations of individual African countries ethnic groups religious practices artistic genres and numerous other concepts related to folklore Featuring original field photographs a comprehensive index and thorough cross references African Folklore An Encyclopedia is an indispensable resource for any library s folklore or African studies collection Also includes seven maps State Politics in Zimbabwe Jeffrey Herbst,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy African Pentecostalism, the Bible, and Cultural Resilience Biri, Kudzai,2020-04-30 This volume based on a PhD thesis submitted to the University of Zimbabwe investigates the resilience of Shona religion and culture among ZAOGA Pentecostal Christians Whereas the Pentecostal ideology suggests that old things have passed away it appears that old things continue to have high significance for the new The book demonstrates how belief in avenging spirits witches and witchcraft value of words spoken prior to death the role status and significance of women belief in unnatural events liturgy and salvation have remained relevant to the lives of ZAOGA Shona converts The patterns of continuity discontinuity extension collaboration contradiction re interpretation and rejection between Shona traditional religion and culture and ZAOGA are explored challenging the framing of African Pentecostalism as a mere imitation and parroting of US theology The conclusion is that while ZAOGA self consciously presents itself as a sophisticated trans national and progressive Pentecostal movement members continue to wrestle with Shona indigenous beliefs and practices An African womanist framework is adapted to challenge ZAOGA to promote the well being of women
