The Routledge International Handbook on Decolonizing Justice Chris Cunneen, Antje Deckert, Amanda Porter, Juan Tauri, Robert Webb, 2023-07-03. The Routledge International Handbook on Decolonizing Justice focuses on the growing worldwide movement aimed at decolonizing state policies and practices and various disciplinary knowledges including criminology, social work and law. The collection of original chapters brings together cutting edge politically engaged work from a diverse group of writers who take as a starting point an analysis founded in a decolonizing, decolonial and/or Indigenous standpoint. Centering the perspectives of Black First Nations and other racialized and minoritized peoples, the book makes an internationally significant contribution to the literature. The chapters include analyses of specific decolonization policies and interventions instigated by communities to enhance jurisdictional self-determination, theoretical approaches to decolonization, the importance of research and research ethics as a key foundation of the decolonization process, crucial contemporary issues including deaths in custody, state crime, reparations and transitional justice, and critical analysis of key institutions of control including police, courts, corrections, child protection systems and other forms of carcerality. The handbook is divided into five sections which reflect the breadth of the decolonizing literature: Why decolonization; From the personal to the global; State terror and violence; Abolishing the carceral; Transforming and decolonizing justice; Disrupting epistemic violence. This book offers a comprehensive and timely resource for activists, students, academics and those with an interest in Indigenous studies, decolonial and post colonial studies, criminal legal institutions and criminology. It provides critical commentary and analyses of the major issues for enhancing social justice internationally. A Balancing Act Ndlovu, Mary, 2016-12-13. Zimbabwean independence in 1980 demanded a thorough revision of the way in which the law was provided in order to dispense with any form of discrimination based on race or class. The ideals and principles behind this requirement had many practical implications in terms of provision, access, information and education as well as a profound understanding of tradition and customary law. It was these manifold challenges that gave rise to the Legal Resources Foundation. A Balancing Act: A History of the Legal Resources Foundation 1985-2015 examines the impulse, growth, development of an NGO which has steadfastly sought to bring law to the people of Zimbabwe over three turbulent decades. Through a study of its outreach, publication, advocacy and education programmes, the author, Mary Ndlovu, implicitly explores the social, economic and political framework of society and the state that determined the LRF's trajectory. As the renowned jurist Reg Austin writes, 'Examined from the perspective of its ambitious objectives and the range of its activities, this study of the LRF sheds an important light on a vital part of Zimbabwe's national history.' The book is an important addition to the national literature on the role of the non governmental sector Warfare and Tracking in Africa, 1952-1990 Timothy J Stapleton, 2015-10-06 During the decolonization wars in East and Southern Africa tracking became increasingly valuable as a military tactic Drawing on archival research and interviews Stapleton presents a comparative study of the role of tracking in insurgency and counter insurgency across Kenya Zimbabwe and Namibia United States Naval Aviation 1910-2010: Navy and Marine Corps Air Stations and Fields Named for Aviators Mark Llewellyn Evans, Roy A.
