This Other Eden Paul Harding, 2024-01-23 Masterful has much to say to our times Guardian Begs to be read Spectator A luminous thought provoking novel Esi Edugyan author of Washington Black In 1792 formerly enslaved Benjamin Honey and his Irish wife Patience discover an island where they can make a life together More than a century later the Honeys Bokinfo This Other Eden. A Novel Donald John Hall, 1938 Genre and Cinema Brian McIlroy, 2012-08-06 This impressive volume takes a broad critical look at Irish and Irish related cinema through the lens of genre theory and criticism Secondary and related objectives of the book are to cover key genres and sub genres and account for their popularity The result offers new ways of looking at Irish cinema This Other Eden Ben Elton, 2000 Small well appointed future Semi detached If the end of the world is nigh then surely it's only sensible to make alternative arrangements Certainly the Earth has its good points but what most people need is something smaller and more manageable Of course there are those who say that's planetary treason but who cares what the weirdos and terrorists think Not Nathan

All he cares is that his movie gets made and that s there s somebody left to see it In marketing terms the end of the world will be very big Anyone trying to save it should remember that From the Paperback edition Elizabeth and Her Court Kathryn Hinds,2008 Describes daily life in Elizabethan England A Concordance to Shakespeare Andrew Becket,1787 A Special Illumination Rollan McCleary,2017-07-28 Gay spirituality represents a hidden strand in Western thought that was only publically declared from the Gay Liberation of the 1970s Since coming out expressions of gay spirituality have proliferated in both number and diversity Beginning with gay theology within Christianity the phenomenon has now reached as far as Buddhism and neo paganism But so far critical analysis of the movement has been very limited largely because gay spirituality has been treated as a political and social movement arguing for rights and acceptance within religious circles A Special Illumination offers an indepth analysis and argues that gay spirituality should be placed at the heart of religion

Shakespeare's Plants and Gardens: A Dictionary Vivian Thomas,Nicki Faircloth,2014-02-27 Shakespeare lived when knowledge of plants and their uses was a given but also at a time of unique interest in plants and gardens His lifetime saw the beginning of scientific interest in plants the first large scale plant introductions from outside the country since Roman times and the beginning of gardening as a leisure activity Shakespeare s works show that he engaged with this new world to illuminate so many facets of his plays and poems This dictionary offers a complete companion to Shakespeare s references to landscape plants and gardens including both formal and rural settings It covers plants and flowers gardening terms and the activities that Shakespeare included within both cultivated and uncultivated landscapes as well as encompassing garden imagery in relation to politics the state and personal lives Each alphabetical entry offers an definition and overview of the term discussed in its historical context followed by a guided tour of its use in Shakespeare s works and finally an extensive bibliography including primary and secondary sources books and articles Fabricating Lureland Julia Winckler,2021-12-06 Through the analysis of surviving archival traces this book constructs a history of the imagination and memory of the town of Peacehaven Built as a speculative development atop iconic chalk cliffs on the Sussex Coast and marketed as a garden city by the sea the estate quickly attracted adverse publicity Influential voices such as the Bloomsbury group s Virginia and Leonard Woolf architect and writer Clough Williams Ellis and the Campaign for the Protection of Rural England soon began to criticise it as a blot on the rolling pastoral downland Instead of reading and appraising Peacehaven s story in a polarized way this book breaks new ground by critically interpreting visual representations and commissioned photographs of the Estate and re evaluating propositions from its inception which aspired to secure improved public health and home ownership in direct response to the negative impact of industrialization and WWI Focusing on the interwar period and tracing mutating agendas the book investigates contested marketing and construction narratives through Histoire Crois e methodology and its intercrossings with memory and the imagination By combining visual and creative research methods with oral history multi layered narratives of place come into focus The study tracks the visual programme of the developer s in house magazine

Peacehaven Post alongside previously underexplored blueprints photographs postcards and promotional guidebooks and considers the garden city narrative as a form of social Utopia Garden city ideals are once again evoked in debates as a potential solution to the ongoing national housing shortage giving this research additional urgency as new large scale redevelopment erases many of the few and fast disappearing original landmarks Women Screenwriters Jill Neldes, July Selbo, 2015-09-29 Women Screenwriters is a study of more than 300 female writers from 60 nations from the first film scenarios produced in 1986 to the present day Divided into six sections by continent the entries give an overview of the history of women screenwriters in each country as well as individual biographies of its most influential The Unheard Prayer Joseph Sterrett, 2012-07-26 Repeatedly Shakespeare dramatizes one who prays when no one is listening interested or even there This study reads the scenario parallel to early modern anxieties surrounding prayer itself suggesting a vision of religious syncretism Shakespeare imagines for his world The Myth of an Irish Cinema Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2009-01-19 For the past seventy years the discipline of film studies has widely invoked the term national cinema Such a concept suggests a unified identity with distinct cultural narratives As the current debate over the meaning of nation and nationalism has made thoughtful readers question the term its application to the field of film studies has become the subject of recent interrogation In The Myth of an Irish Cinema Michael Patrick Gillespie presents a groundbreaking challenge to the traditional view of filmmaking contesting the existence of an Irish national cinema Given the social economic and cultural complexity of contemporary Irish identity Gillespie argues filmmakers can no longer present Irishness as a monolithic entity The book is arranged thematically with chapters exploring cinematic representation of the middle class urban life rural life religion and politics Offering close readings of Irish themed films Gillespie identifies a variety of interpretative approaches based on the diverse elements that define national character Covering a wide range of films from John Ford's The Quiet Man and Kirk Jones's Waking Ned Devine to Bob Quinn's controversial Budawanny and The Bishop's Story The Myth of an Irish Cinema signals a paradigm shift in the field of film studies and promises to reinvigorate dialogue on the subject of national cinema The New Grant White Shakespeare: Richard II ; Henry IV, Part First William Shakespeare, 1912 Madeleva Gail Porter Mandell, 1997-07-10 Before her death in 1964 Madeleva Wolff CSC Congregation of the Holy Cross was recognized as one of American Catholicism's most extraordinary women Known as an educator who founded the School of Sacred Theology the first and for more than a decade the only institution to offer graduate degrees in theology to women Madeleva was also renowned as a scholar mystical poet and the author of more than twenty books Educated at Berkeley and Oxford she participated in the Catholic Revival of the early part of the twentieth century and established a center of Christian culture and educational innovation at Saint Mary's College Notre Dame where she was president for twenty seven years Her friendships with C S Lewis Thomas Merton Jacques Maritain Charles Du Bos and Clare Boothe Luce among others put her in touch with a wide range of Christian intellectuals As a spokeswoman for the education

The Island Nicholas Jenkins,2024-06-11 Nicholas Jenkins explores war love and politics in the early works of W H Auden one of the twentieth century's most controversial and moving poets Auden's poems embraced both haunted meditations on World War I and lyrical visions of English national identity until in the mid 1930s he lost faith in the artistic potential of such myths The Faith of William Shakespeare Graham Holderness,2016-11-18 William Shakespeare stills stands head and shoulders above any other author in the English language a position that is unlikely ever to change Yet it is often said that we know very little about him and that applies as much to what he believed as it does to the rest of his biography Or does it In this authoritative new study Graham Holderness takes us through the context of Shakespeare's life times of religious and political turmoil and looks at what we do know of Shakespeare the Anglican But then he goes beyond that and mines the plays themselves not just for the words of the characters but for the concepts themes and language which Shakespeare was himself steeped in the language of the Bible and the Book of Common Prayer Considering particularly such plays as Richard II Henry V The Merchant of Venice Measure for Measure Hamlet Othello The Tempest and The Winter's Tale Holderness shows how the ideas of Catholicism come up against those of Luther and Calvin how Christianity was woven deep into Shakespeare's psyche and how he brought it again and again to his art
