'HE NEVER EXPECTED MUCH' BY THOMAS HARDY

'you
have been
with me'

STORY SUMMARY

That, 'Wend', you have I gazed up on me, on the whole you have proved to be what you said you were. Ever since I was a child, when I used to be on the grass and watch the sky, I didn't expect life to always be fair. I saw then you said and have continued to say, in that mysterious voice that comes out from the clouds and falls, "Many have loved you desperately, many with a kind love, while some have shown hate towards you until their dying days. I don't promise too much child, just life's usual mishaps and stuff". You said the same thing to other children like me. Credit to you, they were wise words! And it was a warning that I took note of, and it meant that I could manage the difficulties that each year of my life brought to me.
