Three Skeleton Key by George G. Toudouze

LITERARY FOCUS: SUSPENSE AND FORESHADOWING

A “page turner” is an exciting book; you’re so eager to find out what happens that you read page after page, finding it hard to put the book down. One key ingredient in page turners is suspense—the feeling of uncertainty that propels you to keep reading. To create suspense, writers may create an eerie setting or withhold information from readers to keep you guessing.

To build suspense, writers sometimes plant clues in their stories. These clues hint at what might happen later. The use of such clues or hints is called foreshadowing.

READING SKILLS: MAKING PREDICTIONS

Which of the following types of predictions have you made recently: the outcome of a baseball game? which of your classmates will become class president? what inventions will come about over the next few years? Making predictions is part of participating in life. Likewise, you participate more fully in a story when you make predictions about it. To make predictions when you read:

- Pay attention to what the narrator tells you about story characters and their situations.
- Make predictions, or guesses, about what will happen.
- Read on to find out if your predictions were on target.

SKILLS FOCUS
