Sherwin,1997-04-24 For hundreds of years Poland served as the epicenter of Jewish life As a result of the Holocaust though Poland has become a Jewish Atlantis Yet the majority of Jews in the world today have their genealogical roots in the historical lands of Poland In this book Sherwin demonstrates how the unprecedented works of intellect and spirit produced during the Jewish Golden Age in Poland can provide contemporary Jews with the spiritual and intellectual resources required to ensure Jewish continuity in the present and future Sherwin introduces us to the vast range of mystical speculation evocative stories talmudic dialectics theological ideas and social realities that were muted by the destruction of Polish Jewry during the Holocaust Sherwin critiques the tendency among contemporary Jews to disregard the precious legacy bequeathed by Polish Jewry and presents a plan for re creating Jewish life after the Holocaust that draws from the wisdom of the spiritual magnates and from the communal experience that characterized Jewish life in Poland Sherwin concludes with a controversial proposal for the future of Polish Jewish relations

How Healthy Are We? Orville Gilbert Brim,Carol D. Ryff,Ronald C. Kessler,2019-06-25 Childhood adolescence even the twilight years have been extensively researched and documented But the vast terrain known as midlife the longest segment of the life course has remained uncharted How physically and psychologically healthy are Americans at midlife And why do some experience greater well being than others The MacArthur Foundation addressed these questions head on by funding a landmark study known as Midlife in the U S or MIDUS For the first time in a single study researchers were able to integrate epidemiological sociological and psychological assessments as well as innovative new measures to evaluate how work and family life influence each other How Healthy Are We presents the key findings from the survey in three sections physical health quality of life and psychological well being and the contexts family work of the midlife The topics covered by almost forty scholars in a wide variety of fields are vast including everything from how health and well being vary with socioeconomic standing gender race or region of the country to how middle aged people differ from younger or older adults in their emotional experience and quality of life This health the study measures not only health the absence of illness but also reports on the presence of wellness in middle aged Americans The culmination of a decade and a half of research by leading scholars How Healthy Are We will dramatically alter the way we think about health in middle age and the factors that influence it Researchers policymakers and others concerned about the quality of midlife in contemporary America will welcome its insights Having a good life means having good relationships with others to almost 70% of those surveyed Less than 40% mentioned their careers Reports of disruptive daily stressors vary by age with young adults and those in midlife experiencing more than those in later adulthood Men have higher assessments of their physical and mental health than woman until the age of 60

From Here To Home Marie Bostwick, 2016-04-01 A successful quilter worries about a new rival and a newly independent son in a novel by the New York Times bestselling author of Between Heaven and Texas Mary Dell Templeton prefers the quiet quirky charms of Too Much Texas to the bright lights of Dallas any day She s relieved to be moving back to her hometown and bringing her cable TV show Quintessential Quilting with her There are just a couple of wrinkles in her plan Her son Howard who is her talented co host and color consultant and happens to have Down syndrome wants to stay in Dallas and become more independent Meanwhile Mary Dell s new boss hopes to attract a different demographic by bringing in a younger co host What Holly Silva knows about quilting wouldn t fill a thimble but she s smart and ambitious Her career hinges on outshining the formidable Mary Dell in order to earn her own show Yet as Holly adapts to small town living and begins a new romance and Mary Dell considers rekindling an old one the two find unlikely kinship For as Mary Dell knows the women of Too Much have a knack for untangling the knottiest problems when they work together And sometimes the pattern for happiness is as simple and surprising as it is beautiful Marie Bostwick is my go to author always powerful inspiring and uplifting Robyn Carr 1 New York Times bestselling author A brilliant storyteller Las Vegas Review Journal Still Can't Help Myself Richard T. Vander Vaart, 2017-07-05 This the second book in Richard T

VanderVaart s series Following the Shepherd in Real Life The stories you read here are collected from ministry experiences family times and every day incidents Each of the thirty short stories includes a devotion which will help readers reflect on their walk with God Life does not turn out as we plan it so we can either weep or learn to laugh I am hoping you get a chance to laugh often as you read these stories and perhaps you ll also have the opportunity to pause once and consider your own circumstances in a new way These stories represent a triumph of memory and the great gift of God's healing work In early January 2009 Richard was involved in a car accident that robbed many precious memories Thanks be to God that in recent years some memories have returned I have recorded these stories realizing memory is a precious gift and not necessarily one we can always keep There is a photograph included with each day's story and devotional reading These pictures have been taken by Marianne VanderSpek She has a unique flair for capturing a thought or moment from each day and translating it into a black and white image

Information Design Robert Jacobson, 2000-08-25 The contributors to this book are both cautionary and hopeful as they offer visions of how information design can be practiced diligently and ethically for the benefit of information consumers as well as producers Information design is the newest of the design disciplines As a sign of our times when the crafting of messages and meaning is so central to our lives information design is not only important it is essential Contemporary information designers seek to edify more than to persuade to exchange more than to foist upon With ever more powerful technologies of communication we have learned that the issuer of designed information is as likely as the intended recipient to be changed by it for better or worse The contributors to this book are both cautionary and hopeful as they offer visions of how information design can be practiced diligently and ethically for the benefit of information consumers as well as producers They present various methods that seem to work such as sense making and way finding They make recommendations and serve as guides to a still young but extraordinarily pervasive and persuasive field Contributors Elizabeth Andersen Judy Anderson Simon Birrell Mike Cooley Brenda Dervin Jim Gasperini Yvonne M Hansen Steve Holtzman Robert E Horn Robert Jacobson John Krygier Sheryl Macy Romedi Passini Jef Raskin Chandler Screven Nathan Shedroff Hal Thwaites Roger Whitehouse

Trifocals Backward Irma Grams Fisher, 2015-01 Through My Trifocals Backward is a journey in time through a 93 year old set of eyes and sensibilities Told in an often whimsical voice starting with her actual birth experience the author expounds on her storybook childhood a rebellious adolescence the realities of war a fated marriage and motherhood Through narrative and prose the author eloquently conveys her awareness of the human condition speaking to all parts of the whole from frivolity and wit to contemplative soberness She recounts a myriad of stories some will turn a grin with their lightheartedness while others will undoubtedly evoke tears but all paint a vivid picture of life lived to its fullest While reading this deeply engaging memoir you will come to know the woman full of humor who chooses to laugh rather than brood over the irreversible condition known as aging Her motto is that life offers a multitude of choices its paths veering in all directions The route taken is up to you Optometry in the State of Washington Jesse Wolff, 1967 The Dispensing Optician ,
