Thunder On The Tundra Football Above The Arctic Circle:

Thunder on the Tundra Lew Freedman, 2011-04-01 This is the moving story of high school students in an isolated village at the top of Alaska starting a football team Against long odds the Whalers had to practice and play in extreme conditions and travel hundreds of miles from home when they went on the road flying for each game They ended their first season victorious while maintaining their subsistence hunter gather culture

Yukon Quest Lew Freedman, 2010 Over beer and hamburgers at the Two Rivers Lodge near Fairbanks Alaska a small group of mushers conceived a gutsy idea for a new sled dog race that would be more challenging than any other marathon race in the Far North In 1984 mushers organized the Yukon Quest International Sled Dog Race between Fairbanks and Whitehorse Yukon Territory Soon mushers adopted an unofficial race motto Survive first race second The Quest trail boasts fewer checkpoints longer wilderness runs and more campouts The trail crosses three mountain passes including the dreaded 3 685 foot Eagle Summit a killer of mushers dreams Outdoor survival skills and self reliance are on a par with commercial sponsorships and high tech sleds and mushing gear Yukon Quest is an exciting inspirational story full of bigger than life characters told by Lew Freedman best selling author of eight books about sled dog racing Includes a list of race champions names of all finishers and 16 pages of photos School Library Journal

suitable field for the Barrow Whalers Not fully understanding the many obstacles both financially and logistically that would line the path ahead Cathy charged forward with a determined spirit and a heart for both the football team and the greater community of Barrow She spearheaded a campaign that raised more than half a million dollars through people all around the country rallying around one common goal changing the lives of young men through football This is not just the story of how the Barrow Whalers became the first high school above the Arctic Circle to have a football program This is the story of how we are sometimes called to the most unlikely of causes and to believe in something a little bit bigger changing our own lives and the lives of others for the better in the most unexpected of ways Shake Down the Thunder Murray Sperber, 1995
