To Do Justice Randall C. Jimerson, 2022-09-06 The biography A Civil Rights Activist from Montgomery to Zambia The Career of Reverend Robert E Hughes by Randall C Jimerson examines the inter racial nature of civil rights and liberation movements in Alabama Southern Rhodesia and Zambia and connects them on a global scale through the life and career of Reverend Robert E Hughes

Still Counting Marilyn Waring, 2018-12-06 Underneath the numbers a philosophical judgement is always being made based on values not facts Thirty years ago Marilyn Waring s groundbreaking book Counting for Nothing was released Waring explained through meticulous economic analysis how the success of the global economy rests on women s unpaid work Counting for Nothing became a phenomenon it was read and discussed around the world and even made into a film Today many people hope that the shift to a wellbeing approach moving beyond narrow economic indicators when assessing New Zealand s progress will mean women s work is finally valued fairly But what does Marilyn Waring make of it This short book provides an essential assessment of wellbeing economics from a leading feminist scholar

Bridging the Academia Industry Divide Wilson R. Nyemba, Charles Mbohwa, Keith F. Carter, 2021-05-12 This book is the result of years of research following a realization of the mismatch of engineering skills produced by universities and those that industry required based on the situation in Sub Saharan Africa equally applicable to other regions in Africa and indeed worldwide The book is meant to assist engineering academics and engineers in industry to build capacity and cope with the dynamic trends in technology brought on by the 4th Industrial Revolution and to prepare for the 5th Industrial Revolution an era predicted to be dominated by critical and system thinkers with creative and innovative skills as basic necessities The book is also useful for policy making researchers in academia industrial and public sector researchers and implementers in governments that provide required funding for the development of human resources and skills The book primarily consists of the novel research and innovation approaches of modelling and building systems thinking sub models which were ultimately integrated into the Universal Systems Thinking UST model aimed at improving the quality of engineers and engineering practice The initiatives in this book include strategies for bridging the gap between industry and academia through systems thinking research The book provides information on how to model simulate adjust and implement integrated systems thinking approaches to engineering education and training for capacity building and sustainability The book also covers approaches to address research gaps and mismatch of skills while capitalizing on the successes of several projects carried out and supported by the Royal Academy of Engineering over the years

China's World Kerry Brown, 2017-08-30 In the next decade China s actions on the world stage will affect us all A new superpower with the largest population and GDP on the globe there are now fears that China is becoming more assertive Here award winning China expert Kerry Brown guides us through China s foreign policy from its skirmishes with US Navy destroyers in the South China Sea to its arguments with Japan over the Senkaku Diaoyu Islands and its increased displays of military prowess including huge investments in cyber warfare Brown also assesses China's extraordinary plan to create a New Silk Road across Central Asia one of the biggest infrastructure project in modern history In doing so he seeks to answer a simple question what does China want The answer lies in the unique way China thinks about the world A comprehensive analysis by one of the world's most recognised and respected authorities and based upon unparalleled research into Chinese leaders their beliefs and their instincts China's World is an essential read for the Western world
