Zimsec 2014 November Economics Paper :

Zimbabwe International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2015-10-08 This paper discusses Zimbabwe s Second Review of the Staff Monitored Program The program is on track Four of the five quantitative targets for end June 2015 and all the structural benchmarks for the second review were met Although a recently contracted 200 million nonconcessional loan breached the quantitative target on nonconcessional borrowing it avoided the accumulation of additional external arrears The IMF staff welcomes the authorities intentions to continue seeking financing through grants and loans that are as concessional as possible and to limit contracting non concessional loans to within the ceiling set under the program and to prioritize investment that would eventually raise Zimbabwe s capacity to repay African Democratic Citizenship Education Revisited Yusef Waghid,Nuraan Davids,2017-11-28 This edited collection explores how democratic citizenship education manifests across the African continent A recognition of rights and responsibilities coupled with an emphasis on deliberative engagement among citizens while not uniquely African provides ample evidence that the concept can most appropriately be realised in relation to its connectedness with experiences of people living on the continent Focussing on a diverse collection of voices the editors and authors examine countries that have an overwhelming allegiance to democratic citizenship education In doing so they acknowledge that this concept enveloped by a certain Africanness has the potential to manifest in practices across the African continent By highlighting the success of democratic citizenship education the diverse and varied contributions from across this vast continent address the malaise in its implementation in countries where autocratic rule prevails This pioneering volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in education policy philosophy of education and global citizenship initiatives Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gorden Moyo,Kirk Helliker,2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe s regime The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa s Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa s Second Republic The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes Economic Dualism in Zimbabwe Daniel B. Ndlela, 2019-05-03 This book identifies the root causes of income inequality in underdeveloped economies and proposes new solutions for structural reform in economies that have long neglected and exploited working people. It focuses on the case of Zimbabwe, a classic example of an African post-colonial state continuing with dualistic economic structures while simultaneously laying the blame for the initiation of this form of underdevelopment with colonialism. The book explores the colonial roots of economic dualism in which traditional sectors run alongside newer forms of wage employment and suggests ways for Zimbabwe to move beyond the ingrained inequalities and asymmetries in production and organisation that it generates. Using a combination of theoretical and empirical approaches, Economic Dualism in Zimbabwe demonstrates how economic dualism can be eliminated through structural transformation of the traditional agricultural sector and reallocation of labour across sectors. The author comprehensively discusses the origins of dualism in Zimbabwe, how it developed in land, labour, credit and financial markets, who stands to gain and lose from it, and ultimately what reforms are needed to eliminate dualism from the economic system. The book aims to complement efforts made by both North and South to transform this structurally embedded cause of underdevelopment and seeks to motivate change in the collective development agenda mindset. This book will be of interest to graduate level students, scholars, researchers, and policy practitioners in the fields of Development Studies, Economics, Agricultural Policy, Labour Policy, Economic Planning, and African Studies.

Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe, Zambia, and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century. These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts. All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time, and the formation of the ill-fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid-twentieth century. This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links. After Federation, the economic realities of industry, transport, and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected. Yet despite these connected pasts, comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi, Zambia, and Zimbabwe, and how these change over time, is rare. This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries. The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison, allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term. The book provides data on population growth and change, industrial and occupational structure, and the various shifts in what the economically active population did. It will be useful for historians, economists, development studies scholars, and non-governmental organisations working on twentieth-century and contemporary southern Africa.

Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector s potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research

Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards Uchenna, Efobi,Nnadi, Matthias,Tanna, Sailesh,Iyoha, Francis,2016-03-08 International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS are internationally recognized financial reporting guidelines regulated by the International

Accounting Standards Board IASB to ensure that uniformity exists in the global financial system In addition to regulating financial reporting the adoption of IRFS has been shown to impact the flow of foreign capital and trade Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards focuses on the consequences and determinants of the adoption of the International Financial Reporting Standard IFRS which has remained a top issue in International Accounting This timely publication brings to the forefront issues related to the political and economic influences and impacts of IFRS in addition to providing a platform for further research in this area Policy makers academics researchers graduate level students and professionals across the fields of management economics finance international relations and political science will find this publication pertinent to furthering their understanding of financial reporting at the global level Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar,2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa s major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa s most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism Christian Theological Education and the Response to the Crisis in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube,Gift Masengwe,2025-10-02 The book offers an incisive examination of the governing philosophy of the Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front ZANU PF referred to as Zanupfism characterizing it as marked by callousness and malevolence towards dissenting voices from civil society and opposition factions This pernicious application of power extends beyond mere verbal aggression to encompass militaristic actions engendering a profound generational crisis within Zimbabwe The contributors explore the compelling juxtaposition between President Emmerson Mnangagwa and the biblical Nebuchadnezzar II a ruler notorious for his autocratic reign and expansive ambitions Further critically scrutinizing the complicity of neo Pentecostal prophets in the book reveals how these religious figures promote an esoteric understanding of the divine diverging from a theology rooted in justice thereby enabling the oppressive regime s practices This critique underscores the imperative for prophets to recalibrate their theological perspectives urging them to move beyond magical interpretations of faith toward an authentic engagement with a personal God who champions justice The book further encompasses the complex interplay of political and religious narratives examining how church leaders either bolster or undermine Mnangagwa s political ideology highlighting the tendency among certain religious factions to deify political authority ultimately exacerbating societal inequities In advocating for a transformative theological discourse in

Zimbabwe the book asserts that religious narratives must serve as instruments for fostering democracy social justice and equity rather than sustaining a status quo that entrenches authoritarian governance The necessity for unified principled resistance grounded in the collective agency of the populace emerges as a salient theme in the quest for meaningful political and social reform

The Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang, 2021-10-18 In The Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang provides a conceptual analysis of the human right to development with a decolonial critique of the requirement to have recourse to development cooperation as a mechanism for its realisation In his argumentation the setbacks to development in Africa are not necessarily caused by the absence of development assistance but principally as a result of the lack of an operational model to steer the processes for development towards the highest attainable standard of living for the peoples of Africa Basing on the decolonial and capability theories he posits for a shift in development thinking from dependence on development assistance to an alternative model suited to Africa which he defines as the right to development governance

Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union

Robert Mugabe Sue Onslow, Martin Plaut, 2018-03-05 Zimbabwe's President Robert Mugabe sharply divides opinion and embodies the contradictions of his country's history and political culture As a symbol of African liberation and a stalwart opponent of white rule he was respected and revered by many This heroic status contrasted sharply in the eyes of his rivals and victims with repeated cycles of gross human rights violations Mugabe presided over the destruction of a vibrant society capital flight and mass emigration precipitated by the policies of his government resulting in his demonic image in Western media This timely biography addresses the coup led by some of Mugabe s closest associates that forced his resignation after thirty seven years in power Sue Onslow and Martin Plaut explain Mugabe s formative experiences as a child and young man his role as an admired Afro nationalist leader in the struggle against white settler rule and his evolution into a political manipulator and survivalist They also address the emergence of political opposition to his leadership and the uneasy period of coalition government Ultimately they reveal the complexity of the man who stamped his personality on Zimbabwe s first four decades of independence

Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra

Chitando,2020-04-03 This book illustrates how religion and ideology were used by Robert Mugabe to ward off opposition within his own party in Zimbabwe and from the West An interdisciplinary line up of contributors argue that Mugabe used a calculated narrative of deification presenting himself as a divine figure who had the task of delivering land freedom and confidence to black people across the world to remain in power in Zimbabwe The chapters highlight the appropriation and deployment of religious themes in Mugabe s domestic and international politics reflect on the contestation around the deification of Mugabe in Zimbabwean politics across different forms of religious expression including African Traditional Religions and various strands of Christianity and initiate further reflections on the interface between religion and politics in Africa and globally Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe will be of interest to scholars of religion and politics Southern Africa and African politics

Zimbabwe's International Relations Julia Gallagher,2017-06-29

Zimbabwe is a state that has undergone significant ruptures in its domestic and international politics in recent years This book explores how Zimbabwean citizens have under difficult circumstances reconstructed ideas of their state by imagining the wider world Unlike other work on international relations which tends to focus on the state level this book is based on the accounts of ordinary people Drawing on interviews with more than two hundred Zimbabweans collected over three years Gallagher explores how citizens draw on emotional responses to the international to find and construct different others While this unique and compelling read will appeal to those researching Zimbabwe Gallagher s wider conclusions will interest those studying and advancing the broader theoretical debates of international relations

Migration, Cross-Border Trade and Development in Africa

Christopher Changwe Nshimbi,Inocent Moyo,2017-10-12 Based on migration dynamics in the Southern African Development Community SADC region this edited volume focuses on the activities of grassroots and informal non state actors The authors explore cross border economic activities migration governance issues the regional integration project of the SADC and implications for sustainable development in Africa Examining the apparent success of immigrant entrepreneurs operating in cities of economically depressed countries such as Zimbabwe it also discusses the role of local authorities in managing migration to achieve development Thus the book is centred on human mobility the building of cohesive communities between immigrants and indigenous people the informal economic activities of cross border traders and undocumented migrants and regional integration providing a multidisciplinary and rich source of knowledge for scholars interested in African politics labour migration and economy State Capacity, Economic Control, and Authoritarian Elections Merete Seeberg, 2018-03-09 Although the phenomenon of authoritarian elections has been a focal point for the literature on authoritarian institutions for more than a decade our understanding of the effect of authoritarian elections is still limited Combining evidence from cross national studies with studies on selected cases relying on recent field work this book suggests a solution to the paradox of authoritarian elections Rather than focusing on authoritarian elections as a uniform phenomenon it focuses on the differing conditions under which authoritarian elections occur It demonstrates that the capacities available to authoritarian rulers shape the effect of elections and high levels of state capacity and control over the economy increase the probability that authoritarian multi party elections will stabilize the regime Where these capacities are limited the regime is more likely to succumb in the face of elections The findings imply that although multi party competition and state strength may be important prerequisites for democracy they can under some circumstances obstruct democratization by preventing the demise of dictatorships This text will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners of democratization and to those who study autocracy and electoral authoritarianism as well as comparative politics more broadly Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Victor Warikandwa, Artwell Nhemachena, 2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions Facets of Power, 2023-01-10 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the world s largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwa s diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the country s security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds

violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwa s diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the mineral s secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them Facets of Power Richard Saunders, Tinashe Nyamunda, 2016-04-18 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the worlds largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwas diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the countrys security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwas diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the minerals secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them
