Zimsec Commerce Paper 2 June 2014 Marking Scheme:

Intellectual Property and Traditional Knowledge in the Global Economy Teshager W. Dagne, 2014-09-04 Arising from recent developments at the international level many developing countries indigenous peoples and local communities are considering using geographical indications GIs to protect traditional knowledge and to promote trade and overall economic development Despite the considerable enthusiasm over GIs in diverse quarters there is an appreciable lack of research on how far and in what context GIs can be used as a protection model for traditional knowledge based resources This book critically examines the potential uses of geographical indications as models for protecting traditional knowledge based products and resources in national and international intellectual property legal frameworks By analysing the reception towards GIs from developing countries and advocates of development in the various legal and non legal regimes including the World Trade Organization World Intellectual Property Organization and the Convention on Biological Diversity and the Food and Agricultural Organization the book evaluates the development potential of GIs in relation to ensuing changes in international intellectual property law in accommodating traditional knowledge Teshager W Dagne argues for a degree of balance in the approach to the implementation of global intellectual property rights in a manner that gives developing countries an opportunity to protect traditional knowledge based products The book will be of great interest and use to scholars and students of intellectual property law public international law traditional knowledge and global governance

Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism Mingwei Huang, 2024-10-18 In Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism Mingwei Huang traces the development of new forms of racial capitalism in the twenty first century Through fieldwork in one of the China malls that has emerged along Johannesburg s former mining belt Huang identifies everyday relations of power and difference between Chinese entrepreneurs and African migrant workers in these wholesale shops These relations Huang contends replicate and perpetuate global structures of white supremacy anti Blackness capitalism and colonialism even when whiteness is not present Huang argues that this dynamic reflects the sedimented legacies and continued operation of white supremacy and colonialism which have been transformed in the shift of capitalism s center of gravity toward China and the Global South These new forms of racial capitalism and empire layer onto and extend histories of exploitation and racialization in South Africa Taking a palimpsestic approach Huang offers tools for understanding this shift and decentering contemporary Western conceptions of race empire and racial capitalism in the Chinese Century International Books in Print ,1990
