Monopolised World Munyaradzi Mawere,2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa s development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it Dispute Settlement Reports 2018: Volume 10, Pages 5247 to 5864 World Trade

Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe s Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region s troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region s resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along

Marongwe,2019-10-22 Arguably one of the long waited political handover of power globally happened in November 2017 in Zimbabwe when the former and now late 37 year long serving and divisive President Robert Gabriel Mugabe was forced out of power by a combination of forces that were spearheaded by the militarys Operation Restore Legacy Mugabes departure ushered in President Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwas reign This transition has variously been characterised as marking the inauguration of the Second Republic or New Dispensation or as heralding a new Zimbabwe that is Open for Business From the moment of the investiture of President Mnangagwas government anticipations of seismic changes to the order of doing business by both the incoming government and the larger Zimbabwean society in general were extremely high There was an expectation that international cooperation with global partners especially in the West would be restored alongside the reinvigoration of a near comatose domestic economy But did this ever happen This volume interrogates the impact of the introduction of the Mnangagwa administration from November 2017 The book seeks to broadly dissect and troubleshoot issues of continuity and change from Mugabes reign into Mnangagwas Second Republic In doing so the book attempts to respond to the grand question To what extent has Mugabeism that was the hallmark of Mugabes reign continued or discontinued into the Second Republic The volume which comes as a sequel to The end of an era Robert Mugabe and a conflicting legacy is sure to generate interest and responses from students and academics in the fields of History International Studies Political Science Sociology and Social anthropology as well as from practitioners in the human rights transitional justice conflict resolution security studies and diplomatic fields Black and White Agnieszka

Piotrowska,2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and

Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Christine Peta, 2017-10-25 Disabled women represent one of the most marginalised minority groups in the world hence they are largely silent while their sexuality is ignored suppressed forbidden and buried underneath the carpet Until recently most of the Global Northern published literature on the subject of the sexuality of disabled women has predominantly been constructed from hearsay and second hand narratives in studies which draw from the perspectives of parents service providers and advocates without much consultation of the relevant women By facilitating the voice of disabled women in Zimbabwe and illuminating their experiences of sexuality this book hopes to shift the experiences of sexuality of disabled women from the periphery of society to the fore Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe presents original research on an issue that is thus far not found in local research data Whilst addressing the paucity of literature on the subject the book informs policy and practice and enhances the existing body of knowledge by making recommendations towards the development of a disability and sexuality framework that is rooted in the African context This book is of interest to students and scholars of African studies disability studies sociology psychology social work nursing education studies geography women s and gender studies and interdisciplinary studies Additional audiences include a wide range of health social care and educational professionals and practitioners as well donors disabled people s organisations charities government departments NGOs supranational organisations and policy makers

The African Conundrum Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-05-22 The African conundrum is rooted out of the historical philosophical and cultural bastardisation imbalances and inequalities which many post colonial African governments have always sought to address though with varying degrees of success since the 1960s Lamentably this African conundrum is rarely examined in a systematic manner that takes into account the geopolitical milieu of the continent past and present This volume seeks to interrogate and examine the extent of the impact of the geopolitical seesaw which seems poised to tip in favour of the Global North The book grapples with the question on how Africa can wake up from its cavernous intellectual slumber to break away from both material and psychological dependency and achieve a transformative political and socio economic self reinvention and self assertion While the African conundrum is largely a result of historic oppression and a resilient colonial legacy this book urges Africans to rethink their condition in a manner that makes Africa responsible and accountable for its own destiny The book argues that it is through this rethinking that Africa can successfully transcend the logic of post imperial dependency

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies
