Zoo Or Letters Not About Love Victor Shklovsky:

Victor Shklovsky's Zoo, Or Letters Not about Love Marjorie Ann Peech, 1969 Zoo, or Letters Not about Love Viktor Shklovsky, 2024-07-16 While living in exile in Berlin the formidable literary critic Viktor Shklovsky fell in love with Elsa Triolet He fell into the habit of sending Elsa several letters a day a situation she accepted under one condition he was forbidden to write about love Zoo or Letters Not about Love is an epistolary novel born of this constraint and although the brilliant and playful letters contained here cover everything from observations about contemporary German and Russian life to theories of art and literature nonetheless every one of them is indirectly dedicated to the one topic they are all required to avoid their author's own unrequited love On the Theory of Prose Viktor Shklovsky, 2023-11-14 As time has proven Theory of Prose still remains one of the twentieth century's most significant works of literary theory It not only anticipates structuralism and poststructuralism but poses questions about the nature of fiction that are as provocative today as they were in the 1920s Founded on the concept of making strange it lays bare the inner workings of fiction especially the works of Cervantes Tolstoy Sterne Dickens Bely and Rozanov and imparts a new way of seeing of reading and of interacting with the world Modernism and Revolution Victor Erlich, 1994 Victor Erlich an eminent authority on modern Slavic culture takes up this question in Modernism and Revolution a masterful appraisal of Russian literature during its most turbulent years

Deleuze and Futurism Helen Palmer, 2014-08-28 This book is an original exploration of Deleuze's dynamic philosophies of space time and language bringing Deleuze and futurism together for the first time Helen Palmer investigates both the potential for creative novelty and the pitfalls of formalism within both futurist and Deleuzian linguistic practices Through creative and rigorous analyses of Russian and Italian futurist manifestos the futurist aspects of Deleuze's language and thought are drawn out The genre of the futurist manifesto is a literary and linguistic model which can be applied to Deleuze's work not only at times when he writes explicitly in the style of a manifesto but also in his earlier writings such as Difference and Repetition 1968 and The Logic of Sense 1969 The way in which avant garde manifestos often attempt to perform and demand their aims simultaneously and the problems which arise due to this is an operation which can be perceived in Deleuze's writing With a particular focus on Russian zaum the book negotiates the philosophy behind futurist nonsense language and how Deleuze propounds analogous goals in The Logic of Sense This book critically engages with Deleuze's poetics ultimately suggesting that multiple linguistic models operate synecdochically within his philosophy Vladimir Nabokov M. Glynn, 2016-04-30 Glynn provides a new reading of Vladimir Nabokov's work by seeking to challenge the notion that he was a Symbolist writer concerned with a transcendent reality Glynn argues that Nabokov's epistemology was in fact anti Symbolist and that this aligned him with both Bergsonism and Russian Formalism which intellectual systems were themselves hostile to a Symbolist epistemology Symbolism may be seen to devalue material reality by presenting it as a mere adumbration of a higher realm Nabokov however valued the immediate material world and was creatively engaged by the tendency of the deluded mind to efface that reality Viktor Shklovsky's Heritage in Literature, Arts, and Philosophy Slav N. Gratchev, Howard Mancing, 2019-07-01 This book examines the heritage of Victor Shklovsky in a variety of disciplines To achieve this end Slav N Gratchev and Howard Mancing draw upon colleagues from eight different countries across the world the United States Canada Russia England Scotland the Netherlands Norway and China in order to bring the widest variety of points of view on the subject Viktor Shklovsky's Heritage in Literature Arts and Philosophy is more than just another collection of essays of literary criticism the editors invited scholars from different disciplines literature cinematography and philosophy who have dealt with Shklovsky's heritage and saw its practical application in their fields Therefore all of these essays are written in a variety of humanist academic and scholarly styles all engaging and dynamic readers Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus' Patricia A. Krafcik, 2024-06-10 In the midst of a contentious atmosphere of the interwar period the far eastern province of Subcarpathian Rus attracted the personal curiosity and professional attention of Russian ethnographer and theoretician Petr Bogatyrev and Czech journalist writer Ivan Olbracht Both traveled extensively in the region and immersed themselves deeply in the life and culture of the local residents Carpatho Rusyns and Hasidic Jews Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus The Sojourns of Petr Bogatyrev and Ivan Olbracht explores for the first time in English the legacy they bequeathed in their respective work Bogatyrev as an apolitical ethnographic collector and theoretician and Olbracht as a passionately committed Communist whose reports and brilliant stories from the region including Nikola uhaj Brigand and The Sorrowful Eyes of Hannah Karadjic capture a glimpse of a world destined to change radically as a result of the ravages of war Lydia Ginzburg's Prose Emily Van Buskirk, 2016-01-05 The Russian writer Lydia Ginzburg 1902-90 is best known for her Notes from the Leningrad Blockade and for influential critical studies such as On Psychological Prose investigating the problem of literary character in French and Russian novels and memoirs Yet she viewed her most vital work to be the extensive prose fragments composed for the desk drawer in which she analyzed herself and other members of the Russian intelligentsia through seven traumatic decades of Soviet history In this book the first full length English language study of the writer Emily Van Buskirk presents Ginzburg as a figure of previously unrecognized innovation and importance in the literary landscape of the twentieth century Based on a decade's work in Ginzburg's archives the book discusses previously unknown manuscripts and uncovers a wealth of new information about the author's life focusing on Ginzburg's quest for a new kind of writing adequate to her times She writes of universal experiences frustrated love professional failures remorse aging and explores the modern fragmentation of identity in the context of war terror and an oppressive state Searching for a new concept of the self and deeming the psychological novel a beloved academic specialty inadequate to express this concept Ginzburg turned to fragmentary narratives that blur the lines between history autobiography and fiction This full account of Ginzburg's writing career in many genres and emotional registers enables us not only to rethink the experience of Soviet intellectuals but to arrive at a new understanding of writing and witnessing during a horrific century Sonic Wilderness: Wild Vinyl Records Mark Harris, 2021-12-08 Sonic Wilderness accesses the critical value of unusual vinyl records that concern our relationship with nature These wild records reveal unconventional perspectives on the entanglements of human life with animals gardens and plants They form a lyrical unconscious exposing the conventions and ideologies of popular music their warped perspectives and acoustic radioactivity comprising a resistance to enduring social psychological and political conditions A Writer's Diary Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2009-03-17 The essential entries from Dostoevsky's complete Diary called his boldest experiment in literary form are now available in this abridged edition it is a uniquely encyclopedic forum of fictional and nonfictional genres A Writer's Diary began as a column in a literary journal but by 1876 Dostoevsky was able to bring it out as a complete monthly publication with himself as an editor publisher and sole contributor suspending work on The Brothers Karamazov to do so. The Diary's radical format was matched by the extreme range of its contents. In a single frame it incorporated an astonishing variety of material: short stories, humorous sketches, reports on sensational crimes, historical predictions, portraits of famous people, autobiographical pieces, and plans for stories some of which were never written while others appeared later in the Diary itself. A range of authorial and narrative voices and stances and an elaborate scheme of allusions and cross references preserve and present Dostoevsky's conception of his work as a literary whole. Selected from the two volume set, this abridged edition of A Writer's Diary appears in a single paperback volume along with a new condensed introduction by editor Gary Saul Morson.

Special Delivery Linda S. Kauffman, 1992. Though letter writing is almost a lost art, twentieth century writers have mimed the epistolary mode as a means of reevaluating the theme of love. In Special Delivery Linda S. Kauffman places the narrative treatment of love in historical context, showing how politics, economics, and commodity culture have shaped the meaning of desire. Kauffman first considers male writers whose works testing the boundaries of genre and gender imitate love letters: Viktor Shklovsky's Zoo, Vladimir Nabokov's Lolita, Roland Barthes's A Lover's Discourse, and Jacques Derrida's The Post Card. She then turns to three novels by women who are more preoccupied with politics than passion: Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook, Alice Walker's The Color Purple, and Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale. By juxtaposing these women's productions with the men's production of Woman, Special Delivery dismantles the polarities between male and female theory and fiction, high and low culture, male critical theory and feminist literary criticism. Kauffman demonstrates how all seven texts mercilessly expose the ideology of individualism and romantic love; each presents alternate paradigms of desire wrested from Oedipus, grounded in history and politics, giving epistolarity a distinctively postmodern stamp.

Stalin and the Literary Intelligentsia, 1928-39 A. Kemp-Welch, 2016-07-27. Stalin's fascination with writers was fully reciprocated, as the many Odes to Stalin show. During the 1970s a hugely elaborated system was established for the regulation of belles lettres based on institutions, ideas, and individuals. This original study, ten years in preparation, is based on extensive access to Soviet archives. Much new evidence has been uncovered about the inner workings of cultural policy in the Stalin period, and documents by Stalin himself are published for the first time.

Ostrannenie Annie Oever, 2025-10-01. Ostrannenie, making it strange, has become one of the central concepts of modern artistic practice, ranging over movements including Dada, postmodernism, epic theatre, and science fiction, as well as our response to arts. Coined by the Russian Formalist Viktor Shklovsky in 1917, ostrannenie has come to resonate deeply in Film Studies, where it entered into dialogue with the Brechtian concept of Verfremdung, the Freudian concept of the uncanny, and Derrida's concept of différance. Striking, provocative, and incisive, the essays of the distinguished film scholars in this volume recall the range and depth of a concept that since 1917 changed the trajectory of theoretical inquiry.
