and emotional stress are incorporated throughout the course in order to evaluate the ability to lead in chaotic and stressful environments. Some individuals will be pushed close to their failing point but the WOBC is designed to give students an opportunity to display positive leadership qualities in the face of adversity. The WOBC is not a check in the block. It is a course designed to provide students with the learning experiences necessary to effectively transition to service as a Marine Officer. Students who do not successfully complete the course face a variety of administrative actions including repetition of the course, recycle to a six-month lieutenant Basic Officer Course, revocation of appointment or separation from the service. The WOBC curriculum is an academically rigorous provisional infantry and staff planning-based program of instruction (POI) which consists of approximately 935 hours of formal instruction. The POI includes classroom instruction, field exercises, sand table exercises, and discussion groups. Classroom instruction is designed around the flipped classroom model.
