History from Below Brigitta Bernet, Lutz Raphael, Benjamin Zachariah, 2025-07-21 What we know as history from below has long been considered a more democratic form of history writing and research than forms of history that have counted sometimes by default as elite and therefore by implication elitist But history from below also has a tendency towards populism an emphasis on authenticity on voices uncontaminated by elite narratives and a focus on the indigenous Apart from its having a long standing problem of finding sources to give voice to the underrepresented the question as to who can write about and therefore represent the people below and a possible focus in consequence on themes of blood soil and the Volk This volume explores over nine essays and an introductory thematic essay these tensions and dichotomies The purpose is to bring to the foreground a long standing danger of celebrating voices from below perhaps uncritically at times and therefore also of a romanticisation of those voices

Winston Churchill Reporting Simon Read,2015-10-13

Long before his finest hour as Britain's wartime leader, Winston Churchill emerged on the world stage as a brazen foreign correspondent covering wars of empire in Cuba, India, the Sudan, and South Africa. In those far-flung corners of the world, reporting from the front lines between 1895 and 1900, Churchill mastered his celebrated command of language and formed strong opinions about war. He thought little of his own personal safety, so convinced was he of his destiny, jumping at any chance to be where bullets flew and canons roared. "I have faith in my star that I am intended to do something in the world," he wrote to his mother at the age of twenty-three before heading into battle. Based on his private letters and war reportage, Winston Churchill Reporting intertwines young Winston's daring exploits in combat, adventures in distant corners of the globe, and rise as a major literary talent, experiences that shaped the world leader he was to become. Kingdoms and Chieftdoms of Southeastern Africa Elizabeth A.

Eldredge,2015 History and oral traditions in southeastern Africa. Oral traditions in the reconstruction of southern African history. Shipwreck survivor accounts from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Founding families and chieftdoms east of the Drakensberg. Maputo Bay peoples and chieftdoms before 1740. Maputo Bay 1740-1820. Eastern chieftdoms of southern Africa 1740-1815. Zulu conquests and the consolidation of power 1815-21. Military campaigns, migrations, and political reconfiguration. Ancestors' descent lines and chieftdoms west of the Drakensberg before 1820. The Caledon River valley and the Basotho of Moshoeshe 1821-33. The expansion of the European presence at Maputo Bay 1821-33. Southern African kingdoms on the eve of colonization. Interest Groups, Water Politics and Governance Richard Meissner,2015-07-08 The book investigates the role interest groups have played over the years to influence the governments of Lesotho and South Africa the World Bank and project implementation authorities in changing some policy aspects of the Lesotho Highlands Water Project LHWP Some of the issues being agitated by the interest groups are the resettlement of villagers where some of the dams for the projects are being constructed The author argues that interest groups and individuals have the ability to influence the above mentioned institutions and to such an extent that water politics and governance is not the domain of state institutions only

Great Lakes Rocks Stephen E Kesler,2019-05-01 The geologic story of the Great Lakes region is one of the most remarkable of any place on Earth Great Lakes Rocks takes readers on this fascinating journey through geologic history beginning with an investigation of the surface features the hills and valleys waterfalls and caves and the Great Lakes themselves that we encounter on a daily basis From there the book digs deeper into the past and readers learn about the amazing techniques geologists have used to reconstruct the events that shaped this region millions and even billions of years before humans set foot on Earth Throughout the book gives special attention to the link between the region s geology and its modern history including the impacts of geology on settlement patterns as well as the development of industries and the present day economy Other discussed topics include natural hazards that are geologic in nature including earthquakes floods landslides and coastal erosion as well as information on rocks minerals and ancient life seen in fossils Written for nonspecialist readers this book provides a detailed but easy to follow introduction to the geology of the Great Lakes region and it is an ideal fit for introductory geology courses including those aimed at nonscience majors Systems Analysis Approach for Complex Global Challenges Priscilla Mensah,David Katerere,Sepo Hachigonta,Andreas Roodt,2018-04-09 This book which contains a collection of review articles as well as focus on evidence based policy making will serve as a valuable resource not just for all postgraduate students conducting research using systems analysis thinking but also for policy makers To our knowledge a book of this nature which also has a strong African focus is currently not available The book examines environmental and socio economic risks with the aim of providing an analytical foundation for the management and governance of natural resources disasters addressing climate change and easing the technological and ecological transitions to sustainability It provides scientific and strategic analysis to better understand the dynamics of future energy transitions their main driving forces enabling factors barriers as well as their consequences for the social economic and environmental dimensions of human wellbeing Science based policy advice is achieved through an integrated assessment and modeling of how to simultaneously address the major energy policy challenges in the areas of environment climate change and air pollution energy poverty or access to affordable and clean energy for the poor energy security and reliability It also aims to improve our understanding of ecosystems and their management in today s changing world in particular the current state of ecosystems and their ecological thresholds and buffering capacities It provides support for policy makers in developing rational realistic and science based regional national and global strategies for the production of fuel food and fibre that sustain ecosystem services and safeguard food security Finally it addresses the human development dimension of global change based on comprehensive studies on the changing size and composition of human populations around the world by analyzing both their impacts and the differential vulnerabilities by age gender and level of education From Adversity to Greatness Zenzile Rens,2019-05-11 From Adversity to Greatness will take you through a journey of a brave and courageous burn survivor that had to endure the pain of growing up having to justify his existence The book shares a story of Zenzile having went through a furious blaze that changed his life forever Zenzile shares lessons learned on how he overcame many of the challenges he faced The book will inspire you to break the invisible chains holding many people from realising their greatness This book is about igniting the fire within you and will help you develop a positive mindset overcome fear of failure step out of your comfort zone and look beyond your shortcomings and achieve greatness Appealing to God or Man Nicholas J. Campbell,2025-03-31 Appealing to God or Man Contrasting Barrenness and Family Death Narratives in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near East argues for a reevaluation of barrenness type scenes in the Hebrew Bible and ancient

Near East More specifically the argument is for a distinction women in family death narratives appeal to men while women in barrenness narratives appeal to God Even the male centric epics of the ancient Near East show that women interact with the divine more during barrenness crises e g the wife s prophetic dream in the Etana myth than during family death crises e g male divine narratives in Kirta and Aqhat This distinction not only clarifies the narrative tropes but emphasizes the role of women in these crises and intersects with discussions of household roles in the ancient Near East Male and female roles in marriage and fertility drive the responses of characters in these idealized narrative worlds especially in family death and barrenness narratives South African Who's who ,1911
