Letters of a Javanese Princess Kartini (Raden Adjeng), 1985 Translated from the original Dutch by Agnes Louise Symmers and originally published by Alfred A Knopf this collection of letters was written by the daughter of a Javanese civil servant in the Dutch colonial government

Letters of a Javanese Princess Raden Adjeng Kartini, 2019-11-21 Letters of a Javanese Princess is a poignant collection of correspondence penned by Raden Adjeng Kartini a pioneering advocate for women's rights in Indonesia during the late 19th century Through her eloquent letters Kartini articulates the complexities of her identity as a Javanese woman navigating the constraints of a patriarchal society Her literary style is imbued with both passion and introspection employing a formal yet accessible language that reflects her education and awareness of contemporary European thought. The letters delve into themes of gender inequality, cultural traditions, and the yearning for education, providing a unique glimpse into the socio-political landscape of Java during colonial rule. Raden Adjeng Kartini, born in 1879 to a noble Javanese family, experienced both privilege and limitation within her social framework. Privately educated, her longing for knowledge and liberation from societal norms motivated her to advocate for women's education and rights. Kartini's work was influenced by her contacts with European intellectuals and her reading of Western literature, which exposed her to broader feminist ideals. This compelling work is essential reading for those interested in post-colonial studies, feminism, and Southeast Asian history.  Ellis: I followed Ellis' gaze and he was staring at the woman behind me. Mate, my knees weakened as Ellis whispered the words. I took a step back. Ellis: baby, I regained composure and went to him in an attempt to get his attention. Mate: he whispered again, ignoring me and looking at Charlotte. I could barely breathe, and all I did was step aside. Ellis took steps forward to her and slowly cupped Charlotte's crying face with trembling hands. Hello, mate. No, no, no. I silently begged the moon goddess to wake me from this nightmare. Love Chasia is heartbroken when her boyfriend of ten years finds his mate and chooses her, forgetting the promise he made to stay by her side forever. The best and only option for her is to leave and never see him again, but what happens when she discovers she's pregnant? Five years later, they meet in a way they didn't expect. Now he is her new boss. The passion, love, and lingering feelings they thought were buried come back with full force, especially now that she works in his company.
