Vaal Tech Forms 2015:

Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly

Freshwater Challenges of South Africa and its Upper Vaal River Anja du Plessis, 2017-02-07 This book promotes better understanding and awareness of South Africa's significant water problems by describing the country's and especially the Upper Vaal River's water resources It is a go-to book for students professionals and regular citizens when information is required regarding the country's and more specifically the Upper Vaal River's freshwater resources It highlights the major problems and risks which need to be addressed and give a realistic and true representation of the current water affairs

Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective Marcel Paret, Carin Runciman, Luke Sinwell, 2017-03-27 From the Arab Uprising to anti-austerity protests in Europe and the US Occupy Movement to uprisings in Brazil and Turkey resistance from below is flourishing Whereas analysts have tended to look North in their analysis of the recent global protest wave this volume develops a Southern perspective through a deep engagement with the case of South Africa which has experienced widespread popular resistance for more than a decade Combining critical theoretical perspectives with extensive qualitative fieldwork and rich case studies Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective situates South Africa's contentious democracy in relation to both the economic insecurity of contemporary global capitalism and the constantly shifting political terrain of post apartheid nationalism The analysis integrates worker community and political party organizing into a broader narrative of resistance bridging historical divisions between social movement studies labor studies and political sociology

Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya Eric E. Otenyo, 2017-03-01 Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya provides a comprehensive description of the use of ICTs within the trade union movement in Kenya In this book Professor Eric Otenyo explores the intersection between new technologies and union as key stakeholders in national governance and development The dearth of research on how trade unions can play a part in the new economy continues to undermine the effective use of ICTs in development This book brings to light the challenges that unions face while navigating the new economy and netstate characterized by a proliferation of ICTs and globalization

Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale, 2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration

English-Medium Instruction from an English as a Lingua Franca Perspective Kumiko Murata,2018-08-06 English is increasingly used as a lingua franca ELF in communicative situations the world over with the acceleration of globalisation This is in line with the increased introduction of English medium instruction EMI to higher education institutions in many parts of the world to further promote both students and faculty s mobility to make them competitive and employable in the globalised world and to make their institutions more attractive and reputable EMI and ELF however are rarely explicitly investigated together despite the fact that the spread of EMI cannot be separated from that of ELF This volume tackles the issue head on by focusing on EMI in higher education from an ELF perspective The volume includes contributions by Asian European Middle Eastern South American and Anglo American scholars It discusses language policies attitudes and identities analyses of classroom EMI practices case studies and finally pedagogical implications from an ELF perspective incorporating also theoretical and empirical issues in conducting EMI courses programmes The volume will be of great interest and use not only to those who are conducting research on ELF EMI CLIL language policy and related fields but also to classroom teachers and policy makers who are conducting and or planning to start EMI courses programmes in their institutions or countries all over the world

The A to Z of Careers in South Africa, 2006 Potentiality of “Kinyankole” Cultural-Resources, Practices for Promotion of Tourism, Uganda Mackline Ninsiima, Njue Michael, 2025-07-13 The book is set out to present the potential of Kinyankole cultural resources practices for promotion as a tourism product in Uganda The book has been developed using data collected from a study that took place in Mbarara and Kiruhura districts in Uganda in East Africa for the period ranging 2020 and 2021 East Africa and aimed to achieve the following specific goals to identify Kinyankole cultural resources that can be included in tourism products to look into Kinyankole practices that can be part of tourism products and to uncover untapped aspects of Kinyankole culture that could be added to tourism products The book is divided into four chapters Chapter one which introduces the book chapter two with literature review Chapter three presents methodology and analysis of data as well as presentation While chapter four presents final conclusions and recommendations

Landscapes of Human Evolution James Cole, John McNabb, Matt Grove, Rob Hosfield, 2020-02-13 Fourteen papers are presented here in honour of John Gowlett John has a wide range of research interests primarily focused on the human genus Homo and is a world leader in understanding the cognitive and behavioural preconditions necessary for the emergence of complex behaviours such as language and art

Speaking Subjects in Multilingualism Research Judith Purkarthofer, Mi-Cha Flubacher, 2022-07-22 This book discusses salient moments of multilingual encounters and brings together contributions focused on the interplay between language use by individuals and societies and language related inequalities or opportunities for speakers The chapters demonstrate how biographical and speaker centred approaches can contribute to an understanding of linguistic diversity how researchers can empirically account for lived experiences of languages and how such accounts are embedded in a larger discussion on social inequality Together the chapters make a powerful case for the importance of speaker centred methodologies in multilingual and multilingualism research The book is a rich source of theoretical and methodological reflections and will thus be a valuable resource for both experienced researchers and students beginning to explore biographical research methods

Crossing the Human Threshold Matt Pope, John McNabb, Clive Gamble, 2017-11-22 When was the human threshold crossed What is the evidence for evolving humans and their emerging humanity This volume explores in a global overview the archaeology of the Middle Pleistocene

800 000 to 130 000 years ago when evidence for innovative cultural behaviour appeared The evidence shows that the threshold was crossed slowly by a variety of human ancestors and was not confined to one part of the Old World Crossing the Human Threshold examines the changing evidence during this period for the use of place landscape and technology It focuses on the emergence of persistent places and associated developments in tool use hunting strategies and the control of fire represented across the Old World by deeply stratified cave sites These include the most important sites for the archaeology of human origins in the Levant South Africa Asia and Europe presented here as evidence for innovation in landscape thinking during the Middle Pleistocene The volume also examines persistence at open locales through a cutting edge review of the archaeology of Northern France and England Crossing the Human Threshold is for the worldwide community of students and researchers studying early hominins and human evolution It presents new archaeological data It frames the evidence within current debates to understand the differences and similarities between ourselves and our ancient ancestors

Sociology in South Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, 2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa

South Africa Yearbook, 2009 Handbook of Pleistocene Archaeology of Africa Amanuel Beyin, David K. Wright, Jayne Wilkins, Deborah I. Olszewski, 2023-08-17 This handbook showcases an Africa wide compendium of Stone Age archaeological sites and methodological advances that have improved our understanding of hominin lifeways and biogeography in the continent The focal time spans the Pleistocene Epoch c 2 5 million 11 700 years ago during which important human traits such as obligate bipedalism that freed the hands to engage in creative activities a large brain relative to body size language and social complexity developed in the general forms that they are found today The handbook is the first of its kind and it is expected to play a significant role in human evolutionary research by Collating the African Stone Age record which exists in a fragmented state along the lines of national boundaries and colonial experiences Showcasing emerging conceptual and methodological advances in African Pleistocene archaeology Providing reference datasets for teaching and researching African prehistory Making Africa s Stone Age record accessible to researchers and students based in Africa who may not have access to journal publications where most new field discoveries are published The Handbook features 128 chapters of which 116 are site entries grouped by the host countries and presented in an alphabetical order A number of those site related entries examine multiple archaeological localities lumped under specific projects or study areas. The rest of the contributions deal with methodological topics such as luminescence and radiocarbon dating, field data recovery, lithic analysis, micromorphology and hominin fossil and zooarchaeological records of Pleistocene Africa. The introductory chapter provides an historical overview of the development of Stone Age/Paleolithic archaeology in Africa beginning in the mid 19th century and paleoenvironmental and chronological frameworks commonly used to structure the continent's Pleistocene record. By making a good amount of African Stone Age literature accessible to researchers and the public, we wish to promote interest in human evolutionary research in the continent and elsewhere. Awarded the 2025 The Best Book Award by The Society of Africanist Archaeologists.
