Teach a Child to Read Joyce M. Romanski,2017-05-17 Reading is a basic and necessary skill in ones life and in the marketplace The media is constantly presenting our nations educational position Innovative programs in all areas of the curriculum are televised

There is a constant need to help all students to arrive at a grade level and above. With the adoption of the national core curriculum, there is a stronger emphasis on higher levels of performance in all areas, especially in reading. Teaching Someone to Read emphasizes teaching the initial reading skills. It will serve a variety of students, kindergarten to English as a second language for all levels. This handbook gives specific procedures for diagnosing to determine the student's current skill level. Then the sequence and lists of phonics are presented in a systematic way. Stress-free strategies for teaching phonics are described. Along with decoding, ideas are presented for comprehension and writing. Teach Someone to Read is a helpful and practical tool for the instructor, a quick hands-on manual.

Try Your Hand at This Kathy MacMillan, 2005-11-10. American Sign Language is more than just an assortment of gestures. It is a full-fledged, unique language with all the characteristics of such. This helpful and user-friendly guide for librarians and other library personnel involved in library programming demonstrates everything from how to set up programming involving sign language for all ages to dealing with and paying interpreters. The book also discusses how to publicize programs to the public and within the deaf community and how to evaluate and improve the library's sign language collection. Kathy MacMillan's impressive understanding and knowledge of the deaf community and the importance of sign language, as well as her exceptional handling of the numerous erroneous myths about deafness and sign language that are unfortunately still often current, make this handbook an indispensable tool for all library personnel looking to reach out to the deaf and hard-of-hearing community.
