Tom Blackwell Complete Paintings 1970 2014:

Tom Blackwell Linda Chase, 2016 Tom Blackwell born 1938 is primarily known for his work in photorealism a movement characterized by its ardent embrace of photographic source material In 1969 he began a series of brashly beautiful motorcycle paintings that established him as one of the founders and foremost artists of the movement In his equally celebrated store window paintings Blackwell captures the counterpoint between the idealized reality within the store display and the bustling urban life reflected in the glass As author Linda Chase remarks in her essay The magic of these paintings resides in the artist's ability to transform the arbitrary photographic information into dynamic and complex artistic compositions revealing and clarifying the image while preserving its mystery The first comprehensive resource on an icon of photorealism this volume includes further essays by esteemed art writers Louis K Meisel and Carter Ratcliff An Ontology of Multiple Artworks David Davies, 2024 David Davies examines the ontology of multiple artworks such as books and musical performances He argues against a theory of multiple works as types that are independent of creative and appreciative acts instead defending a view on which they are performances essentially embedded in artistic practices Painting and Presence Anthony Rudd, 2022 This book is concerned with why or whether paintings have value why they might be worth creating and attending to The author traces an understanding of painting as ontologically revelatory from the theology of the Byzantine Icon to classical Chinese appreciations of landscape painting and Phenomenologists inspired by European Modernist art Philosophy of Religion and Art Gregory E. Trickett, John R. Gilhooly, 2021-03-01 This volume serves to fill a lacuna in the literature of the analytic philosophy of religion by relating key philosophical themes to broader aspects of the humanities such as visual art literature and pop culture studies The essays here range from discussions of the nature of art and religious experience to the role of art in religious dialogue and the function of narrative in religious discourse as well as cultural media and artistic and phenomenological experience Art in England Sara N. James, 2016-10-31 Art in England fills a void in the scholarship of both English and medieval art by offering the first single volume overview of artistic movements in Medieval and Early Renaissance England Grounded in history and using the chronology of the reign of monarchs as a structure it is contextual and comprehensive revealing unobserved threads of continuity patterns of intention and unique qualities that run through English art of the medieval millennium By placing the English movement in a European context this book brings to light many ingenious innovations that focused studies tend not to recognize and offers a fresh look at the movement as a whole The media studied include architecture and related sculpture both ecclesiastical and secular tomb monuments murals panel paintings altarpieces and portraits manuscript illuminations textiles and art by English artists and by foreign artists commissioned by English patrons The Transnational in Literary Studies Kai Wiegandt, 2020-07-06 This volume clarifies the meanings and applications of the concept of the transnational and identifies areas in which the concept can be particularly useful The division of the volume into three parts reflects areas which seem particularly amenable to analysis through a transnational lens The chapters in Part 1 present case studies in which the concept replaces or complements traditionally dominant concepts in literary studies These chapters demonstrate for example why some dramatic texts and performances can better be described as transnational than as postcolonial and how the transnational underlies and complements concepts such as world literature Part 2 assesses the advantages and limitations of writing literary history with a transnational focus These chapters illustrate how such a perspective loosens the epistemic stranglehold of national historiographies but they also argue that the transnational and national agendas of literary historiography are frequently entangled The chapters in Part 3 identify transnational genres such as the transnational historical novel transnational migrant fiction and translinguistic theatre and analyse the specific poetics and politics of these genres

Epic Landscapes Julia Sienkewicz, 2019-11-13 Epic Landscapes is the first study devoted to architect Benjamin Henry Latrobe's substantial artistic oeuvre from 1795 when he set sail from Britain to Virginia to late 1798 when he relocated to Pennsylvania Thus this book offers the only extended consideration of Latrobe's Virginian watercolors including a series of complex trompe l'oeil studies and three significant illustrated manuscripts Though Latrobe's architecture is well known his watercolors have received little critical attention Epic Landscapes rediscovers Latrobe's watercolors as an ambitious body of work and reconsiders the close relationship between the visual and spatial sensibility of these images and his architectural designs It also offers a fresh analysis of Latrobe within the context of creative practice in the Atlantic world at the end of the eighteenth century as he explored contemporary ideas concerning the form of art for Republican society and the social impacts of revolution Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

Marilynne Robinson, Theologian of the Ordinary Andrew Cuning,2020-12-10 Marilynne Robinson Theologian of the Ordinary posits that Robinson s widely celebrated novels and essays are best understood as emerging from a foundational theology that has the Ordinary as its source Reading Robinson s published work and drawing on an original interview with Robinson Andrew Cuning constructs an authentically Robinsonian theology that is at once distinctly American and conversant with contemporary continental philosophy of religion This book demonstrates that the Ordinary is the source of Robinson s writing and as a phenomenon that opens onto a surplus of meaning is where Robinson s notion of transcendence emerges Robinson s theology is one centered on the material reality of the world and on the subjective nature of one s encounter with oneself and the physical stuff of existence Arguing that the Ordinary demands an artistic response this book reads Robinson s fiction as her theological response to the surplus of meaning in ordinary experience Under the themes of grace language time and self Cuning locates the ordinary everyday grounding of Robinson s metaphysics 3D Warhol

Gaga Aesthetics Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2021-10-07 Pop art has traditionally been the most visible visual art within popular culture because its main transgression is easy to understand the infiltration of the low into the high The same cannot be said of contemporary art of the 21st century where the term Gaga

Aesthetics characterizes the condition of popular culture being extensively imbricated in high culture and vice versa Taking Adorno and Horkheimer's The Culture Industry and Adorno's Aesthetic Theory as key touchstones this book explores the dialectic of high and low that forms the foundation of Adornian aesthetics and the extent to which it still applied and the extent to which it has radically shifted thereby upending tradition In the tradition of philosophical aesthetics that Adorno began with Lukács this explores the ever urgent notion that high culture has become deeply enmeshed with popular culture This is Gaga Aesthetics aesthetics that no longer follows clear fields of activity where fine art is but one area of critical activity Indeed Adorno's concepts of alienation and the tragic which inform his reading of the modernist experiment are now no longer confined to art Rather stirring examples can be found in phenomena such as fashion and music video In addition to dealing with Lady Gaga herself this book traverses examples ranging from Madonna's Madam X to Moschino and Vetements to deliberate on the strategies of subversion in the culture industry
