1. Listening comprehension Listen to each conversation and complete the statements. Then listen again to check your answers.

The patient told _____ when she was calling.
The patient has _____ the nurse to take _____
The patient needs _____ of the _____
The patient would like to try _____ for pain relief.

2 Suggest a medication for each person. (Answers will vary.)

3 Complete each conversation by drawing your own conclusion with stop.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 A: That really hurts. I've been thinking of stopping.
B: Yes, _____. | 2 A: My daughter was sick, but it wasn't anything serious. Thank goodness.
B: Yes, _____. |
| 3 A: My dentist can't fit me in at next month.
B: Your dentist _____. | 4 A: My husband fell down and broke his wrist.
B: He _____. |

4 On a separate sheet of paper, rewrite each statement, using stop for stop and be able to.

- Maybe the doctor can see you tomorrow.
- Maybe an acquaintance can help you.
- Maybe the hotel can recommend a good dentist.
- Maybe she can't come to the office before 4 PM.
- Maybe you can buy an antidepressant in the hotel gift shop.

The doctor might be able to see you tomorrow.

5. Writing On a separate sheet of paper, compare two types of medical treatments. Use the Reading on page 38 and your own experiences and ideas. Consider the following questions:

- How are the two medical treatments similar or different?
- Which treatment do you think is more effective?
- Why might people choose each treatment?
- Which treatments do you or people you know use? Why?

Taneja,2023-11-07 While airlines have been looking into the next generation of retailing practices for several years developments since the beginning of 2020 have accelerated the need to take retailing to a new paradigm A singular focus now is the ever changing demands of the current and next generation of customers and employees and managing their values Examples of customer needs include a mobile first approach rich content augmented and personalized end to end services with seamless consistent and contextualized experiences While these concepts of retailing are not new the challenge has been in bringing them to reality due to a the constraints of legacy systems and processes while transitioning to next generation retailing systems b the inaccessibility of real time data coming from a wide variety of sources such as online shopping social media and operations c the inability to monitor real time behavior of customers and employees d the lack of effective collaboration and cooperation within the travel ecosystem and e the increasing lack of trust on the part of customers This book provides a framework and technologies to convert retailing concepts from shopping to fulfillment into reality by a renovating an airline s core and ancillary products b progressing faster on digital and organizational transformation journeys to make better data based decisions about retailing c getting better at managing customer value by knowing who the customers are d empowering supporting and listening to employees to meet their expectations e asking the right questions to solve complex retailing problems relating to customers competitors and stakeholders and f questioning common held beliefs about the airline business This book is indispensable for all airline executives and senior managers as well as airline and airport commercial managers It will also be enormously beneficial for retailers dealing with airlines and airports

Understanding Multimodal Discourses in English Language Teaching Textbooks Christopher A.

Smith,2022-08-11 Textbooks are indispensable components and in some case the cornerstones of the mission of English Language Teaching ELT However they are artefacts of a pedagogical culture that rarely echo the concerns of their most prolific consumers teachers and students This book offers a useful framework for evaluating ELT textbooks from a critical discourse perspective one that is based on sound current research but also offers practical guidance to teachers Building from a foundational understanding of ELT textbooks the author presents a systematic procedure to critically analyze their multimodal discourse examine how those discourses are negotiated between teachers and students in class and measure how those consumers privately value the lessons The book provides teachers with the tools they need to select and adapt materials based on critical multimodal discourse analysis where not only the text but the pictures websites audio visual elements too are subjected to a process which can reveal underlying ideologies assumptions omissions and reifications The triangulated approach demonstrated in a series of vignettes featuring Korean university students and native English speaking instructors can inform textbook choice instigate change and inspire lesson re contextualization to best suit the needs of its primary consumers
