Touch The Science Of Hand Heart And Mind:

Touch David Linden, 2015-01 Why can't we tickle ourselves Why do footballers who hug score more goals Why does holding a hot coffee make us feel more positively about people Touch is the sense that makes us human It defines our experiences shapes our sense of self and bonds us together This riveting book from acclaimed neuroscientist David J Linden is full of revelations about the biology and psychology of touch It will make you see the world differently and feel the world differently too Touch David J. Linden, 2015-01-29 Touch by David J Linden The astonishing secrets of our senses and how to harness them to change your personal and professional life Why can't we tickle ourselves Why do footballers who hug score more goals Why does holding a hot coffee make us feel more positively about people Touch is the sense that makes us human It defines our experiences shapes our sense of self and bonds us together It is the first sense to start working in utero If you are deprived of the sense of sight or hearing from birth you will still be able to live a rich and fruitful life But depriving a baby of the sense of social touch has dramatic consequences if they are not regularly touched and cared for they will develop higher lifelong levels of stress their personality will be more fearful and they will be less likely to explore the world In Touch renowned neuroscientist David J Linden shows how this overlooked sense actually shapes all our lives Blending surprising stories and cutting edge research on pleasure and pain he takes us on a mesmerizing journey into our senses From why brushing fingers with a waiter will make you leave a larger tip to why choosing a warm drink in a job interview improves your chances Touch is full of astonishing discoveries Reading it will change how you see and touch the world It will be enjoyed by readers of Quiet by Susan Cain Thinking Fast and Slow by Daniel Kahneman and This is Your Brain on Music by Daniel Levitin David J Linden is a professor of neuroscience at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in the USA The award winning author of The Accidental Mind and The Compass of Pleasure he served for many years as the chief editor of the Journal of Neurophysiology He lives in Baltimore Maryland with his two children Touch David J. Linden, 2016-01-26 The New York Times bestselling author of The Compass of Pleasure examines how our sense of touch is interconnected with our emotions Dual function receptors in our skin make mint feel cool and chili peppers hot Touch David J. Linden, 2015 Examines how the interface between our sense of touch and our emotional responses affects our social interactions as well as our general health and development exploring scientific advances in the understanding of touch that help explain our sense of self and our experience of the world From skin to nerves to brain the organization of the body's touch circuits powerfully influences our lives affecting everything from consumer choice to sexual intercourse tool use to the origins of language chronic pain to healing Touch is Really Strange Steve Haines, 2021-04-21 Why can't we tickle ourselves How can slow touch convey more powerful emotions than fast touch How does touch shape our perception of the world The latest addition to the Really Strange series this science based graphic comic addresses these questions and more revealing the complexity of touch and exploring its power and limits Used positively touch can change pain and trauma communicate compassion and love and generate social bonding Get it wrong and it can be abusive and terrifying Touch helps us feel real Knowledge comes through our body as we engage with space and with others Before we have language our concepts are formed as we meet a world full of edges and textures Touch is Really Strange celebrates the power of inward touch interoception and looks at how we can use skilful contact to promote feelings of joy connection and vitality

The Compass of Pleasure David J. Linden, 2011-04-14 A leading brain scientist's look at the neurobiology of pleasure and how pleasures can become addictions Whether eating taking drugs engaging in sex or doing good deeds the pursuit of pleasure is a central drive of the human animal In The Compass of Pleasure Johns Hopkins neuroscientist David J Linden explains how pleasure affects us at the most fundamental level in our brain As he did in his award winning book The Accidental Mind Linden combines cutting edge science with entertaining anecdotes to illuminate the source of the behaviors that can lead us to ecstasy but that can easily become compulsive Why are drugs like nicotine and heroin addictive while LSD is not Why has the search for safe appetite suppressants been such a disappointment The Compass of Pleasure concludes with a provocative consideration of pleasure in the future when it may be possible to activate our pleasure circuits at will and in entirely novel patterns
