Contemporary Research Methods in Hospitality and Tourism Fevzi Okumus,S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh,Shiva Jahani,2022-04-13 Contemporary Research Methods in Hospitality and Tourism delivers a comprehensive collection of chapters including new insights for traditional paradigms approaches and methods as well as more recent developments in research methodology in the context of tourism and hospitality Religion and Tourism in Japan Ian Reader,2023-11-16 In this study Ian Reader presents new insights into the relationship between religion and tourism more generally and into the contemporary religious situation in Japan He counteracts scholarship that claims tourism increases religious activity shows that tourism is a factor in increasing secularization in Japan and draws attention to the role of the state in such contexts Although the Japanese constitution prohibits the state from promoting religion this book shows how state agencies nonetheless encourage people to visit religious sites by presenting them as manifestations of a shared heritage in ways that distance them from religion Reader examines theoretical understandings of religion and tourism and presents case studies of famed pilgrimage routes and temples He shows how Zen monasteries are now tourist brands and pilgrimages are the focus of TV entertainment programmes portrayed as opportunities to eat sweets Examining the nationalistic rhetoric of nostalgia and unique heritage that underpins the promotion of religious sites Reader also considers why priests acquiesce in such matters

Automobile Heritage and Tourism Michael V. Conlin, Lee Jolliffe, 2016-12 The Barbados Historic Rally Carnival ICT as Innovator Between Tourism and Culture Ramos, Célia M.Q., Quinteiro, Silvia, Gonçalves, Alexandra R., 2021-11-05 Lately tourists consider their mobile devices as essential accessories for the realization of their trip before during and after the visit Such devices allow them to consult information about points of interest services or products in real time Thus mobile devices have come to be considered as tools to support decision making regarding the realization of trips In the digital environment tourists seek complementary information to consolidate knowledge about the destination heritage culture customs and traditions that make the visited place unique Simultaneously they transform tourist experiences into a memory associated with travel contribute to the sustainability of local populations reduce inequalities and cooperate to improve the quality of life of all involved ICT as Innovator Between Tourism and Culture differs from others on the same areas because it aims to place the emphasis on and increase the bridge of knowledge between information communications technology ICT tourism and culture considering ICT as the main driver that creates the development environment and enhances the tourist experience in general In particular it is linked to cultural heritage making it a more sustainable and intelligent tourist destination taking into account the well being of the local population and visitors Covering topics such as destination image religious tourism and innovation dynamics this book is an essential resource for IT consultants hotel managers marketers travel agencies tour operators tourism researchers professors students practitioners within the tourism industry and academicians Sport Consumer Behaviour Kostas Alexandris, Heath McDonald, Daniel C. Funk, 2016-07-18 All successful marketing strategies in sport or events must take into account the complex behaviour of consumers This book offers a complete introduction to consumer behaviour in sport and events combining theory and cutting edge research with practical guidance and advice to enable students and industry professionals to become more effective practitioners Written by three of the world's leading sports marketing academics it covers a wide range of areas including social media and digital marketing the segmentation of the sport consumer market service quality and customer satisfaction sport consumer personalities and attitudes the external and environmental factors that influence sport consumer behaviour These chapters are followed by a selection of international case studies on topics such as female sport fans college sports marathons and community engagement The book

s companion website also provides additional resources exclusively for instructors and students including test banks slides and useful web links As the only up to date textbook to focus on consumer behaviour in sport and events Sport Consumer Behaviour Marketing Strategies offers a truly global perspective on this rapidly growing subject This book is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in the sport and events industries from students and academics to professional marketers

Tourism and the Creative Industries Philip Long,Nigel D. Morpeth,2016-05-20 This book focuses on the theoretical policy and practice linkages and disjunctures between tourism and the creative industries There are clear and strong intersections between the sectors for example in the development and application of new and emerging media in tourism festivals and cultural events showcasing the creative identity of place tours and place identities associated with film TV music and arts tourism as well as particular destinations being promoted on the basis of their creative endowments such as theatre breaks art exhibitions and fashion shows Tourism and the Creative Industries explores a variety of relationships in one volume and offers innovative and critical insights into how creative industries and tourism together contribute to place identity tourist experience destination marketing and management The book is aligned with the sectors that have been demarcated by the UK Government Department of Culture Media and Sport as comprising the creative industries advertising and marketing architecture design and designer fashion film TV video radio and photography IT software and computer services publishing and music performing and visual arts The title of this volume demonstrates how the exclusion of tourism from the creative industries is arguably perverse given that much of the work by destination managers and of private sector tourism is characterised by creativity and innovation Interdisciplinary research and international context bring a broader perspective on how the creative industries operate in varying cultural and policy contexts in relation to tourism This book brings together the parallel and disparate inter disciplinary fields of tourism and the creative industries and will be of interest to students academics and researchers interested in tourism creative industries marketing and management

Tourism as a Resource-based Industry Anna Lydia Svalastog,Dieter K. Müller,Ian Jenkins,2022-08-16 Tourism as a Resource based Industry presents the conceptual framework of the Norwegian economic geographer Sondre Svalastog and functions as a practical tool for analyzing and identifying resources when working towards a more sustainable tourism industry Tourism resources and their sustainability are analysed through the lens of a multidisciplinary approach which includes social economic cultural and natural dimensions Contextual awareness is achieved by combining research based knowledge with local know how and information on local conditions The book facilitates a way forward that examines both productivity and sustainability The usefulness and value of Svalastog s conceptual work is demonstrated by a selection of new case studies by experts in the field from different countries including Sweden Norway Slovenia and the UK Tourism researchers and students will find this book helpful for understanding the development of tourism and how it can contribute to the UN Agenda 2030 which reflects the urgency for change to secure cultural and natural resources health and social resilience and the stability of a socially constructed economy Thus tourism research needs to include a constant review and if required renewal of processes that manage how society culture and natural resources are used to achieve a balanced sustainable tourism process

Buddhist Tourism in Asia Courtney Bruntz,Brooke Schedneck,2020-03-31 This innovative collaborative work the first to focus on Buddhist tourism explores how Buddhists government organizations business corporations and individuals in Asia participate in re imaginings of Buddhism through tourism Contributors from religious studies anthropology and art history examine sacred places and religious monuments as they have been shaped and reshaped by socioeconomic and cultural trends in the region Following an introduction that offers the first theoretical understanding of tourism from a Buddhist studies perspective early chapters discuss the ways Buddhists and non Buddhists imagine concepts and places related to the religion Case studies highlight Buddhist peace in India Buddhist heavens and hells in Singapore Thai temple space and the future Buddha Maitreya in China Buddhist tourism s connections to the state market and new technologies are explored in chapters on Indian package tours for pilgrims thematic Buddhist tourism in Cambodia the technological innovations of Buddhist temples in China and the promotion of pilgrimage sites in Japan Contributors then situate the financial concerns of Chinese temples speed dating in temples in Japan and the diffuse and pervasive nature of Buddhism for tourism promotion in Ladakh India How have tourist routes groups sites and practices associated with Buddhism come to be possible and what are the effects In what ways do travelers derive meaning from Buddhist places How do Buddhist sites fortify national cultural or religious identities The comparative research in South Southeast and East Asia presented here draws attention to the intertwining of the sacred and the financial and how local and national sites are situated within global networks Together these findings generate a compelling comparative investigation of Buddhist spaces identities and practices Tourism and Innovation C. Michael Hall, Allan M. Williams, 2019-11-25 This ground breaking volume on the relationships between tourism and innovation provides an overview of relevant innovation theories and related literatures on entrepreneurship productivity regional development and competitiveness and their significance to contemporary tourism practices Innovation is a key concept in business and entrepreneurial studies and the broader social sciences Yet despite its policy and academic importance historically little attention has been given to the role of innovation in tourism and the corresponding contribution of tourism related human mobility to regional firm and product innovation This book emphasises that innovation in tourism is much more than a series of technological innovations as important as they are and instead needs to be understood in an economic social and political context with particular stress being placed on the extent to which innovations are shaped by the framework of governance and regulation as well as by institutional factors and activities of individual actors and entrepreneurs It is structured so as to introduce the reader to the overall significance of innovation at various levels and the role that innovation plays in firm and place competition Supported with case studies throughout this book is essential reading for all tourism students

Border Futures-Zukunft Grenze-Avenir Frontière Karina Pallagst, Andrea Hartz, Beate Caesar, 2022-05-12 What current discourses are relevant for border areas What opportunities for and obstacles to integrated territorial development arise from the specific situation of border regions How can these be utilised or overcome in a goal oriented way These questions were central to the discussions of the Border Futures working group Border regions like the Greater Region or the Trinational Metropolitan Region of the Upper Rhine extend far beyond the immediate border area While institutional structures of cooperation can be perpetuated through agreements and organisations there is a lack of instruments which cross border cooperation structures can deploy in response to changing situations Cross border cooperation faces new challenges from increasing cross border interactions processes of economic structural transformation new energy policies in the national sub spaces and demographic change Another factor is increasing spatial polarisation which influences the further development and future viability of the affected border areas and involves metropolisation issues in urban centres and the provision of public services in rural districts Building on discussions of the Border Futures working group this volume sheds light on cross border cooperation in practice with recent research relevant to planning in border regions in the European context The insights collected here are intended to be usable in the border areas within the territory of the Regional Working Group and should also contribute towards the broader specialist discourse on the further development of cross border cooperation Issues of sustainable cross border governance new spatial functions and new planning instruments play a role here as do the possibilities provided by the current EU structural policy programming period for border areas
