Tourism Phase 2 Pet 2014:

Animals and Tourism Kevin Markwell,2015-05-01 This book critically examines the many ways in which tourism and animals intersect whether as tourist attractions wildlife conservation tools as travel companions or as meat to be eaten It aims to make a meaningful contribution to the growing body of knowledge concerning the relationships between animals tourists and the tourism industry The chapters are organised into three themes ethics and welfare conflict contradiction and contestation and shifting relationships Theoretically informed and empirically rich the chapters examine topics such as whale watching animal performances the objectification and commodification of animals and stakeholder conflict among a range of others It is hoped that the book will help to highlight key research questions and stimulate other researchers and students to reflect critically on the place of animals within tourism spaces experiences practices and structures Tourism and Animal Ethics David A. Fennell,2024-02-26 This timely book provides a critical account of the role that animals play in the tourism industry representing an extension of the sustainability imperative and environmental theory Written by a leading academic and author this volume explores the rich history of animal ethics research both inside and outside of tourism studies for the purpose of providing greater theoretical empirical conceptual and practical guidance It examines historical and current practices of the use of animals in the tourism industry from both in situ to ex situ consumption and production perspectives identifying a range of ethical issues associated with such use This second edition has been updated to reflect contemporary research and thinking around animal welfare hunting and consumption with new chapters on animals as food and policy at the national and international levels New case studies have been integrated throughout Offering an interdisciplinary overview of the moral issues related to the use of animals in tourism through cutting edge research this book is essential reading for students academics and researchers interested in tourism ethics sustainable tourism and wildlife tourism

Tourism and Animal Welfare Neil Carr,Donald M Broom,2018-05-25 Animals are among the most sought after tourist attractions and the impact on them is a matter of concern to an increasing number of people Tourism and Animal Welfare uniquely addresses the issue of animal welfare within the tourism experience It explores important foundations such as the meaning of animal welfare and its relation to ethics animal rights and human obligations to animals It also explores the nature and diversity of the position and role of animals within tourism From students and academics to vets and those working within the tourism industry this book will provide an engaging and thought provoking read It will also appeal to those with an interest in animal welfare particularly in relation to the tourism industry Tales from the front line is the section of the book that provides the reader with the views and experiences of animal welfare organisations individual leaders tourism industry organisations and operators and academic experts These case studies and opinion pieces will encourage the reader to consider their own position regarding animals in tourism and their welfare Tourism and Embodiment Catherine Palmer,Hazel Andrews,2019-07-23 The role of the body and the concept of embodiment have largely been neglected in anthropological studies of tourism This book explores the notion of the tourist body and develops understanding of how touristic practice is embodied practice not only for tourists but also for those who work in tourism This book provides a more holistic understanding of the role of the body in making and re making self and world by engaging with tourism This collection brings together scholars whose work intersects with the anthropology of tourism who each draw upon ethnographically informed research based on international case studies that include India Turkey Australia and Tasmania Denmark the United States Nepal France Italy South Africa and Spain The case studies focus on a variety of themes including human and nonhuman bodies The range of case studies gives the book an international appeal that makes it valuable to academic researchers and students in the disciplines of social anthropology cultural geography sociology philosophy and the field of tourism studies itself

Tourism Experiences and Animal Consumption Carol

Kline,2018-01-17 This book provides an interdisciplinary discussion of animals as a source of food within the context of tourism It focuses on a range of ethical issues associated with the production and consumption of animal foods highlighting the different ways in which animals are valued and utilised within different cultural and economic contexts This book brings together food studies of animals with tourism and ethics forming an important contribution to the wider conversation of human animal studies

Critical Issues in Tourism Co-Creation Giang Thi Phi,Dianne Dredge,2021-07-05 Co creation is fast becoming a buzz word in tourism Traditional approaches to value creation in tourism suggest that operators and suppliers produce goods and services which are consumed by tourists The value produced is usually measured in economic terms Co creation challenges these assumptions arguing that tourism producers and consumers co create value together and that this value is more diverse than just economic value Technologies underpinning social media ratings and review tools and e commerce are facilitating the creation of diverse values and have been responsible for driving innovation in for example new business models such as the collaborative economy Social environmental emotional reputational and other kinds of value may also be produced and a wide range of stakeholders not just producers or consumers might also benefit from the value co creation process This edited volume seeks to go beyond the dominant business management marketing perspectives that focus on the co creation of market value and innovation to excavate complex and critical episodes of co creation in tourism By engaging authors from both the academy and beyond it explores the rich historical lineage of co creation and its contemporary practices The chapters in this book were originally published in Tourism Recreation Research

Elephant Tourism in Nepal Michelle Szydowski,2024-02-01 A study of elephant tourism in Nepal from its origins in the 1960s to the present day this book examines the challenges faced by captive elephants Used as human conveyance on anti poaching patrol teams as rescue vehicles and in forestry service elephants have worked with and for humans for hundreds of years However the use of elephants in tourism is a fairly new development within Nepal Because the health and welfare of tourism elephants is vital to the conservation of wild individuals this book offers an assessment of captive elephant needs and an examination of their existing welfare statuses This book seeks to examine the motivations of these NGOs and INGOs and to consider their ethical approaches to elephant health and welfare Are the motivations of these organizations similar enough to work together towards a common goal or are their ethical norms so different that they get in one another's way Using an ordinary language and ethics framework this text aims to identify the norms of cultures and organisations and reframe them in ways which may allow for more successful interactions

Emerging Voices for Animals in Tourism Jes Hooper, Carol Kline, 2024-02-14 While the study of animal human interactions within the context of tourism has been explored in a greater number and diversity of ways within the last decade the discourse remains divided between traditional tourism academia and outside disciplines looking in Tourism academia has borrowed philosophical ethical gender studies sociological ecological conservation and economic lenses to explore animals in tourism however collaboration with authors external to tourism studies remains few This edited volume strengthens the bridge between tourism academia and other disciplines by highlighting the fresh perspectives emerging methodologies and innovative interdisciplinary conventions at the forefront of animals in tourism research whilst critically working towards more ethical human animal interactions within the tourism and leisure space Split into four parts emerging motivations emerging cultures emerging narratives and emerging reflections this unique text will be widely applicable to scholars working towards equitable human animal interactions within tourism

Tourism and Intercultural Communication and Innovations Stoyan Marinov, Genka Rafailova, 2019-04-25 This volume presents the results of Bulgarian and international tourism research and brings together selected papers from the international conference Tourism and Innovations held in Varna Bulgaria in 2018 It contains theoretical and empirical approaches towards various aspects of tourism concerning both innovations in tourism development and in foreign languages education As a whole the book presents innovative solutions and processes in tourism including management and staff training provoked by today's opportunities and challenges for future tourism development The first part is dedicated to issues in tourism innovation ranging from those provoked from the changing global environment and tourism demand through to social innovations concerning tourism products and human resources management The second section of the book deals with traditions and innovations in foreign language education oriented to managers operational staff and decision makers in tourism

Tourism, Heritage and Commodification of Non-human Animals: A Posthumanist Reflection Álvaro López López, Gino Jafet Quintero Venegas, Carol Kline, 2023-12-19 Heritage is a social construction rooted in modern and contemporary societies It is commonly a positive assessment of many elements of the physical and human environment e.g. ecosystems and landscapes monuments customs gender norms religious practices gastronomy and livelihoods Heritage and tourism are strongly related to each other in that heritage gives rise to tourist attractions and activities and tourism enhances the designation of heritage sites A post humanist perspective the moral valuation of equality between humans and other animals demands that both are sentient beings and self aware of their pain and pleasure Thus the involvement of animals as heritage elements by themselves or as an element of tourist consumption in heritage sites implies their commodification and lack of agency As such these practices are usually unethical since they threaten the animals primary interests not to suffer not to feel pain and to be able to live their freedom This book contains chapters that reveal both the unethical interactions between humans and animals within heritage tourism and those that show experiences in which efforts are made to minimize damage within the commercialization of animals involved as heritage themselves Human-Animal Relations in Tourism, Leisure and Development Carlos Monterrubio,Xavier López-Medellín,Katherine Dashper,Helen Wadham,2025-04-17 Humans and animals have developed multiple and complex interactions in the fields of tourism leisure and development However much of the existing research on how humans and animals interact in these fields has emerged from within the context of developed countries As a result little has been documented about human animal interactions in the socioeconomic cultural and environmental contexts of countries in the Global South Specifically the diversity and complexity of interspecies relationships in tourism leisure and local development in Latin America have been largely ignored in Anglo Saxon literature This has resulted in a limited partial and hegemonic understanding and debate about human animal relationships globally dominated by certain regions of the world This book addresses this gap by documenting multiple and complex relationships between humans and animals in the fields of tourism leisure and local development in countries in Latin America Wildlife Tourism Futures Giovanna Bertella,2020-11-26 This book presents a series of possible future scenarios in wildlife and animal tourism by combining critical thinking and imagination to stimulate reflection and ways forward The future of wildlife tourism faces uncertainties that revolve around many factors including climate change mass wildlife extinction human population growth deforestation sustainability and ethical assumptions For wildlife tourism to meet these challenges new ways of thinking are necessary The chapters in this volume focus on future wildlife tourism development and management the experiential value educational components and ethical relevance of tourism animal encounters and the technology applied to wildlife tourism They offer critically imagined futures in order to encourage readers to reflect on the possibility of shaping a better future The book will appeal to researchers students and practitioners in wildlife tourism environmental studies sustainability and conservation Justice and Tourism Tazim Jamal,James Higham,2021-11-17 Research related to justice and tourism is at an early stage in tourism studies Challenges abound due to the complex scope and scale of tourism and thus the need to transcend disciplinary boundaries to inform a phenomenon that is intricately interwoven with place and people from local to global The contributors to this book have drawn from diverse knowledge domains including but not limited to sociology geography business studies urban planning and architecture anthropology philosophy and management studies to inform their research From case based empirical research to descriptive and theoretical approaches to justice and tourism they tackle critical issues such as social justice and gender discrimination and racism minority and worker rights indigenous cultural and heritage justice including special topics like food sovereignty while post humanistic perspectives that call us to attend to non human others to climate justice and sustainable futures A rich array of principles is woven within and between the chapters The various contributions illustrate the need for continuing collaboration among researchers in the Global North and Global South to enable diverse voices and worldviews to inform the pluralism of justice and tourism as arises in this book The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Proceedings of the 2015 International Conference on Food Hygiene, Agriculture and Animal Science Hongbiao Ding,2015 The Proceedings of the 2015 International Conference on Food Hygiene Agriculture and Animal Science provides an all encompassing review of each contributor s study in topics such as food hygiene agriculture animal science animal histology and embryology and livestock production systems This book is not only a compilation and analysis of the existing theories and findings it also places a strong emphasis on new investigations and experiments Researchers engineers academics and industry professionals in the fields of agricultural science food hygiene and animal science will find this book a valuable read and useful reference Provided by publisher

International Tourism Development and the Gulf Cooperation Council States Marcus L. Stephenson,Ala Al-Hamarneh,2017-07-14 This book examines the challenges facing the development of tourism in the six member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates UAE This region which largely comprises the Arabian Peninsula possesses some of the fastest growing economies in the world and is remarkably unique It shares similar associations and affinities tribal histories royal kinship political associations Bedu cultural roots Islamic heritage rapid urbanization oil wealth rentier dynamics state capitalist structures migrant labour economic diversification policies and institutional restructuring Therefore this volume takes the study of tourism away from its normative unit of analysis where tourism in the region is being examined within the context of the Middle East and the wider Islamic and Arab world towards an enquiry focusing on a specific geo political territory and socially defined region Although international tourism development in the region embodies a range of challenges complexities and conflicts which are deeply contextualized in this volume the approach overall does not endorse the normative Gulf bashing position that has predominated within the critical enquiries in the region It presents a forward looking and realistic assessment of international tourism development examining development potentialities and constructive ways forward for GCC states and the region as a whole This edited volume provides a real attempt to examine critically ways in which tourism and its development intersect with the socio cultural economic political environmental and industrial change that is taking place in the region By doing so the book provides a theoretically engaged analysis of the social transformations and discourses that shape our contemporary understanding of tourism development within the GCC region Moreover it deciphers tourism development s role within the context of the GCC states undergoing rapid transformation urbanization ultra modernization internationalization and globalization In addition to state specific illustrations and destination case studies the work provides insights into relatable themes associated with international tourism development in the region such as tourism's relationship with religion heritage and identity the environment and sustainability mobility and cross border movements the transport industry image production and destination branding mega development and political stability and instability The book combines theory with diverse case study illustrations drawing on disciplinary knowledge from such fields as sociology political economy and social geography This timely and original contribution is essential reading for students researchers and academics in the field of tourism studies and related subject areas along with those who have regional interests in Middle East studies including Gulf and Arabian Peninsula studies

Development of Tourism and Travel Industry Robin Watts & Zishan Parks, 2018-10-11 Nowadays senior government officials visit other countries to promote tourism in their country Because of the fact that the western capitalist world has huge amounts of capital at their disposal they are able to invest more money in the tourism industry for tourism development and as such they get huge dividends from tourism This work is an attempt in the collection of firsthand information from various areas of tourism industry draw from wide range of sources A travel agency is a private retailer or public service that provides travel and tourism related services to the public on behalf of suppliers such as activities airlines car rentals cruise lines hotels railways travel insurance and package tours In addition to dealing with ordinary tourists most travel agencies have a separate department devoted to making travel arrangements for business travelers and some travel agencies specialize in commercial and business travel only There are also travel agencies that serve as general sales agents for foreign travel companies allowing them to have offices in countries other than where their headquarters are located Travel and tourism industry has now become the largest civilian industry in the world according to statistics one out of every ten person worldwide is part of the Travel and tourism industry Travel and tourism is one of the largest and fastest growing global service industries The travel and tourism industry along with the related sectors contributing to it is expected to grow in leaps and bounds in the coming years The book is a unique research account on tourism strategies and marketing It is an excellent asset for the students scholars and expert of tourism marketing

New Moral Natures in Tourism Bryan S. R. Grimwood, Kellee Caton, Lisa Cooke, 2018-04-17 How do we understand human nature relationships in tourism or determine the consequences of these relationships to be good bad right wrong fair or just What theoretical and philosophical perspectives can usefully orient us in the production and consumption of tourism towards living and enacting the good life with the more than human world This book addresses such questions by investigating relationships between nature and morality in tourism contexts Recognizing that morality much like nature is embedded in histories and landscapes of power the book engages with diverse theoretical and philosophical perspectives to critically review appraise and advance dialogue on the moral dimensions of natures Contributing authors explore the very foundations of how we make sense of nature in tourism and leisure contexts and how we might make sense of it differently The book will be essential reading for researchers students and practitioners grappling with questions about the moral values frameworks or practices best suited to mobilizing tourism natures What will the future of tourism hold in terms of sustainability justice resilience health and well being

Application of Waste-to-Energy Innovations in Tourism

Talukder, Mohammad Badruddoza, Kumar, Sanjeev, Haghi, A.K., 2024-09-25 The implementation of waste to energy innovations is a shining example of advancement in sustainable tourism characterized by the intertwining of environmental consciousness and hospitality Through this transformational approach businesses not only reduce their adverse effects on the environment by utilizing the potential of waste materials to generate energy but they also open the way for a more sustainable and efficient operation model Throughout history managing this garbage has presented considerable issues resulting in damage to the environment and the depletion of resources in several essential tourist destinations These innovations seek to remedy this challenge Application of Waste to Energy Innovations in Tourism offers a complete overview of waste to energy technologies that can be used in tourism facilities It further assesses the environmental economic and social repercussions of implementing these technologies within the context of tourism facilities Covering topics such as circular waste management sustainability and tourist experiences this book is an excellent resource for industry professionals policymakers researchers academicians investors non governmental organizations graduate and postgraduate students educators and more
