Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra When Kids Ask Hard Questions Volume 2 Bromleigh McCleneghan, Karen Ware Jackson, 2021-11-09 From the creators of When Kids Ask Hard Questions comes MORE questions and thank goodness responses on today s tough topics In an increasingly complex world children

Sexual Nature/Sexual Culture Paul R. Abramson, Steven D. Pinkerton, 1995-07 In this multidisciplinary study of human sexuality an international team of scholars looks at the influences of nature and nurture biology and culture and sex and gender in the sexual experiences of humans and other primates Using as its center the idea that sexual pleasure is the primary motivational force behind human sexuality and that reproduction is simply a byproduct of the pleasurability of sex this book examines sexuality at the individual societal and cultural levels Beginning with a look at the evolution of sexuality in humans and other primates the essays in the first section examine the sexual ingenuity of primates the dominant theories of sexual behavior the differences in male and female sexual interest and behavior and the role of physical attractiveness in mate selection The focus then shifts to biological approaches to sexuality especially the genetic and hormonal origins of sexual orientation gender and pleasure The essays go on to look at the role of pleasure in different cultures Included are essays on love among the tribespeople of the Brazilian rain forest and the regulation of adolescent sexuality in India Finally several contributors look at the methodological issues in the study of human sexuality paying particular attention to the problems with research that relies on people s memories of their sexual experiences The contributors are Angela Pattatucci Dean Hamer David Greenberg Frans de Waal Mary McDonald Pavelka Kim Wallen Donald Symons Heino Meyer Bahlburg Jean D Wilson Donald Tuzin Lawrence Cohen Thomas Gregor Lenore Manderson Robert C Bailey Alice Schlegel Edward H Kaplan Richard Berk Paul R Abramson Paul Okami and Stephen D Pinkerton Spanning the chasm of the nature versus nurture debate Sexual Nature Sexual Culture is a look at human sexuality as a complex interaction of genetic potentials and cultural influences This book will be of interest to a wide range of readers from scholars and students in psychology anthropology sociology and history to clinicians researchers and others seeking to understand the many dimensions of sexuality If we ever expect to solve the sexually based problems that modern societies face we must encourage investigations of human sexual behavior Moreover those investigations should employ a broad range of disciplines looking at sex from all angles which is precisely what Sexual Nature Sexual Culture does Mike May American Scientist This timely and relevant book reminds us that we cannot rely on simple solutions to complex problems It represents a transdisciplinary approach integrating knowledge from diverse fields and provides the reader with a challenging and rewarding experience Especially for those who are involved in teaching human sexuality to medical students and other health

Curated with an eye for the monumental and the profound, this collection spans epic poetry, philosophical treatises, scientific discourse, and pioneering political theory. From the stirring plays of Shakespeare to the foundational dialogues of Plato, each work contributes to the anthology's overarching exploration of human inquiry, creativity, and the quest for knowledge. It is a treasury of diverse styles and genres, featuring standout pieces that provoke reflection and insight without providing definitive answers, but instead fostering a legacy of questions that drive human progress. The assembly of authors in this anthology reads as a who's who of intellectual giants whose works have each shaped the world in indelible ways. Here, Renaissance dramatists mingle with Enlightenment philosophers, and Romantic poets converse with ancient historians. These authors, from Goethe to Montaigne, reflect a broad spectrum of cultural and historical backgrounds, representing movements such as the Enlightenment, the Reformation, and the Scientific Revolution, united in their pursuit to articulate the human experience. Their collective voices enrich this anthology, offering comprehensive viewpoints that underscore the interconnectedness of thought across eras. This extensive compendium is essential for anyone seeking to immerse themselves in the pillars of Western literary and intellectual heritage. Harvard Classics Anthology Complete 51 Volumes not only serves as a spine of traditional curricula but also as a gateway to a profound dialogue across centuries, making it an invaluable resource for students, educators, and those with a passion for literature and philosophy. By exploring this compilation, readers are offered a unique educational experience that bridges disparate ideas and philosophies, fostering a deeper understanding of the themes that have shaped human civilization.

Bound, Vol. 1 Amy Lane, 2015-11-10 Little Goddess Book Three Vol 1 Humans have the option of separation, divorce, and heartbreak. For Corinne, Carol, Anne, Kirkpatrick, sorceress, and queen of the vampires, the choices are limited to love or death. Now that she is back at Green's Hill and assuming her duties as leader, her life is at best complicated. Bracken and Nicky are competing for her affections. Green is away taking care of his people, and a new supernatural enemy is threatening the sanctity of all she has come to love. Throw in a family reunion gone bad, a supernatural psychiatrist, and a killer physics class, and Cory's life isn't just complex; it's psychotic. Cory needs to get her act and her identity together, and soon, because the enemy she and her lovers are facing is a nightmare that doesn't just kill people; it unmakes them. If she doesn't figure out who she is and what her place is on Green's Hill, it's not just her life on the line. She knows from hard experience that the only thing worse than facing death is facing the death of someone she loves. Loving people is easy; living with them is what takes the real work, and it's even harder if you're bound. I You We Them,
