Perceived Exertion for Practitioners Robert J. Robertson,2004 With Perceived Exertion for Practitioners Rating Effort With the OMNI Picture System you ll have the most up to date innovative way to rate clients physical exertion in your professional practices You ll be able to expand your knowledge of perceived exertion as used today by health and fitness specialists and clinical therapeutic practitioners and you ll learn how to apply the newly developed OMNI Picture System of perceived exertion Author and highly acclaimed researcher Robert Robertson developed the OMNI Picture System which uses picture scales to enable exercisers to rate their exertion visually In this text Dr Robertson presents real life scenarios involving perceptually based exercise assessments and programming using the OMNI Scaling System The scenarios focus on people with various training and conditioning needs from improving personal health to developing recreational and competitive fitness By rating their effort based on pictures of other exercisers your clients will be able to accurately set and regulate their conditioning intensity using a target rating of perceived exertion RPE zone Special features of Perceived Exertion for Practitionersinclude the following 11 OMNI picture scales which apply to all types of exercise and are reproducible for use as handouts in fitness facilities and in classrooms Sample instructions on what to say to clients in various situations Both clinical and field based perceptual tests for use in aerobic anaerobic and resistance exercise assessments Case studies that describe the clients characteristics identify the exercise need and present an action plan to meet that need using RPE as the training zone Actual programs for aerobic anaerobic and resistance training that employ OMNI Scale RPE zones to guide intensity Perceived Exertion for Practitionersgives you a broader understanding of perceived exertion and you ll be able to apply what s in the text by using the 11 picture scales included The text is a must have for anyone looking for a better way to use ratings of perceived exertion to develop training programs Myths and Legends of the Lipan Apache Indians Morris Edward Opler,2018-12-12 Lipan Apache are Southern Athabaskan Apachean Native Americans whose traditional territory included present day Texas New Mexico Colorado and the northern Mexican states of Chihuahua Nuevo Le n Coahuila and Tamaulipas prior to the 17th century Present day Lipan live mostly throughout the U S Southwest in Texas New Mexico and the San Carlos Apache Indian Reservation in Arizona as well as with the Mescalero tribe on the Mescalero Reservation in New Mexico some currently live in urban and rural areas throughout North America Mexico United States and Canada The myths and tales of this volume are of particular significance perhaps because they have reference to a tribe about which there is almost no published ethnographic material The Lipan Apache were scattered and all but annihilated on the eve of the Southwestern reservation period The survivors found refuge with other groups and except for a brief notice by Gatshet they have been overlooked or neglected while investigations of numerically larger peoples have proceeded It is gratifying therefore to be able to present a fairly full collection of Lipan folklore and to be in a position to report that this collection does much to illuminate the relations of Southern Athabaskan speaking tribes and the movements of aboriginal populations in the American Southwest The myths and tales of this volume were recorded during the summer of 1935 Claremont Colleges

Chasing the Runner's High Ray Charbonneau, 2010-10-12 In Chasing the Runner's High Ray Charbonneau tells the story how he pushed his addiction to running up to and then past his limits There are plenty of hard miles but there's lots of fun along the way too as Ray shares what he learned what he should have learned and what he still has to learn from running Marshall Ulrich 4 time winner of the Badwater Ultramarathon and author of Running on Empty calls Chasing the Runner's High a look at one man's life and obsession with running and addictive behaviors Humorous at times but always looking toward the greater good Ray shares life's ups and downs and provides a hard look into the mind of a runner offering advice that can only be had with experience and hard fought miles underfoot Adena Schulzberg winner of the 2006 Arkansas Marathon writes these are brutally honest tales told with candor and frankness about strength courage obsession desire and hard won understanding of self and sport It's a great read for runners or for non runners who want to understand their running friends www.y42k.com/books/chasingtherunnershigh.html

Idle Feet Do the Devil's Work Ray Charbonneau, 2014-10-11 Idle Feet Do the Devil's Work is an entertaining mix of facts fiction and opinions all written with Ray's unique blend of curmudgeonly candor and humor Ray takes a wide ranging look at why so many people risk sore knees and smelly shoes in order to cross one more finish line maybe if they're lucky just a little faster than they ever have before Inside these pages Ray covers a dizzying array of topics including guiding a blind runner at the Boston Marathon in 2013 and the triumphant return to Hopkinton in 2014 after the bombing a runner who sells his sole to the devil what your race trophies are talking about when you're not listening marathon pacing tips and a marathon training secret you won't get anywhere else and much more See why Runner's World called Ray a New England running fixture and why Mrs Marble Ray's kindergarten teacher said Ray enjoys explaining his ideas at great length
