Suzel A. Reily, Katherine Brucher, 2018-03-14 WINNER OF THE 2019 SOCIETY OF ETHNOMUSICOLOGY ELLEN KOSKOFF PRIZE FOR EDITED COLLECTIONS The Routledge Companion to the Study of Local Musicking provides a reference to how cross culturally musicking constructs locality and how locality is constructed by the musicking that takes place within it that is how people engage with ideas of community and place through music The term musicking has gained currency in music studies and refers to the diverse ways in which people engage with music regardless of the nature of this engagement By linking musicking to the local this book highlights the ways in which musical practices and discourses interact with people s everyday experiences and understandings of their immediate environment their connections and commitment to that locality and the people who exist within it It explores what makes local musicking local By viewing musicking from the perspective of where it takes place the contributions in this collection engage with debates on the processes of musicking identity construction community building and network formation competitions and rivalries place and space making and local global dynamics

Music in Kenyan Christianity Jean Ngoya Kidula, 2013-09-11 The book contains an excellent mix of deep personal understanding of the culture and copious documentation Eric Charry Wesleyan University This sensitive study is a historical cultural and musical exploration of Christian religious music among the Logooli of Western Kenya It describes how new musical styles developed through contact with popular radio and other media from abroad and became markers of the Logooli identity and culture Jean Ngoya Kidula narrates this history of a community through music and religious expression in local national and global settings The book is generously enhanced by audiovisual material on the Ethnomusicology Multimedia website The archival and ethnographic research is outstanding the accounts of mission history and then the musical explanations of a variety of forms of change that have accompanied mission intervention the incursion of forms of modernity and globalization at large are compelling and unparalleled Carol Muller University of Pennsylvania Explores contemporary African music through the prism of ethnographies through the people s engagement of Christianity as a unifying ideology in the context of history modernity nationalisms and globalisation Journal of Modern African Studies The meticulous and sometimes highly sophisticated musical analyses transcriptions and the rich historical and ethnographic perspectives illuminate not only ongoing discourses and contestations of syncretism and related analytical notions they also represent a plausible model of a balanced approach to ethnomusicology International Journal of African Historical Studies An essential text for thinking about world Christianities because it approaches a particular African Christianity from both insider and outsider perspectives Global Forum on Arts and Christian Faith

An Anthology of Christian Music Worship Styles in Kenya, 2008 Mixed Messages: Materiality, Textuality, Missions J. Scott, G. Griffiths, 2005-05-05 This collection of essays looks at missions their complicity in European colonialism and their postcolonial aftermath It examines the spread of Christianity ranging over the anthropological textual historical and geographical dimensions of mission enterprises with topics as diverse as the influence of mission printing and record keeping on traditional life in Africa to the role of missions in changing styles of dress in India Also uniquely the collection includes essays analyzing the role of proselytizing in Islam Hinduism and Buddhism as well as American liberal democratic capitalism The volume is interdisciplinary focusing on textual and material aspects of missions Like Griffiths earlier ground breaking books in postcolonial studies and Scott s well known interdisciplinary work on missions and postcolonial literatures this collection will be fascinating to scholars in postcolonial cultural and mission studies and be useful as a teaching tool as well Mixed Messages was listed among the 15 best books for 2005 in the Jan 2006 issue of The International Bulletin of Mission Studies The General Baptist repository, and
