Higher Education and Silicon Valley W. Richard Scott, Michael W. Kirst, 2017-09 Universities and colleges often operate between two worlds higher education and economic systems It is impossible to understand how current developments are affecting colleges without attending to the changes in both the higher education system and in the economic communities in which they exist W. Richard Scott, Michael W. Kirst and colleagues focus on the changing relations between colleges and companies in one vibrant economic region the San Francisco Bay Area Colleges and tech companies they argue have a common interest in knowledge generation and human capital but they operate in social worlds that substantially differ making them uneasy partners Colleges are a part of a long tradition that stresses the importance of precedent academic values and liberal education High tech companies by contrast value innovation and know how and they operate under conditions that reward rapid response to changing opportunities The economy is changing faster than the postsecondary education system From the cover

7001 Resumes-Plus Second Edition Ferris E. Merhish,2010 In this second chronicle about Deborah she faces an enemy whose sole purpose is to kill every human being in the universe The location of the enemy s home planets is unknown This enemy has unlimited ships and no concern about the high losses to their personnel The initial evaluation is that the enemy may not even be human They are given the name Grays A creature like the Grays seems rather harmless compared to what fiction shows you The Grays went unchallenged only because they looked so weak and fragile No one saw them as a serious threat I can only think of the army ants on the march No one takes an ant seriously however an army of ants will devastate an area and kill every living creature The Grays are the same type of threat to mankind As the Grays are building up their fleets and personnel Deborah desperately searches the known universe for additional personnel in this search she even goes to primitive nations The United States strips its military forces to provide as many personnel as possible Despite this effort there are still not enough personnel Deborah s scientists are working around the clock to not only upgrade her weapons but also provide her with new types of weapons Ramah and the United States are making a maximum effort to prepare for the upcoming battle with the Grays In this battle either the humans or the Grays will become extinct
