David Sedaris collectively attest to both the vibrancy of queer experience and the prevalence of humor found in this rich regional cannon In Precious Perversions Humor Homosexuality and the Southern Literary Canon Tison Pugh challenges the premises that elevate William Faulkner and diminish Florence King that esteem Walker Percy yet marginalize David Sedaris by arguing for the inclusion of gay comic authors as long standing defining voices in the field By redefining the tenets of Southern literature Pugh reveals long overlooked or discounted aspects of gay humor within the South s literary realm Noting for example that Tennessee Williams is revered as a dramatist who probes the heart of the human condition rather than for his submerged camp humor and Truman Capote s comic cinema and literature never eclipsed serious works Pugh establishes a history of mainstream and academic critique that ignored queer humor Likewise Florence King and Rita Mae Brown wrote defining narratives of Southern lesbian experience in respectively Confessions of a Failed Southern Lady and Rubyfruit Jungle yet according to Pugh they are almost entirely neglected in accounts of the literary South More recently the author shows the critical reception of Dorothy Allison s Bastard Out of Carolina testifies to an overarching interest in the traumatic aspects of her poetry and fiction rather than in her humor and its cathartic power Pugh also asserts that David Sedaris as a writer of the post Southern South who appears to fall beyond the parameters of regional literature for many readers creates a new humorous vision of the region that recognizes both its pained history and its grudging accession to modernity Drawing from works of key southern writers Pugh sets forth a new vision of Southern literature emerges one illuminated by the humor of gay voices no longer at the margins

Acetylene Torch Songs Sue William Silverman, 2024 Silver Medal for the 2024 IPPY Award At times writers from the unpublished to jaded lifers need a fire lit under them to pursue the complex work of self exploration Acetylene Torch Songs provides that spark for memoirists and essayists seeking mentor based instruction and inspiration Drawing on twenty five years of teaching and mentoring writers Sue William Silverman stresses practice over theory She encourages craftiness as well as craft and urges writers to embark on emotional quests in pursuit of their art Acetylene Torch Songs uniquely illustrates how the writer s imaginative spirit comes alive on the page through metaphor literary masks sensory memories voice obsessions and more This holistic approach to writing emphasizes how the creative process brings together the heart mind and senses to illuminate the human condition through language Featuring a personal essay in each chapter Silverman uses her own work to model a specific concept or approach demonstrating how obsessions secrets and memories can burn on the page Through guided prompts worksheets checklists publishing advice personal essays and strategies Silverman encourages writers to find the confidence and courage to write stories that reach beyond the page through their intimacy social engagement and honesty

Understanding the Essay Patricia Foster, Jeff Porter, 2012-07-25 This is a book on how to read the essay one that demonstrates how reading is inextricably tied to the art of writing It aims to treat the essay with the close attention that has been given to other literary genres and in doing so it suggests the beauty and depth of the form as a whole At once personal appreciations and acute critical assessments the pieces collected here broaden our perspective on the essay as a major literary art tracing its history from William Hazlitt to Joan Didion

Different Roads Larry Meredith, 2014-09-30 The works in this anthology reflect both the myth and the truth about the part of the United States we call the West Is there one true West Or have the changes that are overwhelming most of the rest of the country so modified the West that there is little commonality The editors of Different Roads believe with Stephen R Covey that our strength lies in differences not in similarities and we are constantly amazed by what Stanley Baldwin calls the many sidedness of truth Many sides of the truth of the West are represented in the anthology Is everything here absolutely the truth The reader must decide Topics included in this collection of poetry fiction and creative non fiction range from the West s diversity of landscape people languages attitudes and history to discussions of water issues wildfires antiquities and a broad range of environmental concerns

We Find Ourselves in Other People's Stories Amy E. Robillard, 2018-12-07 We Find Ourselves in Other People s Stories On Narrative Collapse and a Lifetime Search for Story is a collection of five essays that dissolves the boundary between personal writing and academic writing a longstanding binary construct in the discipline of composition and writing studies in order to examine the rhetorical effects of narrative collapse on the stories we tell about ourselves and others Taken together the essays theorize the relationships between language and violence between narrative and dementia between genre and certainty and between writing and life

We Are All Shipwrecks Kelly Grey Carlisle, 2017-09-05 AS SEEN ON DR OZ Moving and complex this is an exquisitely written tale of perseverance and unconditional love A worthwhile addition to any collection Library Journal STARRED Review A mother s murder Her daughter s redemption And the complicated past that belongs to them both Kelly always knew her family was different She knew that most children didn t live with their grandparents and that their grandparents didn t own porn stores Her classmates didn t sleep on a boat in the L A harbor and she knew their next door neighbors probably weren t drug addicts and johns She knew that most of her classmates knew more about their moms than their cause of death What

Kelly didn't know what if she would become part of the dysfunction that surrounded her. Would she end up selling adult videos and sinking into the depths of harbor life or would she escape to live her own story somewhere else? As an adult, Kelly decides to discover how the place where she came from defined the person she ultimately became. To do this, she goes back to the beginning to a mother she never knew, a thirty-year-old cold case, and two of Los Angeles's most notorious murderers. We Are All Shipwrecks is Kelly's story of redemption from tragedy, told with a tenderness toward her family that makes it as much about preserving the strings that anchor her as it is about breaking free. You Must Be This Tall to Ride B.J.

Hollars, 2009-04-29 Compelling stories have the power to generate infinite wonder. It's nearly impossible to imagine how the author began, and yet we sense there's much more beyond the final word. It's this mystery, a combination of inspiration and craft, smoke and mirrors that makes writing feel momentous. But it can also feel overwhelming, causing us to become small, scared, not quite ready for the big rides, such as finishing that story, that novel, and finding the courage to share it with the world. In You Must Be This Tall to Ride, you'll find 20 works of fiction and nonfiction by acclaimed contemporary authors, each offering a fresh perspective on coming of age, a story to which we can all relate, as well as exclusive personal essays and practical exercises. In their own words, these writers grant you a guided tour of craft with unparalleled access to the process behind their creation, including how to grow a story from the seed of an image or sentence, allow experiments with language to lead you to plot, turn even the most unlikely characters into heroes, transform raw anecdotes from your own life into compelling fiction, and essay. Join 20 writers as we grow up and down, taking a rollercoaster ride in stories. You'll not only begin to understand what makes the wheels of a story turn; you'll also gain the tools and strategies to transform lost characters and runaway plots into the greatest show on earth. So go ahead, step right up. Listen for the calliope music and take your place in line. Your ride has just begun. CONTRIBUTORS: Steve Almond, Aimee Bender, Kate Bernheimer, Ryan Boudinot, Judy Budnitz, Dan Chaon, Brock Clarke, Michael Czyzniejewski, Stuart Dybek, Michael Martone, Antonya Nelson, Peter Orner, Jack Pendarvis, Benjamin Percy, Andrew Porter, Chad Simpson, George Singleton, Brady Udall, Laura van den Berg, Ryan Van Meter. Margaret Atwood's Apocalypses Karma Waltonen, 2015-01-12 Margaret Atwood's Apocalypses features essays by established and new Atwood scholars on Atwood's poetry, The Handmaid's Tale, and the famous MaddAddam trilogy. Readers will encounter ways to trace the theme of apocalypse through decades of Atwood's work and lenses through which to view various fictional apocalypses, including disability studies, theology, and ecofeminism. A Richard Selzer Reader Kevin Kerrane, 2017-07-31 A Richard Selzer Reader Blood and Ink is a career-spanning collection including major short stories and essays by the renowned doctor-author. In the 1960s, while practicing as a general surgeon and teaching surgery at the Yale School of Medicine, Richard Selzer began publishing unique creative work in magazines such as Harper's and Esquire. By 1985, when he retired as a physician to devote himself completely to writing, Selzer was already recognized as a pioneer in the field of medical humanities. When he died in 2016, as the author of 13 books, his influence was acknowledged by a younger generation of doctor writers like Abraham Verghese and Atul Gawande Selzer's unusual style fuses scientific and poetic language Drawing on favorite readings from the King James Bible to the tales of Edgar Allen Poe he used this style to convey a sense of awe at the beauty and complexity of the human body even in the midst of suffering While describing himself as an atheist Selzer always searched for sacramental moments of courtesy courage and grace in medical encounters Because he often looked critically at the failure of doctors to regard the full humanity of their patients Selzer's work has become required reading in many medical training programs A Richard Selzer Reader includes several of the author's most famous essays and stories as well as two dozen selections that have not been collected in his previous books Chronologically the material ranges from apprenticeship stories as far back as a high school composition to two odd self portraits that remained unpublished at the time of Selzer's death Topically the material ranges from meditations on the body and on human mortality to reflections on both medicine and writing as serious vocations Along the way Selzer celebrates the work of other doctor writers like Thomas Browne and Anton Chekhov and in a series of previously unpublished diary entries he discusses the joys of nature art and family as bulwarks against the difficulties of growing old
