of Thessaloniki The conference was an attempt to shed a light on the significance of Culture and Heritage as two important factors attracting tourists and promoting economic growth and convey civilizations through tourism Themes covered in this book give an overview on current research and topics of discussion that focus on Cultural sustainable tourism through several sections The first section titled Art Architecture and Culture discusses urban regeneration as a road to the preservation of cultural and tourist destinations and the importance of understanding and benefitting from our heritage to allow for modern day improvements Heritage Tourism the section 2 of the book is more focused on offering nontraditional solutions and management plans to sustain cultural tourism and improve quality of life around historically significant areas The third section on the City and Rural Tourism follows by providing sustainable strategies to attract tourists and promoting the use of existing resources The last and final section with the title of Sustainable Tourism Development and Environmental Management maneuvers around the different yet common environmental issues existing today and proposes new and innovative solutions for their elimination Presenting a wide range of topics in chapters this book provides the scientific community with a collection of unique and enlightening literature

Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda,Jennie Germann Molz,2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy s Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Gamification for Tourism Feifei Xu,Dimitrios Buhalis,2021-05-10 This book examines the cutting edge concept of gamification in tourism It provides a theoretical foundation for tourism gamification and discusses the concepts of gaming and gamification and their application in the tourism and hospitality industry The chapters offer valuable insights by showcasing examples of best practice from different countries and addressing key issues of game mechanism and game design principles They focus on areas such as game design elements game player types and their motivation location based games augmented reality and virtual reality games The volume will be useful for students and researchers in tourism marketing digital tourism smart tourism and tourism futures It also serves as a helpful tool for tourism industry practitioners looking to increase customer engagement enhance loyalty and raise brand awareness

Tourism in the Arab World Hamed Almuhrzi,Hafidh Alriyami,Noel Scott,2017-06-15 This book is the first to explore Arabic tourism from a business viewpoint rather than taking a sociological anthropological or political stance It focuses on business planning management and marketing destinations in the Arab World which are topics crucial for industry stakeholders and which have previously been neglected in the tourism literature The book examines similarities and differences in the emergence and development of the tourism industry in countries across the Arab world as well as its inbound and outbound travel flows It analyses several different aspects of Arabic tourism including tourism policy organisation and planning tourism product development destination marketing and consumer behaviour This volume will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers of tourism studies business and Middle Eastern studies

Tourism in Pacific Islands Stephen Pratt,David Harrison,2015-02-20 Pacific Island Countries have been shown to be especially vulnerable to such external influences as natural disasters political unrest and downturns in the global economy and their tourism industries have been notably affected In particular they typically have a narrow resource base and a fragile and often vulnerable natural environment While there is some research on islands and small states there is a dearth of information on the South Pacific and very little research is being undertaken in the region compared to other geographical regions in the world This volume brings together current work in Pacific Island tourism In this collection three main themes arise Images of the South Pacific Socio economic Impacts of Tourism and Pacific Island Countries and the Outside World The first focus is on the question of image namely stereotypes of a destination held by tourists and potential tourists the extent to which residents for their part really welcome visitors and the role tourism might play in changing pre established images The second theme is tourism s impacts notably the economic and socio cultural effects of international tourism s intrusion in the region which though often hotly debated have attracted relatively little empirical research The third focus is on the challenges of how PICs articulate with their external geo political and physical environment These involve existing relations with formal colonial centres geographical isolation the need for greater air access to the outside world and for more tourists and the continuing threat to several PICs of global warming which increased air travel will inevitably exacerbate This text will be of interest to tourism students researchers and academics in the fields of tourism development studies and cultural studies

Protected Areas and Tourism in Southern Africa Lesego Senyana Stone,Moren Tibabo Stone,Patricia Kefilwe Mogomotsi,Goemeone E.J. Mogomotsi,2022-03-23 This volume discusses the complex relationship between Protected Areas and tourism and their impact on community livelihoods in a range of countries in Southern Africa Protected areas and tourism have an enduring and symbiotic relationship While protected areas offer a desirable setting for tourism products tourism provides revenue that can contribute to conservation efforts This can bring benefits to local communities but it can also have a negative impact with the establishment of protected areas leading to the eviction of local communities from their original places of residence while also preventing them from accessing the natural resources they once enjoyed Taking a multi disciplinary approach this book addresses the opportunities and challenges faced by communities and other stakeholders as they endeavour to achieve their conservation goals and work towards improving community livelihoods Case studies from Botswana Malawi Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe address key issues such as human wildlife conflicts ecotourism wildlife based tourism landscape governance wildlife crop raiding and trophy hunting including the high profile case of Cecil the lion Chapters highlight both the achievements and positive outcomes of protected areas but also the challenges faced and their impact on how protected areas are viewed and also conservation priorities more generally The volume gives these issues affecting protected areas local communities managers and international conservation efforts centre stage in order inform policy and improve practice going forward This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation natural resource management tourism sustainable development and African studies as well as professionals and policymakers involved in conservation policy
