examine the role of tourism in wider society through a critically informed sociological reflection on the unfolding relationships between international tourism and distinct renderings of citizenship with particular emphasis on the ideological and political alignments between the freedom of movement and the right to travel The text weaves its analysis of citizenship and travel in the context of addressing large scale societal transformations engendered by globalization neoliberalism and the geopolitical realignments between states as well as comprehending the internal reconfiguring of the relationship between citizens and states themselves By doing so it focuses on key themes including tourism and social citizenship rights race culture and minority rights states markets and the freedom of movement tourism peace and geo politics consumerism and class and ethical tourism global citizenship and cosmopolitanism The book concludes that the advancement of genuinely democratic and just forms of tourism must be commensurate with demands for distributive justice and a democratic politics of mobility encompassing all of humanity This timely and significant contribution to the sociology and politics of international tourism through the lens of citizenship is a must read for students and scholars in both in the fields of tourism and social science The royalties received from this book will be donated to the International Porter Protection Group

Looking South Lorne K. Kriwoken, Julia Jabour, Alan D. Hemmings, 2007 Australia has a long rich and significant history in Antarctic affairs Since 1933 Australia has asserted a claim to 42 per cent of the continent as the Australian Antarctic Territory Australia was an original signatory to the 1959 Antarctic Treaty and has subsequently played an active role in international governance of Antarctica under the Antarctic Treaty System ATS Almost half a century after the adoption of the Antarctic Treaty and in the first decade of the 21st century Antarctica is better known but is still not completely understood to science It has been designated a natural reserve devoted to peace and science and whilst some matters such as mining have been put on hold other issues present both continuing and new challenges These challenges include the implications for Antarctica of global climate change and indeed the continent s role in the generation of the world s weather the environmental political and ethical implications of increasing human activity in the region and the goals of maintaining or developing the most appropriate governance mechanisms given the complex legal circumstances There had been no contemporary analysis of Australia s involvement in Antarctic matters until 1984 when Australia s Antarctic Policy Options edited by Professor Stuart Harris brought together a diverse and intellectually powerful array of Australians focussed on Antarctic law policy and the social sciences This volume provided a benchmark by which to measure the tenor of Australia s

Antarctic agenda and as such has been of great assistance to the development of Looking South Consequently 20 years on Looking South explores how the issues identified have developed what significant new issues have emerged and how Antarctica is placed in the current political Australian agenda

Global Inequalities Orkan Köyağasıoğlu, 2020-06-24 Globalization is characterized by a systemic interconnection in which what hapInequality has been on the rise across the globe and living conditions are vastly unequal between different places in the world Currently the richest 1% own 45% of the world s wealth The consequence is that some people are able to enjoy healthy wealthy happy lives whilst others continue to live in ill health poverty and sorrow Rapid economic growth in Asia particularly China and India has lifted many people out of extreme poverty Nevertheless the wealth divide is steadily growing According to Oxfam between 2009 and 2018 the number of billionaires it took to equal the wealth of the world's poorest 50 percent fell from 380 to 26 Those with extreme wealth have often accumulated their fortunes on the backs of people around the world who work for poor wages and under dangerous conditions Women are scarce at the top and overrepresented at the bottom Gender discrimination in the workplace contributes significantly to these persistent economic divides There are also large differences in wealth across racial groups Long standing racial discrimination in many forms including in education hiring and pay practices contribute to persistent earnings gaps
