Transnational Architecture and Urbanism Davide Ponzini, 2020-05-28 Transnational Architecture and Urbanism combines urban planning design policy and geography studies to offer place based and project oriented insight into relevant case studies of urban transformation in Europe North America Asia and the Middle East Since the 1990s increasingly multinational modes of design have arisen especially concerning prominent buildings and places Traditional planning and design disciplines have proven to have limited comprehension of and little grip on such transformations Public and scholarly discussions argue that these projects and transformations derive from socioeconomic political cultural trends or conditions of globalization The author suggests that general urban theories are relevant as background but of limited efficacy when dealing with such context bound projects and policies This book critically investigates emerging problematic issues such as the spectacularization of the urban environment the decontextualization of design practice and the global circulation of plans and projects The book portends new conceptualizations evidence based explanations and practical understanding for architects planners and policy makers to critically learn from practice to cope with these transnational issues and to put better planning in place
