Positive Tourism in Africa Mucha Mkono,2019-03-20 Positive Tourism in Africa provides a crucial counter narrative to the prevailing colonial and reductionist perspective on Africa's tourism trajectory and future. It offers a uniquely optimistic outlook for tourism in Africa whilst acknowledging the many challenges that African countries continue to grapple with. By examining broad and localized empirical studies, conceptual frameworks, culturally centered paradigms and innovative methodological approaches for African contexts, this book showcases the many facets of tourism in Africa that illustrate hope, resilience, growth and survival. This volume explores themes such as community based tourism, wildlife tourism, tourism governance and leadership, crisis recovery, regional integration, the role of indigenous knowledge, event tourism and the impact of smart technologies. It acknowledges the challenges and opportunities for growth that exist in these various contexts and explores how tourism creates value for the spectrum of its participants. Including a wide selection of contributions from diverse authors, many of them African, this book offers an Afro-centric interpretation of tourism phenomena. It will be of great interest to students, researchers and academics in the field of Tourism and African Studies as well as Development Studies and Geography.

Teaching Cases in Tourism, Hospitality and Events Saurabh Kumar Dixit, Senthilkumaran

Piramanayagam, 2023-02-28. The tourism, hospitality and events industries comprise one of the largest and most diverse workforces in the world, creating high demand for graduates with strong technical and managerial competencies. Case-based learning encourages students to think, understand and apply the concepts and theories they're taught into practical, everyday situations faced in the world of work. Providing a broad selection of extensive global cases, this book forms a comprehensive one-stop shop resource for readers to test their analytical skill and abilities in solving complex management issues. Cases include teaching notes to reflect theoretical perspectives as well as questions, detailed learning activities and solutions. A useful and engaging read for students of tourism, hospitality and events, this book is also a valuable compilation of examples of practice for people working in industry.

Accessible Tourism Dimitrios Buhalis, Simon Darcy, 2011. Inclusion, disability, an ageing population and tourism are increasingly important areas of study due to their implications for both tourism demand and supply. This book therefore sets out to explore and document the current theoretical approaches, foundations and issues in the study of accessible tourism. In drawing together the contributions to this volume, the editors have applied broader social constructionist approaches to understanding the accessible tourism phenomena. Accessible tourism, as with any area of academic study, is an evolving field of academic research and industry practice. As with other areas of tourism, the field is multidisciplinary and is influenced by various disciplines including geography, disability studies, economics, public policy, psychology and marketing. As one would expect from two scholars at the height of their academic abilities, Dimitrios Buhalis and Simon Darcy have delivered a timely and much needed contribution to the under-served area of accessible tourism. Harnessing the best conceptual developments on the topic, Accessible Tourism is a scholarly yet hugely readable collection and readily communicates the various contributors' passion for and command of their subject. This collection is a must-have text for anyone engaged in the theory, practice and policy of accessible tourism and will be essential reading on undergraduate and postgraduate courses across a range of disciplines and fields I cannot speak highly enough of this endeavour and I m sure it will take accessible tourism and universal design debates into the mainstream of academic enquiry and industry practice Professor Nigel Morgan The Welsh Centre for Tourism Research University of Wales Institute Cardiff Wales

Tourism in Marine Environments ,2009 Tourism Planning and Development in the Middle East Stella Kladou,Konstantinos Andriotis,Anna Farmaki,Dimitrios Styliadis,2022-12-16 Given the historical and cultural richness of countries in the Middle East region as well as the economic development many have exhibited in recent years tourism planning and development gains much significance for both scholars and practitioners Turbulence conflicts and crises exhibited in the area add further dimensions that need to be incorporated in tourism strategies and planning and be taken into consideration by experts at an institutional corporate and educational level Furthermore in order to effectively deal with aspects of sustainability visions and strategies in the region need to build upon good practices As a result a greater understanding is required of the factors influencing decision making on tourism matters as well as on the impacts and implications of sustainable tourism development This book is an essential resource for tourism practitioners decision makers in private and public organisations government bodies and consultants not only from the Middle East but for all those who want an encompassing view of global tourism
