Tourism, Planning, and Community Development Rhonda Phillips, Sherma Roberts, 2013-09-13 The intersection of community development tourism and planning is a fascinating one Tourism has long been used as a development strategy in both developed and developing countries from the national to local levels These approaches have typically focused on economic dimensions with decisions about tourism investments policies and venues driven by these economic considerations More recently the conversation has shifted to include other aspects social and environmental to better reflect sustainable development concepts Perhaps most importantly is the richer focus on the inclusion of stakeholders An inclusionary participatory approach is an essential ingredient of community development and this brings both fields even closer together It reflects an approach aimed at building on strengths in communities and fostering social capacity and capital In this book the dimensions of the role tourism plays in community development are explored A panoply of perspectives are presented tackling such questions as can tourism heal How can tourism development serve as a catalyst to overcome social injustices and cultural divides This book was originally published as a special issue of Community Development

Planning for Ethnic Tourism Li Yang, Geoffrey Wall, 2016-04-22 Ethnic tourism has emerged as a means that is employed by many countries to facilitate economic and cultural development and to assist in the preservation of ethnic heritage However while ethnic tourism has the potential to bring economic and social benefits it can also significantly impact traditional cultures ways of life and the sense of identity of ethnic groups There is growing concern in many places about how to balance the use of ethnicity as a tourist attraction with the protection of minority cultures and the promotion of ethnic pride Despite the fact that a substantial literature is devoted to the impacts of ethnic tourism little research has been done on how to plan ethnic tourism attractions or to manage community impacts of tourism This book addresses the need for more research on planning for ethnic tourism by exploring the status and enhancement of planning strategies for ethnic tourism development The book develops the case of a well known ethnic tourist destination in China Xishuangbanna Yunnan It analyzes how ethnic tourism has been planned and developed at the study site and examines associated socio cultural and planning issues The authors evaluate the perspectives of four key stakeholder groups the government tourism entrepreneurs ethnic minorities and tourists on ethnic tourism through on site observation interviews with government officials planners and tourism entrepreneurs surveys of tourists and ethnic minority people and evaluation of government policies plans and statistics This book is unique in its emphasis on planning and in its focus on China rapidly emerging as a major player in tourism with applications for tourism around the world

Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, C. Michael Hall, 2019-09-19
Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Planning for Tourism Nigel D Morpeth, Hongliang Yan, 2015-05-01 This text provides an innovative approach to the pedagogy of contemporary planning processes within different cultural contexts globally It adopts an innovative multi disciplinary social science approach and through the inclusion of international case studies considers the extent to which intelligent design has enabled the needs of disabled residents and visitors to have universal access to social spaces and facilities In incorporating the consideration into the fabric of the book it will encourage the mainstreaming of universal design and accessible tourism as keystones of planning processes within the C21st
